Danny Lasoski Notches #107 in Thrilling Knoxville Opener! Clauson wins First in 360s, Walraven Becomes Fifth Driver to Win in All Three Classes
by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, April 16, 2016 – A beautiful spring Iowa evening welcomed the 2016 sprint car season at the Knoxville Raceway Saturday! Pella Motors Night saw action from beginning to end. At the conclusion of the night, Dover, Missouri's Danny Lasoski was atop the podium in the 410 class. It was the "Dude's" 107th career feature win at Knoxville aboard the Muddy.com #2, and the seventh time he has graced Victory Lane on opening night at the "Sprint Car Capital of the World". Bryan Clauson registered his first career 360 sprint feature at Knoxville after winning Friday night without the wing in USAC competition in Bloomington, Indiana. Chris Walraven made some history of his own in the 305 class. He joined Clint Garner, Bronson Maeschen, Randy Smith and Tim St. Arnold as the only drivers to win in the 410, 360 and 305 classes.

The "Missing Man" formation honoring Bob Trostle, Lenard McCarl and others we've lost during the offseason preceded the main event. Before a lap could be completed, a jump by Ian Madsen triggered a chain reaction that saw Mike Reinke, Dustin Selvage and Dakota Hendrickson head to the work area. When the green flag fell again, it was Bryan Clauson leading Danny Lasoski and Davey Heskin early in the 20-lapper.

Austin McCarl was blowing heavy smoke and came to a stop in turn two with four laps complete. The oil leak was remedied and he returned to the fray. Clauson led Lasoski, Heskin, Wayne Johnson and Kerry Madsen back to green. Lasoski took advantage, using his patented low groove to gain the point. Meanwhile, Johnson shot by Heskin into third.

On lap nine, Kerry Madsen asserted himself, moving by Heskin and Johnson into third. Four laps later, Bronson Maeschen got over the treacherous turn three cushion, smacked the wall and retired. Mark Dobmeier spun to avoid the incident. The final restart saw Lasoski pull away, but there was plenty of action behind he and the second place car of Clauson.

Heskin, who restarted sixth, shot by Brian Brown and Johnson into fourth. He would pick off Madsen for third on lap seventeen, while Brown followed him into fourth a lap later. Brown and Heskin would battle to the checkers, with Brown earning the show position on the white flag lap. Lasoski, Clauson, Brown and Heskin were followed by Kerry Madsen, Wayne Johnson, hard-charger Tasker Phillips, Sammy Swindell, Tim Kaeding and Brooke Tatnell.

Kerry Madsen set quick time of the night, while Ian Madsen, Brown and Kaeding won heat races. Phillips won the B. Rookie Jake Bubak took a hard tumble in turn two during his heat race, but was uninjured.

"Thanks to everyone for coming out," said Lasoski in Victory Lane. "This is the best opening night crowd I've seen in a long time. We really appreciate it. This race is for my beautiful mother-in-law in Florida. They are having a party for her. Wish I could be there, but glad they could watch me on TV. This is home for us. We just love coming here. This is our second home, and every race here is good practice for August."

Clint Garner led the 18-lap 360 feature, shooting by Matt Moro on the first lap. Moro returned the favor the next couple of laps in an exciting battle. Garner gained the lead gain on lap four, while Clauson was moving into the top five after starting tenth. On lap six, Josh Baughman moved by Moro for second, but Clauson was on the move, shooting under both drivers on the next go-around to take over the runner-up spot.

With seven laps recorded, Kade Higday jumped the turn one cushion and turned over, bringing out the red flag. He was uninjured. The restart saw Garner pace Clauson, Baughman, Moro and Ryan Giles. Clauson stalked Garner for five more laps, taking the Matt Wood Racing #17w to the cushion. He would make his winning move on lap twelve, just before Brandon Hanks came to rest in turn two.

Clauson would not be denied the final six laps, winning over Garner, Baughman, Moro and Jamie Ball. Ryan Roberts, Matt Covington, Seth Bergman, Justin Henderson and Blake Hahn rounded out the top ten. Garner set quick time over the 33-car field and won his heat race. Randy Martin, Nate Van Haafden and Chris Martin won heats, while Hahn claimed the B main.

"I felt like when we got to clean air, I was good on the top," said Clauson afterwards. "I was trying to mix it up a little bit. That way if he was right there with me I could keep him guessing. We spent all last year trying to get good in these things, and these guys work their butts off and make me look like I know what I'm doing out here. It's pretty special to get a win here at Knoxville.”

Chris Walraven led all 15 laps of the 305 main event. Early it was McKenna Haase and Brad Comegys who gave chase. Devin Kline worked his way into the top three by lap five and passed Haase for second with two laps to go.

On the white flag lap, it looked like Kline had a shot at the leader in lapped traffic, but the caution came out for a stopped Mike Mayberry, setting up a green, white, checker finish. While Walraven pulled away to claim his win, Haase surged back by Kline to finish second. Christian Bowman was fourth ahead of Trevor Smith. Hard-charger Matthew Stelzer, Mitchell Alexander, Corey Kautz, Mike Houseman Jr. and Joe Simbro rounded out the top ten. Kline set quick time, while Alexander, Billy Bell and Walraven took heat races.

“This makes the long winter in Iowa worth it when you can win the season opener,” said Walraven. “This is awesome! I was in some serious lapped traffic for five or six laps there at the end. I kind of wanted to see the yellow. I thought I saw Devin poke his nose in there. When the yellow came out, I felt pretty good.”

Ian Madsen Wins Knoxville Tilt!
Dusty Zomer Wins in 360's and Christian Bowman Wins First in 305's
by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, April 23, 2016 – Ian Madsen scored his sixth career win at the Knoxville Raceway in front of another big crowd on Earth Day Night Saturday. The first 300 fans in attendance received a tree from the Arbor Day Foundation. The St. Mary's, New South Wales driver hopes using a restart to shoot by Tim Kaeding for the $3,000 score in the KCP Racing #18 plants his own seeds towards a championship. Dusty Zomer led wire to wire to record his sixth career win in the 360 class, while Christian Bowman was a first-time winner at Knoxville in the 305 class.

In the 20-lap 410 main event, Davey Heskin jumped out to an early lead from his starting spot outside of row one ahead of Tim Kaeding, Madsen, Brian Brown and Justin Henderson. The top five remained the same the first half of the race until becoming mired in heavy traffic.

While Heskin was slowing a bit in traffic, Kaeding was gaining. He shot under the leader to take the point on lap eleven. One circuit later, Austin McCarl spun in turns three and four with a shredded left rear tire. Madsen, who had just taken over second from Heskin shot to the low side of turn one on the restart and slid in front of Kaeding to take the lead.

Brown followed Madsen by Heskin to take third on the restart, and then gained second from Kaeding on lap 14. He reeled in Madsen as the two approached traffic, but he was never close enough to make a serious attempt at the win. Kaeding held onto third, ahead of Bryan Clauson and Danny Lasoski, who grabbed fifth in the final corner. Heskin, Henderson, Craig Dollansky, Dusty Zomer and Mark Dobmeier rounded out the top ten. Henderson set quick time, while Zomer, Bronson Maeschen and Dobmeier won heat races. An incident in the first heat saw Josh Schneiderman get upside down. He was uninjured, and returned later in the night.

“(Heskin) was leading and the lapped traffic was pretty heavy,” said Madsen in Victory Lane. “It’s difficult to know where to go. I can of had a plan (on the restart) and I was going for it 100%. I didn’t know if it was going to work, but we were really hungry for a win and it worked. We kind of struggled last week for the opening night and we were banging our heads against the wall all week. It’s awesome to come back, it doesn’t get any better than getting a win.”

The 360 feature went non-stop after an incident marred the first try at green. Ryan Roberts spun into the turn one wall and collected Randy Martin, who flipped towards turn two. Both drivers were o.k.

Once green, Dusty Zomer took off to lead all 18 laps, but there was plenty of action behind him. While John Agan rode second, Ian Madsen and Justin Henderson exchanged the third spot twice. Madsen would win that battle and take second on lap eight, but Clint Garner had plans of his own. The six-time track champ battled with Henderson before shooting from fifth to third on the tenth lap. His next victim was Madsen on lap 13. Though he was running hard, Zomer had checked out to win by a straightaway in the Buffalo Wild Wings #82.

Following Zomer and Garner were Madsen, Henderson and Matt Moro. Nate Van Haaften, Tony Shilling, Agan, Jamie Ball and Joe Beaver rounded out the top ten. Henderson set quick time for the 360's (tying with Garner), while Beaver, Martin and Lee Grosz won heats. Ricky Montgomery claimed the B main.

"With this 360 deal, our motor and car work really nice," said Zomer. "The team is really working hard. We've been traveling quite a bit and that helps. We had a fast hot rod. It's hard to judge how fast you really are when you get out front like that. I was just trying to get through traffic as best I could."

The best battle in the 15-lap 305 feature was up front. Christian Bowman and Mitchell Alexander raced side by side for much of an event that was slowed by two cautions and a red flag incident. Trevor Smith and rookie AJ Johnson brought out the caution periods, while Brad Comegys turned over in turn one. No one was injured.

The 20-year-old Bowman used the low side to his advantage throughout the race in the Christian Bowman Racing #15, while Mitchell Alexander rode the cushion. In the closing stages, Bowman pulled away to win over Alexander, Mike Mayberry, Devin Kline and Chris Walraven. McKenna Haase, Stacey Alexander, Matthew Stelzer, Joe Simbro and Corey Kautz rounded out the top ten. Walraven set quick time for the 305's, while Haase and Bowman won the heat races. Rookie Tyler Dollison lost a wheel and flipped hard into turn one in his heat race. He was uninjured.

"This is amazing!" said an excited Bowman in Victory Lane. "I have to thank my sponsors, my team and my Dad. What a night! It was fun. I hope the fans like it too!"

Danny Lasoski Holds Them Off for 108th Win at Knoxville!
Clint Garner Wire to Wire in 360's, Tyler Glass Survives in 305's
by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, May 7, 2016 – Danny Lasoski had plenty of company up front, but in the end, he reigned victorious for the 108th time Saturday night at the Knoxville Raceway. The Dover, Missouri driver claimed $3,000 for his win aboard the Big Game Motorsports #2 machine. Sioux Falls, South Dakota's Clint Garner won his 22nd career main event in the 360 class, while rookie Tyler Glass persevered to claim a crazy 305 main event that saw six cars finish, and the apparent winner disqualified.

Lasoski took off from his pole position in the 20-lap 410 feature ahead of Brian Brown and Ian Madsen. While Lasoski rode his traditional low line, Brown pulled beside him on the cushion on several occasions early.

It was evident early that Terry McCarl had one of the fastest cars on the racetrack, however, and after starting 11th, he entered the top five, passing Dale Blaney on the eighth lap. On lap eleven, he shot under Justin Henderson to take fourth, on lap twelve, he passed Madsen for third, and moved up one more spot, getting by Brown on lap thirteen.

With the leaders in heavy lapped traffic, and McCarl gaining on Lasoski, Logan Forler tipped over in turn four to bring out the red flag. He was uninjured. Lasoski led McCarl, Brown, Madsen and Henderson back to green flag racing with five laps to go. Lasoski maintained his advantage with McCarl breathing down his neck when RJ Johnson blew his left rear tire with two laps to go.

The final restart would see Lasoski pull away, while Brown took back second in front of McCarl. Henderson and Madsen rounded out the top five. Davey Heskin, Tim Kaeding, Blaney, Craig Dollansky and Lynton Jeffrey completed the top ten. Heskin registered quick time on the night, while Jeffrey, Dustin Selvage and Scott Bogucki won heat races.

“What a night to be on the pole,” said Lasoski. “The racetrack was really good on the bottom. Even the lapped cars on the bottom were hard to pass on the high side. My hat’s off to (crew chief) Guy Forbrook and (owner) Tod Quiring with the GoMuddy.com car. (McCarl’s) been going good lately. Last night, he put a clinic on (at I-80 Speedway). Tonight, he was right there again. We have to step our game up, and I’ve got the right guy turning wrenches.”

Clint Garner shot to a lead immediately in the non-stop 18-lap 360 main event and he would never relinquish it. He and the second place car of Jamie Ball would separate themselves from the field throughout the race. Meanwhile, Justin Henderson and Sawyer Phillips traded the third spot three times the first half of the race.

While Garner and Ball were taking off, Jon Agan was working his way forward from inside of row five. He would claim the third spot on the podium on lap 13. Henderson finished fourth and Calvin Landis was fifth. Ian Madsen, Phillips, Matt Moro, Ryan Giles and Tony Shilling completed the top ten. Henderson set quick time and was just two-tenths of a second off of Joe Beaver’s three-year old one-lap record for the 360’s. Agan and Giles won heat races.

“There are a lot of good engines starting up front in these races,” said Garner in Victory Lane. “I was nervous before that race. I’m happy as heck though. We had a great, great car. It wasn’t so good early in the night, but we put some new tires on it and that fixed everything.”

Tyler Glass put Cinderella’s story to shame in the 305 class. The rookie was making just his third 305 start at Knoxville, but a crazy feature would see him emerge on top in the end.

Chris Walraven led at the outset of the 15-lap race ahead of Devin Kline and Corey Kautz. April 23 winner Christian Bowman made his presence felt early, however, moving into third on lap two, and second on a lap three restart.

Walraven held off the charging Bowman until a lap seven melee occurred in turn one. When McKenna Haase got sideways, her correction came too late for Kautz, who spun and collected Matthew Stelzer, who flipped. Mitchell Alexander and Ben Woods were also caught in the fray.

The restart was even worse, when Walraven’s machine died at the frontstretch cone, causing a five-car pileup that eliminated the top four drivers including himself, Bowman, Kline and Haase. Fortunately, no one was injured.

Mike Mayberry emerged as the leader, and despite one more restart, held onto the lead through the checkers with six cars remaining in the race. However, at the scales he weighed in two pounds light. That made Glass, who had assumed second after the chaos at the halfway point, a first-time winner. Cody Ambers, Stacey Alexander, Trevor Smith and Woods were the other cars still running.

Bowman set quick time with a new one-lap track record of 16.736, and Haase and Mitchell Alexander won heat races. Brad Comegys spun, collecting Joe Simbro in their heat race. The two drivers set off a nasty crash in turn two, but fortunately, both walked away uninjured.

“We got real fortunate with the wrecks,” said Glass afterwards. “I hope everyone is alright. We ran right on the bottom. I saw (Mayberry) up top and we kind of stayed with him, so I stayed on the bottom. It was a luck of fate that he was light. I didn’t really want to pick up a win like that. It’s unfortunate for everybody, but I’ll take it any way I can get it. I’m getting a lot more comfortable in the car though. The first two weeks, we were kind of getting a feel for it. Tonight, I was pretty much flatfooting it with a little brake.”

Late Pass Gives Brian Brown Win #31 at Knoxville!
Henderson wins 360 Thriller, Kautz Wins First in 305's
by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, May 14, 2016 – Brian Brown heated things up on a cool night with a late pass to net his 31st career 410 feature win on McKay Insurance/Nationwide Night at Knoxville Raceway Saturday. The Grain Valley, Missouri driver snagged $3,000 for his win in the Brian Brown Racing Casey's General Stores/FVP #21. Justin Henderson grabbed his seventh career win in the 360 class, climbing from a starting spot in row five in the BDS Motorsports #1. Corey Kautz executed a pass in lap traffic to grab his first win in the 15-lap 305 feature in record time.

Brooke Tatnell set the pace early on in the 20-lap 410 main event. The Aussie pulled away from Matt Juhl and Austin McCarl, before McCarl stopped with a broken power steering line with four laps in the books. Brown would pass Juhl for second on the restart, but that was negated when AJ Moeller and Bronson Maeschen crashed hard in turn two. They were uninjured.

One more lap was in the books when RJ Johnson came to a rest against the turn four wall with five laps down. That restart saw Tatnell ahead of Juhl, Brown, Danny Lasoski and Ian Madsen. Juhl surged to a lead down the backstretch when the green flew again, but Tatnell powered back off the bottom of turn four to keep his advantage.

The next eleven laps went non-stop. Madsen and Craig Dollansky moved past Lasoski into fourth and fifth by the eighth lap. Dollansky would continue his charge, moving by Madsen with five laps to go to claim fourth. Brown surged as he and Juhl were in a dead heat on the completion of lap 16. Because his last lap was quicker, he assumed the runner-up position behind Tatnell on the restart.

Tatnell kept his advantage for two more circuits, and then Brown shot around to lead lap 18. Dollansky moved onto the podium, getting by Juhl on the same lap. Following Brown, Tatnell and Dollansky, was hard-charger, Tim Kaeding who drove from 17th to grab fourth on the last lap. Juhl, Madsen, Dusty Zomer, Justin Henderson, Lasoski and Davey Heskin rounded out the top ten. Maeschen set quick time on the night, and Mark Dobmeier, Brown and Moeller won heat races.

“We’ve ran in the top three the last eight or nine nights,” said Brown in Victory Lane. “That’s nice, but it’s nice to get wins too. I didn’t know if we’d be able to get it done tonight, but we did. The team’s been here the last five years. I don’t know if the driver has shown up the last couple of years. Sometimes it takes a wintertime to sift through everything to see what’s right and what’s wrong. This team busts their tail and they deserve to win every night. I’d really like to thank this crowd. It was a great crowd on a pretty cold night.”

Ian Madsen shot out from his starting spot outside row two of the 360 feature to lead the 18-lapper early on. Chris Martin, Jamie Ball, Joe Beaver and Billy Alley settled in behind him. Beaver suffered a rear-end issue in turn one, and backed into the fence with three laps down. He was uninjured, but surrendered his fourth place run.

Just one more lap was in the books, when a caution was displayed for Derrick Lusk, Dave Getchell and Mike Van Haafden, all of whom retired. Alley shot by Martin into third on the restart, as Ball ran down the leader. Justin Henderson was on the move, however, moving up to fourth on the restart and then tracking down Alley to gain third on lap seven.

The final caution came out for Kade Higday, who made contact with the turn three wall on lap ten. He was taken to the hospital, complaining of a leg injury. With eight laps to go, Madsen led Ball, Henderson, Alley and Dusty Zomer back to green.

Ball would use the low side to shoot by Madsen on lap eleven, while Henderson would use the same move two laps later to take second. Henderson seemed to gain speed as the race went on, and shot by Ball with three laps to go to take the win. Ball held on to second, ahead of Madsen, hard-charger Clint Garner (from 15th) and Alley. Zomer, Martin, Tony Shilling, Nate Van Haafden and Ryan Giles rounded out the top ten. Beaver set quick time for the 360’s, while Zomer, Nate Van Haafden and Sawyer Phillips won heats.

“(Ball) was doing a really good job when he came up on a lapped car,” said Henderson in Victory Lane. “I didn’t know if I’d have time to get to him before we got to the lapped car. It just worked out for us. I’m really proud of this team. We were fighting hard all night to find something that was going to work.”

The 15-lap 305 main event went non-stop in record time at 4:27.2. Mike Mayberry, who crossed first a week ago, but was two pounds light at the scales, pulled away in the early going from Corey Kautz, Chris Walraven and McKenna Haase. Haase would shoot by Walraven on the second lap for third.

At the halfway point, the top five was Mayberry, Kautz, Haase, Walraven and Mitchell Alexander. The tenth lap would see Kautz make his winning move. Mayberry elected to go low behind a lapped car, and Kautz used that as a pick, rocketing on the cushion into the lead. He would guide the Greenland Homes #51 to his first career feature win at Knoxville. Mayberry would maintain second ahead of Haase, Walraven and Mitchell Alexander. Christian Bowman, Matthew Stelzer, Stacey Alexander, Joe Simbro and Chase Wanner completed the top ten. Wanner set quick time, while Mayberry and Simbro won heats.

“We’ve really struggled,” said Kautz in Victory Lane. “We’re upside down more than we’re going forward. Tonight’s an awesome night! I’ve gotta thank Steve Gruber, Greg Jensen, David Chase and I have to thank the Ball team. They’ve made us quick and made us consistent. We won one!”

Join us next week as the National Sprint League makes its first appearance of 2016! Drivers will be shooting for a $5,000 win! It’s also $1 Busch Light Night! For more information on Knoxville Raceway, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Lasoski Wins Battle with Brown for NSL Win at Knoxville!

Garner Wins Again in 360's, Walraven Wins Second of Year in 305's
by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, May 21, 2016 – Danny Lasoski wrestled a late race lead from Brooke Tatnell, and held off his nephew Brian Brown to claim a $5,000 National Sprint League win Saturday night at the Knoxville Raceway. The win was the Dover, Missouri pilot's 109th at the famous half-mile in front of a large crowd on Town Crier Night. Clint Garner won the 23rd 360 feature of his career at Knoxville, tying him for second with John Kearney on the all-time winner's list. Chris Walraven claimed his second 305 feature win of the season.

Craig Dollansky, fresh off of his $10,000 score Friday night at the Folkens Brothers Trucking Spring Nationals in Jackson, Minnesota, led the 25-lap feature in the early going ahead of Brooke Tatnell and Davey Heskin. Danny Lasoski, who was the high point man after setting quick time and winning his heat, was up to fourth by lap two from his eighth starting spot.

By lap six, Brian Brown, who also started in row four advanced into the top five. While Dollansky worked up front, Tatnell was gaining on him, and took the point on lap seven. Behind him, a four-way battle brought fans to the edge of their seat. Positions second through fifth were swapped between Dollansky, Lasoski, Heskin and Brown.

At the halfway juncture, it was Tatnell leading Lasoski, Dollansky, Heskin and Brown. Brown would start to assert himself at that point, cruising on the cushion, and getting by Heskin for fourth on lap 14, and Dollansky for third on the next lap.

Lasoski was true to a thin groove on the low side, and shot by Tatnell with six laps to go. Brown followed him into second on lap 21, and it seemed the winning battle would be decided in lapped traffic. The only caution of the event came out on lap 22, however, when Scott Bogucki spun.

Lasoski was able to take Brown's high line away and pull away for the win in clean air. Following the lead pair were Tatnell, Dollansky and Ian Madsen. Hard-charger Jeff Swindell made a last lap pass for sixth, and Heskin, Dustin Selvage, Tasker Phillips and RJ Johnson rounded out the top ten. Madsen and Selvage joined Lasoski as heat winners.

"The car was shaking so bad I couldn't see where I was going," said Lasoski in Victory Lane. "I guess the wheel was full of mud. I was just trying to keep it between the fences. My hat's off to (crew chief) Guy Forbrook. The last two weeks we've been less than stellar. Tonight, he put this GoMuddy car in Victory Lane. (Brown) does what he has to do. He goes where I'm not. I kept choosing the wrong lines, but once we got through there, I didn't see him anymore."

Nate Van Haaften led the 18-lap 360 main event early on over Tony Shilling and Chris Martin. Clint Garner quickly put his hat in the ring however, moving into third on the second lap. With two laps in the books, the caution came out for John Anderson, who came to a stop inside of turn one. The restart saw Van Haaften leading Shilling, Garner, Jon Agan and Martin back to green.

Garner quickly shot into second and battle ensued with he on the high side and Van Haaften down low. The red flag flew with five laps down, when Mike Van Haaften spun and collected Alan Zoutte, who tipped over. He was uninjured.

While the lead duo continued to battle, Calvin Landis was progressing from his starting spot outside row five. The veteran was into the top four by lap nine, and passed Agan for third with eight laps to go.

Garner would make his final move in lapped traffic, sneaking under Van Haaften on lap 13 and cruising to the win. Following the Sioux Falls driver and Van Haaften across the stripe were Landis, Shilling and Agan. Matt Moro, Martin, Seth Bergman, Jamie Ball and Sawyer Phillips rounded out the top ten. Joe Beaver, who set quick time, took a wicked ground pounder at the start of the first heat race. He was o.k., though the car was destroyed. Agan and Nate Van Haaften won the heats.

"I was really happy to see the lapped traffic coming," said Garner in Victory Lane. "Nate was doing a great job down there on the bottom and I wanted to just drive around him up there in my line. It was a little too far around, and I was probably being a little too hard on the tires. Nate was kind of in the line to be had. We're happier than heck to get this win. I want to dedicate this win to an employee and good friend of ours Kirby Wiese, who is battling cancer."

Chris Walraven led the distance of the 15-lap 305 feature. The Knoxville veteran used the low side the entire way to grab his second win of the season. Devin Kline retired early with what was suspected to be an electrical issue on lap four. Christian Bowman used restarts to his advantage, gaining fourth on the caution for Ball with four laps down, and third on a lap eight restart for a 360 spin by Dan Henning.

Last week's winner, Corey Kautz, battled the leader much of the way utilizing the cushion. He pulled alongside him before one final yellow for a spun Henning with three laps to go. Bowman again used a good restart to capture second, but could not run down Walraven. Behind Walraven and Bowman came Kautz, McKenna Haase and Mike Mayberry. Hard-charger Stacey Alexander, Brad Comegys, Mitchell Alexander, Ben Woods and Matthew Stelzer rounded out the top ten. Bowman set quick time, while Walraven and Haase won the heats. Trevor Smith slammed into the infield fence on the frontstretch at the onset of his heat race and flipped. He was unhurt.

"I could hear them back there, they were coming," said Walraven. "I was trying not to miss the bottom down here (turn one), because it's very narrow. It's a half a left rear wide getting in. If you miss it, you're in trouble. You're out in 'No Man's Land'. This team came together late, and it's quite a deal."

Kerry Madsen Rolls NSL Field for Win #18 at Knoxville! Garner Wins Again in 360's, Bowman Awarded 305 Feature by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, May 28, 2016 – Kerry Madsen was the class of the field at Saturday's Brownell's Salute to the Troops Night at Knoxville Raceway Saturday night. The St. Mary's, New South Wales, Australia native earned $5,000 for his National Sprint League win. The 2005 track champ notched win #18 aboard the Keneric Racing #29. Clint Garner kept his momentum going in the 360 class, grabbing his third feature win of the season, and the 24th in his career, second all-time with the 360's at this historic oval. Chase Wanner led every lap of the 305 feature, but was disqualified at post-race inspection. That win was awarded to Christian Bowman.

The NSL point system saw an invert of six for the 25-lap feature. That put Kerry Madsen on the pole. He shot out to an early lead, but only one lap was recorded when an eighth running Dustin Selvage turned over in turn one. The crash collected Bill Balog, who also tipped over. Both were uninjured.

Another caution would fly three laps in, when a ninth place running AJ Moeller spun to the inside of turn four. Paige Polyak came to a stop with four laps in to bring the final slowdown. On the restart, Madsen led Craig Dollansky, Bronson Maeschen, Dusty Zomer and Danny Lasoski back to green. Zomer, Lasoski and Brian Brown moved into the third through fifth spots shortly after the green fell.

Madsen extended his margin using the low side of a heavy racetrack that saw plenty of rain during the week. Meanwhile, Zomer had advanced from his starting spot outside row four to challenge Dollansky for second. He would slide in front of the veteran on lap ten.

Madsen executed well in lapped traffic, winning over Zomer by almost two and a half seconds. Dollansky maintained third ahead of a dueling Lasoski and Brown. Ian Madsen, Maeschen, Terry McCarl, Davey Heskin and Justin Henderson rounded out the top ten. Heskin set quick time over the field. Moeller, Terry McCarl and Austin McCarl won heat races, while Henderson claimed the B main.

“I ran it as hard as I could wide open,” said Kerry in Victory Lane. “I found the bottom down there, and I was comfortable with that. It was a really quick pace for a 25-lap race. The car was fantastic; I just can’t thank the guys enough. I pushed hard with the cars I had behind me. This is such a tremendous place. I can’t say enough about what it does for sprint car racing. It’s fantastic! I want to thank Brownell’s for stepping up tonight, and it’s great what they do with the vets.”

For the second week in a row, Nate Van Haaften led the 360 field early in their main event. This time, it didn’t take Clint Garner as long to get to the front. He worked by the leader on lap three and pulled away. The race saw two cautions. Matt Moro spun while running seventh with eight laps down, and Rob Weuve spun with eleven laps in the books.

Joe Beaver challenged Van Haaften for the runner-up spot, shooting by on the high side on lap 11. Their battle continued, and Van Haaften stuck the low groove to reclaim the spot with three to go. Following Garner, Van Haaften and Beaver across the stripe were Tony Shilling and Seth Bergman. Ryan Giles, Calvin Landis, Sawyer Phillips, Chris Martin and Moro rounded out the top ten. Garner set quick time in the class, while Giles and Shilling won heats.

“Just think that’s a borrowed engine (Nate Van Haaften’s),” said Garner. “He said he’s getting a new one soon. When I saw he was on the front row, I thought I need to pass him again tonight. I hope that is his good engine and he’s just baffling me. Two weeks in a row prior to this, he’s had the fastest lap on the track. If he can do that on a borrowed engine, I don’t know what he’s going to do with a good one. I can’t thank my motor builder, Al Parker, enough. We’re champions for a reason, and it’s him.”

Chase Wanner led the 15-lap 305 feature from the outset. Chris Walraven and Christian Bowman fought for second in the early going, while Devin Kline and McKenna Haase moved into fourth and fifth in the first five circuits.

When Dan Henning stopped due to a vibration on the sixth lap, Wanner led Walraven, Bowman, Kline and Haase back to green. Bowman surged into second on the restart, while Kline followed him into third with five laps to go. One final slowdown came when Trevor Smith’s mount went up in smoke.

Wanner kept his advantage to the checkers, but his first win was denied when he failed the post-race inspection of his muffler. Bowman was awarded his second career feature win, ahead of Kline, Walraven, Haase and Stacey Alexander. Joe Simbro, Brad Comegys, Mike Mayberry, Mitchell Alexander and Matthew Stelzer rounded out the top ten. Bowman notched another quick time, while Kline and Mitchell Alexander won the heat races.

Brian Brown Slices and Dices for $5,000 NSL Win at Knoxville!
Ian Madsen Wins First Career 360 Feature, Devin Kline Ties All-Time Mark with 305's
by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, June 4, 2016 – Brian Brown won a shootout with Bronson Maeschen to take home a National Sprint League feature worth $5,000 on Logan Contractors Night at the Knoxville Raceway Saturday. The win aboard the Casey's General Stores/FVP #21 was the Grain Valley, Missouri driver's 32nd at this famous oval. Outstanding racing on a great track throughout the night thrilled another big crowd at Knoxville. Ian Madsen won his first ever 360 feature at Knoxville in the Logan Contractors/Aspen Aire #18, while Devin Kline won for the eighth time in the 305 class, tying him with Larry Ball Jr. for first on the all-time win list for that class.

Bronson Maeschen shot out early in the 25-lap NSL main event ahead of Brooke Tatnell and Brown. Brown shot under Tatnell on the second lap to take the runner-up spot. There were six laps down, when fourth-running Danny Lasoski shot over the turn two cushion. He would restart at the tail.

Maeschen would lead Brown, Tatnell, Craig Dollansky and Sammy Swindell back to green. Dollansky, who had started eighth, shot into third shortly after the green flag fell. Maeschen rode the cushion out from of the field in the middle stages with Brown in pursuit. Both worked through lapped traffic well.

Brown stalked the leader, and when Maeschen bobbed over the turn four cushion on lap 18, he took the lead. That set off a battle, as Maeschen and Brown went three-wide with the lapped car of Jake Bubak on lap 19, with Maeschen regaining the point. Brown rode the low side of turn two to retake the lead for good on lap 20. He would pull away for his second win of the season at Knoxville.

Maeschen's right rear was flat after the race, but he held onto second, ahead of Dollansky, Tatnell and Ian Madsen. Sammy Swindell, newcomer Dominic Scelzi, Tasker Phillips, Lasoski and Davey Heskin rounded out the top ten. Lasoski set quick time on the night, while Scelzi, Phillips and Mike Reinke won heat races.

"(Maeschen) did a phenomenal job," said Brown in Victory Lane. "He's got a good engine under that hood just like we do. Charlie Garrett does a phenomenal job. It's called motorsports for a reason. He didn't make it easy on me, but it was a good night. We still have a long ways to go. We won that race, but I don't think we're where we need to be (for the Knoxville Nationals in August). We're just a little bit off. It's good to be off and still win. Sometimes you have to dig deep, and that's what we did. Thanks to the crowd for coming out. That was awesome. Hopefully, you guys come back next week and we can put the Knoxville Raceway flag in the ground and beat the Outlaws!"

Matt Covington led the 18-lap 360 feature in the early stages over Jamie Ball and Clint Garner. Four laps were in the books when Mike Van Haften spun in turn four bringing the yellow flag out. Covington led Ball, Garner, Ian Madsen and Calvin Landis back to green flag racing. Two laps later, Madsen worked by Garner for third. Meanwhile, up front, Ball was utilizing the low side to reel in Covington, who was on the cushion.

The lead pair battled, with Ball finally seizing the lead on lap eight. One circuit later, Van Haften spun again, and was sent pitside. A u-joint issue sidelined Wayne Johnson, who had worked his way into the top ten on lap ten. The restart saw Ball leading Covington, Madsen, Garner and Landis back to green again.

Madsen quickly seized second from Covington and set his sights on the leader. One last yellow flew for a stopped Joe Beaver with 12 laps down. Ball was able to hold off Madsen for two laps, but the driver of the Logan Contractors #18 was too much, taking the lead on lap 14 and pulling away for his first ever Knoxville 360 victory. Ball was second, ahead of Covington, hard-charger Tony Shilling and Garner. Landis, Seth Bergman, Aaron Reutzel, Matt Moro and Russ Hall rounded out the top ten. Ryan Giles laid down quick time, while Beaver, Bergman and Wayne Johnson won the heats. Aaron Reutzel took the B main.

"This is awesome," said Madsen in Victory Lane. "This 360 car has been awesome lately, and we've picked up a lot of wins. It's just good to get a win in front of Logan Contractors. They are a big supporter of ours. I'm glad all the guys could make it tonight."

Christian Bowman was making a bid for his third win of the season early in the 15-lap 305 feature. Devin Kline chased the leader early, followed by McKenna Haase. The event went non-stop.

Kline, who has struggled this year, worked under Bowman on lap seven, and never looked back to record his eighth career feature, tying car owner Larry Ball Jr. for first on the all-time 305 winners' list. Bowman, Haase, Chase Wanner and Matthew Stelzer followed Kline across the stripe. Mike Mayberry, Chris Walraven, Christopher Scank, Corey Kautz and Billy Bell rounded out the top ten. Walraven set quick time, while Stacey Alexander and Mayberry won heat races.

"I didn't know if I'd remember to make that right-hand turn or not," said Kline in Victory Lane. "This year has been something else. The cars, the motors...it makes you doubt yourself when you aren't doing as well as you want. This couldn't have come at a better time. We had a great car. I have to thank my team. It makes all the work in the shop worth it. (Bowman) really gave us a run for the money. It was really fun, and I hope it was fun for the fans!”

Join us next weekend as the World of Outlaws invade Knoxville Raceway for two big nights, Friday, June 10 and Saturday, June 11! Friday will be Budweiser Night, while Saturday’s finale will be the Xtream Shootout powered by Mediacom. The 360 sprints will be in competition both nights as well! In addition to the great racing, featuring our Knoxville regulars against the World of Outlaws, many activities for all ages are planned for the weekend! Terry McCarl Tames Outlaws at Knoxville!
Nate Van Haften Uses Last Lap Pass to Win 360's
by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, June 10, 2016 – After qualifying, Terry McCarl had his work cut out for him. The Altoona, Iowa veteran did what he had to do, and stood atop the World of Outlaws podium Friday on Budweiser Night with the World of Outlaws. The win aboard the TMAC Motorsports #24 was worth $12,000. In 360 action, Nate Van Haften picked up his first feature win of the year by surging by race-long leader Calvin Landis on the final circuit.

McCarl timed in 12th quick, but quickly surged from outside row three to finish second in his heat. That gave him a trip to the Dash, and an invert of eight in that event put him on the pole. After winning the Dash, McCarl took off to an early lead in the 25-lap feature event over Donny Schatz and Kerry Madsen.

McCarl utilized the cushion the first half of the race, while Schatz kept pace on the bottom side of the track. At the halfway point, a fourth running Kerry Madsen got sideways behind a lapped car and flipped. Fifth running Brad Sweet was also caught in the melee along with the lapped cars of Bronson Maeschen and Brooke Tatnell. Sweet's team would make repairs to the front end and continue, and Tatnell would also restart at the tail.

McCarl chose the inside line over Schatz, David Gravel, Brian Brown and Dusty Zomer on the restart. Zomer quickly moved by Brown and Gravel into third. Meanwhile, Schatz's pursuit of the leader peaked on lap 15. He briefly moved to the point, only to have McCarl reclaim the spot coming to the line.

Behind the leaders, Brown and Gravel traded fourth place in great racing action. Up front, McCarl increased his lead down the stretch in capturing his 57th career feature win at Knoxville. Schatz settled for second, ahead of Brown, who captured third on the last lap, Zomer and Gravel. Fourteenth starting Craig Dollansky, Daryn Pittman, Danny Lasoski, hard-charger Shane Stewart and Justin Henderson rounded out the top ten.

Stewart rebounded from a rough night that saw him crash hard in the heat race. After bringing down the back-up car, he started at the rear of the B, capturing the fourth and final transfer spot. He then drove from 24th to finish ninth. Henderson and Sweet set quick time in their respective groups, while Henderson, Gravel, Sweet and Lynton Jeffrey won heats. RJ Johnson captured the C main, and Ian Madsen won the B main.

“We just beat the best driver and team in the world,” said McCarl in Victory Lane. “They still are the best driver and team in the world. For us to beat them one night is pretty amazing and we're pretty proud of it. It was a real driver's track. It was rough and heavy and slick. I just kept telling myself to keep the tires underneath me. Donny is really good at keeping his tires underneath him until traffic. Actually when we got to traffic, I was happy. I moved down a car width and we were really good.”

“He was awful good,” said Schatz of McCarl. “He did a great job. This place is tough to be out front leading. Sometimes, you’re in the catbird’s seat when you are running second. I thought I had the catbird’s seat, but Terry did a good job. He made the right moves at the right times. We learned something from that so that’s good. Things are a little different around here, and we need to adapt to those changes.”

“We had a rough night, but this team keeps digging hard,” said Brown of his rough night that began with an ignition problem early in the night. “They were able to overcome it. I really felt we had something for those guys on that last red. I made a mistake and spun the tires. We had to get back by Dusty and (Gravel) there. To be on the podium with these two guys is nothing to be ashamed of.”

Calvin Landis led the 18-lap 360 feature as soon as the green fell, ahead of Nate Van Haften, who started sixth, and Tyler Groenendyk. Jamie Ball took third on lap two and climbed one more spot a circuit later. With five laps down, however, his mount went up in smoke, bringing the only caution of the event.

Landis led the restart, ahead of Van Haften, Groenendyk, Joe Beaver and Clint Garner. Garner shot by Beaver on lap seven for fourth, and rode around Groenendyk for third on lap 12. Landis would slow a bit in traffic down the stretch. As he rode the cushion, Van Haften was gaining on the low side. Garner and Beaver also reeled in the leaders, setting up an exciting finish.

Van Haften would take the point, getting under Landis in turn three on the last lap and riding to his fifth career win. Landis would checker second, ahead of Garner and Beaver. The top four were within one second of each other at the finish. Tony Shilling was fifth after starting 15th. Groenendyk, Mike Van Haften, Sawyer Phillips and hard-charger Chris Morgan completed the top ten. Beaver set quick time, while Phillips and Jon Agan claimed heat races.

“We’ve been behind the ball game this year,” said Van Haften in Victory Lane. “We got our good motor back last week. We’ve been working really hard and we have it dialed in. This big Maxim is back together. We destroyed it last year when we were trying to take the point lead. Knoxville’s the best, like Johnny Anderson always said!”

Join us tomorrow night for the finale at the Xstream Shootout powered by Mediacom. The 360 sprints will again be in action! In addition to the great racing, featuring our Knoxville regulars against the World of Outlaws, many activities for all ages are planned for Saturday! Donny Schatz Notches a Wild Win in Knoxville!

Clint Garner Wins 25th in 360's

by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, June 11, 2016 – Donny Schatz put the Tony Stewart Racing #15 in Victory Lane for the 24th time Saturday night at the Knoxville Raceway with the World of Outlaws in the Xtreem Shootout powered by Mediacom. It was a wild feature event with several drivers eliminated on a lap five restart. The Fargo, North Dakota driver took the lead from Jamie Veal on the 22nd of 25 laps, and earned $10,000 for his win. Meanwhile, Clint Garner took a late lead as well in the 360 main event and motored to his fourth win of the year here. His 25th career win came in front of a large grandstand crowd.

Jamie Veal shot out to an early lead in the main event ahead of Ian Madsen and Brian Brown. The race was slowed five laps in, when Tasker Phillips lost the left side panel of his top wing.

Veal chose the inside line for the restart. Madsen would come from the high side of the track and cut in front of the field, clipping the right front tire of Shane Stewart. That resulted in a chain reaction that sent Brown sliding sideways in front of the field. In the end, eleven cars were involved and bunched together in turn one in a ball of metal. Brown, Craig Dollansky, Scott Bogucki, Joey Saldana and Greg Wilson got the worst of it, and were eliminated from the race. Stewart, Dusty Zomer, Daryn Pittman, Sammy Swindell, Davey Heskin and Jason Sides were able to make repairs and restart at the tail.

Veal again chose the inside line after the red flag period, ahead of Madsen, Donny Schatz, Brad Sweet, Danny Lasoski and David Gravel. Lasoski moved into fourth on the restart, but the race was slowed again, when Pittman slowed with a throttle linkage issue. He would restart at the tail after repairs.

The last nineteen laps went non-stop. Veal continued to lead the field ahead of Madsen and Schatz. Gravel moved to fourth and then shot by Schatz for third on lap eight. Schatz surged back by in a good battle the next go-around, and ran down Madsen for second on lap 16.

Veal and Schatz battled hard in traffic for four laps, before Schatz took command on lap 22 when the leader spun his tires through the middle of turns three and four. Meanwhile, Lasoski was charging into fourth, and on the 24th lap, surged all the way to second with the top five within a second of each other. A third running Madsen went up in smoke on the white flag lap, eliminating his run. He had already changed a motor after his heat.

Schatz held on for the win ahead of Lasoski, Gravel, Veal and Sweet. Kerry Madsen, Stewart, Logan Schuchart, Jason Johnson and Brooke Tatnell rounded out the top ten. Sweet set quick time and won his heat race. Lasoski, Stewart and Schatz were the other heat winners. Jacob Allen won the B and Veal was triumphant in the Dash.

“This place has been very, very good to me,” said Schatz in Victory Lane. “I’ve been very blessed to get hurt here and have the success. This race team is incredible in what they do. The racecar just got better and better as the race went on. I needed to keep my cool and wait for the end. I think everyone here is as hungry as I am to win. The pace changed a lot at the end of the race. The track started to move around. The top of three and four was really good, but you could even get through the middle at times.”

“I want to thank (crew chief) Guy Forbrook,” said Lasoski. “We’ve been struggling the last month and a half, but we keep working at this thing. He’s definitely got it better and better. I hated to see what happened in that crash. It took a couple of good competitors out. The latter part of the race, we got better and better.”

“We didn’t qualify like we wanted to,” said Gravel. “We got through the heat race. We were really lucky to get through that crash. Obviously, a lot of guys wrecked. We were sixth after the crash and we had a good restart. We were up to third, and kind of fell back a little bit. We had a good car. I’m really happy we made improvements from last night. We’re looking forward to coming back in August.”

Matt Moro shot out to an early lead in the 18-lap 360 feature ahead of Clint Garner and Ryan Giles. Garner and Giles battled for several laps, with Giles taking the runner-up spot briefly on lap four. The lone caution of the event came with eleven laps in the books. Mike Van Haaften contacted the turn one wall and came to a stop.

Moro led Garner, Giles, Nate Van Haaften and Tony Shilling back to green flag racing. Garner had a good restart and slipped under Moro to take the point on lap 13. He would take the Midwest Excavating #40 to Victory Lane for the fourth time this year. Moro finished second, ahead of Giles, Nate Van Haaften and Shilling. Jamie Ball, Joe Beaver, Jon Agan, Calvin Landis and Sawyer Phillips rounded out the top ten. Nate Van Haaften set quick time, while Ball, Shilling and Alan Zoutte won heat races.

“I was keeping up with (Moro) really good, but I was struggling to figure out a way to get by him,” said Garner in Victory Lane. “He was doing a pretty good job. In lapped traffic, coincidentally, he went down to the bottom in turn one, and I thought I would never get him. I was pretty happy to see the restart to see what he would do. I wanted to stay with him for a corner or two and try to make a move.”

Kerry Madsen Sweeps on the Night the Lights Went Out in Knoxville! Garner Repeats in 360's, Haase Wins in 305's by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, June 18, 2016 – A twenty-minute delay after a power surge couldn't stop Kerry Madsen from sweeping the evening's festivities, including the non-stop 20-lap National Sprint League feature at Knoxville Raceway Saturday night. The St. Mary's, New South Wales, Australia native took the lead at about the halfway point from his brother Ian, and took home the $5,000 prize aboard the Keneric Racing #29 for his 19th career main event win here.

A half a lap after the green flag fell in the 20-lap NSL main event, a power surge temporarily knocked out a number of lights around the race track. A 20-minute delay ensued, but it just built the anticipation for what would be another great race at Knoxville.

Ian Madsen shot out from his starting spot outside row one once the lights were restored. Brooke Tatnell and a surging Craig Dollansky gave chase. Brian Brown and Kerry Madsen battled for the fourth spot, and Brown garnered that position on lap four. In great racing action, Kerry battled past Brown and Dollansky to claim third a lap later.

Meanwhile, Tim Kaeding was on the move from his starting spot in row four. He took fifth from Brown on lap six and claimed fourth from Dollansky a lap later. Meanwhile, Kerry was on the move, shooting around Tatnell for second on lap eight. After reeling in Ian, he would power by with a slider to lead lap nine.

A three-way battle for third was on, between Kaeding, Tatnell and Brown in the middle stages. After a heated battle, Brown would wrestle that spot from Kaeding on lap fourteen. With five laps to go, Kerry led Ian, Brown, Kaeding and Tatnell. Brown looked to be gaining on the leaders on the cushion, but when he chose a lower groove, Kaeding would secure the third position behind Kerry and Ian at the checkers. Brown and hard-charger Sammy Swindell would follow. Tatnell, Danny Lasoski, Dollansky, Terry McCarl and Davey Heskin would round out the top ten. Kerry's sweep also included setting quick time and winning his heat race. Austin McCarl and Dollansky won the other heats, while Tasker Phillips claimed the B main.

"The guys gave me a great race car," said Kerry Madsen in Victory Lane. "They worked their guts off all day to get that ready. Fortunately, for me, I had to move around. Dollansky came up through there pretty quick, and we had to make some moves to figure out the line. It's great to be here. We make the effort to come back to Knoxville, because it's a great place. We enjoy that we're welcomed here, and we're glad to be a part of a great track like Knoxville."

The 18-lap 360 main event would see five lead changes early. Front row starters, Carson McCarl and Ryan Giles, would exchange the point four times in the first four laps. That was halted when Rob Weuve spun in turn four. McCarl would lead Giles, Clint Garner, Joe Beaver and Nate Van Haaften back to the green.

Garner would hit a cushion that was nearing the wall and first grab second and then the lead shortly after the green flag fell. Meanwhile, Van Haaften was on the move, surging into the top three by lap five. While Van Haaften chose the low line, Tony Shilling was reeling him in on the top. He and Van Haaften would exchange third twice before the latter grabbed it for good on lap 11.

While Garner was out front, Van Haaften was gaining speed. He overcame Giles for second coming for the white flag lap. While Garner stumbled behind a lapper, Van Haaften closed in. At the checkers, Garner would claim his 26th career 360 win here by .261 seconds over Van Haaften. Giles, Shilling and Matt Moro followed the lead pair. McCarl, hard-charger Josh Schneiderman, Beaver, Calvin Landis and John Schulz rounded out the top ten. Garner set quick time, while Landis, Shilling and Beaver won heats.

"I didn't want to push the issue there," said Garner in Victory Lane. "The track really got slick there, and I was running with my tongue hanging out for most of that. Running that cushion was the highest I've been this year for sure. It was a blast running up there. I figured when I caught the lapped cars, I'd make sure the track was covered. It's hard to pass when there's nowhere to go."

Christian Bowman fired out early to lead the 15-lap 305 feature ahead of Mike Mayberry and Devin Kline. Kline would utilize the bottom of the track, surging from third to the lead on the fifth lap. Behind him, McKenna Haase grabbed third from Mayberry and second from Bowman on lap six and seven.

A lap ten caution for a spun Dan Henning tightened the field. Kline led Haase, Bowman, Mayberry and Chris Walraven back to green. Haase would poke the nose of her car under Kline on lap 11 entering turn three. When Kline suddenly cut in front of her, she had to hit the brakes and lost her momentum. She was back, however, two laps later, sticking the bottom of turn four to take the lead on lap 13.

The leaders were past the flag stand when Joe Simbro spun on the backstretch, bringing the final caution. Haase was able to hold off Kline for her third career win. Bowman, Mayberry and Kade Higday followed. Corey Kautz, Chase Wanner, Walraven, Brad Comegys and Cliff Jones competed the top ten. Haase also set quick time, while Wanner and Higday were the heat winners.

“It’s been a rough year for my team and me both off and on the track,” said an excited Haase in Victory Lane. “It’s a blessing to be here and have my team here in good health. I was a little worried, because I lost a lot of ground (after her first bid to get by Kline). I was able to get back underneath him though.”

Join us next Friday night, June 24 for a blast from the past at “Nostalgia at Knoxville”. All three sprint car classes will be back in action Saturday night, June 25 for Marion County Farm Bureau Mid-Season Championship Night featuring $5,000 to win with the National Sprint League! Knoxville Raceway Hall of Fame inductions will also be a part of the weekend. For more information, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Sammy Swindell Makes Last Lap Pass in Race of the Season at Knoxville!

Jamie Ball Conquers 360's, Kade Higday on Top in 305's

by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, June 25, 2016 – Sammy Swindell capped off an electrifying National Sprint League feature at Knoxville Raceway with a last lap pass of Davey Heskin to record his 49th career feature win at Knoxville. The win aboard the CJB/Big Game Motorsports #1 was worth $5,000 to the Germantown, Tennessee native. Jamie Ball grabbed his first 360 win of the year and the second in his career in the 360 class, and Kade Higday won his second career feature in the 305 class.

Heskin led the 25-lap main event early over Josh Schneiderman and Danny Lasoski. Brian Brown entered the top four with a pass of Craig Dollansky on lap four, and Bronson Maeschen moved into the top five on lap five. Hitting the high side of turn four, Brown would sail around Lasoski for third on lap six.

Swindell, who started fourth, lost ground early, but reentered the top five on lap 11. He would grab fourth from Lasoski on lap 13. Brown was tracking down Schneiderman for second on lap 15, when his left front wheel flew off while heading down the back straightaway. Fortunately, he kept the car under him, and further disaster was avoided. There was too much damage for him to continue, however.

Heskin led Schneiderman, Swindell, Lasoski and Maeschen back to green on the restart. Swindell used the low side to move into second, and the battle for the lead was on. Maeschen jumped the infield berm and slid out and hit the wall. The result was a flat right rear, and he coasted to a stop with three laps to go. Heskin led Swindell, Schneiderman, Ian Madsen and Lasoski back to green.

Lasoski would pass Madsen and Schneiderman for third on the restart. Up front, Heskin held Swindell off by running smooth on the cushion. Swindell ran a perfect last lap, pulling even with Heskin and then sliding across the track, to make the winning pass in three and four. Following Swindell and Heskin across the finish line were Lasoski, Madsen and Schneiderman. Dollansky, hard-charger Jake Bubak, Tasker Phillips, Brooke Tatnell and Billy Alley rounded out the top ten. Swindell set quick time, while Schneiderman and Dollansky won heat races.

“It was probably better to run the top, but Davey was there,” said Swindell in Victory Lane. “We were just trying to get our car working down there in the slick. I thought I’d stay with it. I got screwed up on the start. I got in the wrong place and got hung up. Four or five guys passed me. We made it interesting. I’m just so blessed to be here and be able to do this. I’m thankful for everybody that supports me, and God is upstairs looking after me. I won a feature at Knoxville in my sixth decade, and I don’t know that anyone’s done that. That might be a hard record to break.”

Sawyer Phillips was a spin victim before a lap could be completed in the 360 18-lap feature. Ohio visitor Devon Dobie also spun to avoid, causing damage to the left front of the car. Unfortunately, he was done for the night.

Jamie Ball shot out to a healthy lead early over Calvin Landis and Matt Moro. Ryan Giles entered the top three on lap three, and then took second from Landis on lap seven. At that point, Rob Weuve spun with the leaders just hitting heavy lapped traffic. The restart saw Ball leading Giles, Landis, Moro and Tony Shilling.

Moro shot to third on the restart, while Clint Garner entered the top five. Moro continued his charge, getting by Giles for second two laps later. Meanwhile, Garner moved into fourth on lap nine and got by Giles for third on lap eleven. The leaders entered heavy lapped traffic with three to go, and Garner passed Moro and reeled in Ball for the lead. Ball would hold him off, however, in the White Lightning Motorsports #5J. Following Ball and Garner were Moro, Giles and Shilling. Joe Beaver, Nate Van Haaften, Ryan Roberts, Landis and Phillips rounded out the top ten. Garner set quick time, while Roberts and Ball won the heats.

“Typically, I run high in one and two and low in three and four, but it was the opposite tonight,” said Ball in Victory Lane. “That car was perfect. We’ve been so good lately, but bad luck has really plagued us the whole year. To be sitting here right now is a testament to all the guys and girls that work on this crew. Without them, this wouldn’t be possible.”

Josh Higday was the class of the 305 field, leading all fifteen laps. The race got off to a tough start when Dan Henning lost a left front wheel and spun into the infield. He was uninjured. When the green replaced the yellow, the race went non-stop and Higday had no peer, winning by 3.598 seconds.

There was plenty of action behind him, however. Christopher Scank ran second, much of the way, but was overtaken by Corey Kautz on lap 11. Christian Bowman moved into third on lap twelve, and Devin Kline grabbed fourth on lap 14. Scank ended up fifth. Hard-charger McKenna Haase, Matthew Stelzer, Ben Woods, Chase Wanner and Mike Mayberry completed the top ten. Brad Comegys set quick time, while Wanner and Mitchell Alexander won heats.

“(Father Josh Higday) had this thing rolling,” said Kade in Victory Lane. “To come back from what we had this year (injury) is cool. It’s great to get one the right way compared to the last one (won as a results of a disqualification). Our 360 should be done this week, and we hope to be back in it next Saturday.”

Join us next Friday and Saturday, July 1 and 2 for a huge weekend of action! The National Sprint League will be in action both nights. The 305’s join Friday’s program, while the 360’s will be running on Saturday! Saturday is Iowa Corn Districts 5&9/Marion County Cattlemen's Association Night. A Fireworks show to celebrate our nation’s Independence will cap Saturday night’s action as well! For more information, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Sammy Swindell Wins #50 at 60 in Knoxville!
Christian Bowman Makes Late Race Pass for 305 Win
by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, July 1, 2016 – Sammy Swindell added six days to his own record as the oldest 410 feature winner Friday night at Knoxville Raceway. Sammy is 60 years, 8 months and nine days old, and the Germantown, Tennessee driver won his second straight National Sprint League main event in a row at Knoxville aboard the Big Game Motorsports #1. Christian Bowman won a non-stop main event in the 305 class, by making a late race pass of Chris Walraven.

Swindell would start on the pole of the scheduled 20-lap feature and grab the early lead ahead of Dusty Zomer and Rico Abreu. Sammy used the low groove to build his lead until the caution flew six laps in for a stopped Scott Bogucki. One more lap was in the books when Bronson Maeschen and Dominic Scelzi took scary rides upside down in turns one and two. Fortunately, both drivers were uninjured.

When the green finally flew again, Swindell led Zomer, Abreu, Kerry Madsen and Lynton Jeffrey. Madsen quickly moved into third, while Jeffrey took fourth on lap nine. Swindell's lead stretched to a second and a half over Zomer when Andy Caruana went up in smoke in turn three on the white flag lap. Chris Martin blew a right rear tire at the same time, but made repairs in the work area.

The final green, white, checker finish was halted again on lap 20 when Tasker Phillips flipped down the frontstretch. Bogucki was also involved. The final green white, checker finish had plenty of action awaiting and extended the race to 22 laps. While Sammy maintained his lead ahead of Zomer, Danny Lasoski surged by Kerry Madsen into third on the last lap. Jeffrey followed him into fourth, while Madsen settled for fifth. Abreu, Craig Dollansky, Davey Heskin, Ian Madsen and Josh Schneiderman rounded out the top ten. Heskin set quick time, while Swindell, Phillips and Scelzi won the heat races.

"I'm just so blessed to get to do this with the things that have come my way the last few weeks," said Swindell in Victory Lane. "It's all good, and hopefully, we'll continue here. We had a different motor in tonight, so we had a few things we needed to be different on. The car was pretty awesome in the main. We've been able to run pretty much the same setup in the slick, and tonight, when it was heavier. I broke the record again. I'm the oldest guy by a week now!"

Before the 305 feature could get a lap in, Corey Kautz flipped hard in turn one. Tyler Dollison shot into the wall trying to avoid the airborne sprinter as well. No one was hurt. When the 18-lapper resumed, it went the distance.

Ricky Logan returned to Knoxville in a White Lightning Motorsports machine and led Chris Walraven and teammate Devin Kline from the pole. Christian Bowman moved into third on lap four, and reeled in the lead pair of Logan and Walraven.

With Logan stuck behind a pair of lapped cars on the seventh go-around, Walraven rode the cushion in turn two to the point. Bowman followed him into second. Bowman would reel in the leader, and when Walraven bobbled a bit in turn two on lap 13, he would gain on the leader. In turn four, he would take the lead for good, and pull away to his third win of the season. Walraven, Logan, Kline and Christopher Scank followed. Hard-charger Ben Woods, Kade Higday, Mike Mayberry, Joe Simbro and Brad Comegys rounded out the top ten. Bowman set quick time, while Mitchell Alexander and Kautz won the heats.

“It felt awesome,” said Bowman afterwards. “I worked through traffic pretty good. It worked to my advantage. I was able to take the lead, and we never looked back. I had a perfect car. My team works really hard. Everything has really clicked this year. We worked hard in the offseason, and once again, I have to thank my crew.”

Join us tomorrow night for our National Sprint League finale! The 360 class will also be in action! A huge Fireworks show to celebrate our nation’s Independence will cap the festivities! For more information, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Danny Lasoski Wins Electrifying Non-stop Feature at Knoxville! Matt Moro Wins 360 Thriller, Devin Kline Becomes All-time 305 Feature Leader by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, July 9, 2016 – Another large throng of Knoxville Raceway fans went away excited here on Titan Machinery Night! Danny Lasoski won a non-stop 20-lap feature that included tight side-by-side racing throughout the field. The win was the Dover, Missouri driver's 110th at Knoxville, and was worth $4,000. The 360 feature was no less entertaining, and featured five lead changes. Former track champ, Matt Moro won his ninth career feature and his first since 2014. Devin Kline's ninth career 305 win puts him atop the all-time list at the historic half-mile.

In the main event, Davey Heskin led early over Lasoski and Craig Dollansky. The lead trio raced side-by-side, while Dustin Selvage was also within striking distance. While Heskin rode the cushion, Lasoski snuck by on the low side to complete lap six. Meanwhile, Josh Schneiderman was storming forward from his twelfth starting spot, and he entered the top five on lap seven.

Dollansky soon had his hands full with Ian Madsen in a back and forth battle for third. In the middle stages the two traded blows, while reeling in the second place car of Heskin. Schneiderman joined that trio, as all were within a half-second of each other. Schneiderman would use the low side to shoot by Dollansky for fourth on lap 14. On the next circuit, Madsen, had caught Heskin in heavy lapped traffic to take over second.

Schneiderman would also move by Heskin capturing third with two laps to go. Madsen reeled in Lasoski, who had a nose wing go down with five laps to go, but the "Dude" held him off by seven-tenths of a second at the checkers. Schneiderman was third, ahead of Dollansky and Heskin. Selvage, Billy Alley, Tasker Phillips, Bronson Maeschen and Dakota Hendrickson rounded out the top ten. Lasoski set quick time, while Matt Moro, AJ Moeller and Phillips won heat races.

"I'll tell you what, when that nose wing fell down, this thing was all over everywhere," said Lasoski. "I had a heck of a time hanging on. It goes to show that you give (crew chief) Guy Forbrook any opportunity at all to make this car go...I just get the lucky job of driving it."

Matt Moro led Jon Agan and Joe Beaver early in the 18-lap 360 main event. Agan pressured the leader, and took the point on lap three. Nate Van Haften roared under Beaver to take third in a good battle on lap five.

On the next go-around, the lapped car of John Anderson got sideways, collecting the leader. Agan would launch end over end in turn four. He was uninjured. Moro would assume the lead on the restart over Van Haften, Beaver, Ryan Giles and Jamie Ball, but it was short-lived. Van Haften shot to the point with Moro in tow.

Clint Garner, who started 12th, started making noise when he joined the top five on lap 11. A spin by JT Imperial brought a caution shortly thereafter. Moro returned the favor, passing Van Haaften back, when the green flew again. Garner moved up to fourth and then surged under Beaver for third on lap 15.

One final caution came with three laps to go. Mike Van Haaften spun in turn one. The final Dash saw Moro leading Van Haaften, Garner, Beaver and Giles. Moro would maintain his lead for his ninth career 360 feature win here. Garner took second from Van Haaften who was third, Beaver and Giles. Hard-charger Tony Shilling, who started the night with an engine change, Ball, Randy Martin, Calving Landis and Cody Ledger completed the top ten. Ball set quick time, while heats were won by Moro, Ledger and Garner. Landis won the B main.

“My Dad and Jaymie Moyle both told me to be aware of the bottom,” said Moro in Victory Lane. “I told them I hate the bottom. I was going to be patient on top. Nate gets around the bottom so good, but he just left a lane on the outside and I was able to get him. We did touch each other. I had my right rear against the fence, but that was my only chance. If I couldn’t have got it done there, I wouldn’t have. I felt bad for Jon Agan. He was on the move.”

Before the 15-lap 305 feature could get started, contact from Christopher Scank sent Joe Simbro into a frontstretch ground-pounder. The incident also involved Christian Bowman, Chase Wanner and Jeff Wilke. Only Wilke would make repairs and continue.

Rager Phillips made his first return to Knoxville in several years and led early in the going ahead of Mike Mayberry and Brad Comegys. Comegys would move into second on lap six. That was short-lived, however, as Devin Kline was aboard a rocket ship. In one move, he went from fourth to second on lap seven.

Phillips had built a good lead, but Kline steadily reeled him in. With just two laps to go, he would make the pass for the lead. On the white flag lap, that was put in jeopardy, however, when Wilke spun in turn four. On the restart, Chris Walraven used the cushion to finish second behind Kline. McKenna Haase followed in third, ahead of Phillips and Comegys. Mayberry, Scank, Wilke, Dan Henning and newcomer Travis Remerts rounded out the top ten. Bowman set quick time, while Haase and Kline won the heat races.

“We changed a shock, and I think it’s going to change our season around,” said Kline. “(Phillips) was out there a ways, but I tried to keep my line and stay consistent. Some lapped traffic helped me, and I couldn’t ask for a better car.”

Join us next Saturday night, July 16 for Hy-Vee Night at Knoxville! The 410 class will again be racing for $4,000 to win and $600 to start! All three sprint car divisions will be in action as will the DTRA Dirt Trucks! For more information, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Marion County Fair Blue Ribbon Knoxville winners Dollansky, Beaver & Logan

Saturday, July 16, 2016

By Bob Wilson

KNOXVILLE, IOWA, July 16, 2016 – Craig Dollansky led the 20-lap distance in sweeping the feature event during the annual Marion County Fair at Knoxville Raceway Saturday night. Joe Beaver found his way to victory lane in the 360 division and Ricky Logan took the 305 feature during HyVee Night at this central Iowa racing facility.

A red flag flew immediately at the beginning of the 410 feature. Dakota Hendrickson became crossed up in turn one forcing Scott Bogucki to strike the turn one fence and end up upside down. Hendrickson and Bogucki were unable to restart.

When the race resumed with a complete restart, Dollansky took charge with Brooke Tatnell in tow. They ran like that through the first seven laps with Dollansky hitting lap traffic before a yellow flew for Jeff Swindell who spun on the bottom of turn two. Dollansky resumed his point position on the restart and at the half-way point he had forged a 100-yard lead.

The big battle behind him and Tatnell was a dandy with RJ Johnson and Davey Heskin. That skirmish would settle itself on lap thirteen when Heskin moved on by. That same lap also saw Dollansky enter lap traffic as the top five runners following him were Tatnell, Heskin, Johnson and Austin McCarl.

With five laps to go Dollansky continued in lap traffic but had driven to a full front chute margin over Tatnell. At the checkered flags Dollansky picked up his 16th career feature win at this historic track and was $4,000 richer. Tatnell, Heskin, Johnson and McCarl held their spots to complete the top five.

Joe Beaver, who started in the second row of the 360 feature had lady fortune smile upon him as pole sitter Clint Garner dropped from the event and left the door wide open for the Beaver machine to pass right through it. Pole sitter Garner had taken off in a flash when the green flag started the 18-lap feature event. On lap two in turn three Garner's car suddenly slowed and he tried valiantly to bring it to the pits but a yellow ensued none the less for the John Hall machine which had stopped in turn two up against the fence. He and Garner were unable to restart.

Beaver then restarted in the lead and held that spot throughout the rest of the event. At lap nine and the mid-way point he had headed into lap traffic with Matt Moro, Jamie Ball and Tony Shilling following. He then began pulling away as Moro nearly tagged the wall on lap 14. That enabled Ball to come within striking distance of the Moro machine and one lap later Ball had that runner-up spot.

In the end it was Beaver picking up his 7th career win at this half-mile oval with Ball, Moro, Shilling and Ryan Giles chasing to the finish line.

Ricky Logan utilized his pole position start to lead the 15-lap distance in the 305 feature event. Only one yellow slowed the Little Rock, Arkansas native as he became the 6th driver in race track history to win a feature in all three (410,360, 305) divisions. Trailing at the finish were Devin Kline, Christian Bowman, Corey Kautz and McKenna Haase.

Also on the race card for the night were the DTRA (Dirt Truck Racing Association) dirt trucks. Tony Moro proved to be too much for the field as he led from start to finish in that 12-lap event and claimed his 6th career dirt truck win here. Completing the top five finishers were Brad Comegys, Anthony Moro, Pat Gordin and Larry Webb.

Of note on this evening was the Moro family of Des Moines. For the first time in this track's history three generations were racing at this facility on the same night. Tony Moro (grandfather racing dirt trucks), Matt Moro (son in 410 & 360 sprints) and Anthony Moro (grandson also in dirt trucks) took competitive laps in racing during the night.

Kay and VanDerWal Win at Inaugural Dynamic Drivelines Dirt Duel! by Eric Arnold

Knoxville, Iowa - July 21, 2016

On a very hot and humid night at the Knoxville Raceway the IMCA Modifieds pounded the historic black zook clay in the inaugural running of the Hawkeye Dirt Tour, Dynamic Drivelines Dirt Duel! 44 Modifieds and 51 SportMods entered on this night.

In the IMCA Modified class it was Justin Kay of Wheatland, Iowa taking the $1,500 winner's prize after a late race duel with Chris Abelson. Kay was out to a three second lead at one point but Abelson was able to catch Kay just before a late race caution. Abelson took the lead on lap 21 briefly but Kay was able to drive back around on the next lap and then pull away to win the 25 lap event. Abelson finished second and Jacob Murray grabbed the third spot on the podium. The Modified event held five heat races with only the top two transferring the A Main while the rest of the field was split into three B Mains where the top four of each of those transferred to the A Main.

The 20 lap $1,000 to win IMCA SportMod feature was also a great race. Brett Lowry jumped out to the early lead but on lap eight Tim Plummer drove around and took control. Meanwhile Curtis VanDerWal of Oskaloosa, who started eighth, was passing cars on the high side and was able to climb to third place quickly. At halfway VanDerWal was in second and challenging Plummer for the lead. Finally on lap 15 VanDerWal was able to use lapped traffic to his advantage and drove by Plummer to take the lead and drive away. Plummer held second and Lowry third. The SportMods program consisted of six heat races and three B Mains.

Join us on Saturday night for 3M Night the Lucas Oil Knoxville Championship Cup Series sprint cars with the National Sprint League. All three classes of sprint cars will be in action. Kids ages 12 and under are free admission and there will be a candy dash on the front stretch thanks to Casey's General Store!

Brian Brown Brings the Heat at Knoxville!

Ryan Giles Takes 360 Feature, Chris Walraven Wins #3 with 305's
by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, July 23, 2016 – On a hot night, Brian Brown was even hotter! The Grain Valley, Missouri driver wired the field to win the non-stop 25-lap National Sprint League feature Saturday at the Knoxville Raceway on 3M Night. The win was the veteran's 33rd at the famous half-mile and was worth $5,000. In the 360 class, a move in lapped traffic gave Ryan Giles his second win here in as many years, and Chris Walraven picked up his third win this season in the 305 class.

Events were moved back thirty minutes for the heat, and a large crowd enjoyed a great night of racing. In addition, Casey's General Stores donated 600 pounds of candy for a Candy Dash during intermission. It didn't last long, as all the young fans went home with their share!

Ian Madsen looked like he may take the point at the beginning of the NSL main event, but his car shut down coming out of turn four. Fellow front-row starter, Brian Brown assumed the lead with Danny Lasoski right on his tail as Madsen pulled off. High-point man on the night, AJ Moeller settled into third.

Dustin Selvage would throw his hat in the ring too, taking third on the fourth lap. Craig Dollansky, who picked up a $10,000 win at Jackson Friday night, entered the top four early on and tracked down Selvage for third at the halfway mark.

Meanwhile, up front, Brown was dicing through traffic with Lasoski in pursuit. When Lasoski would have him in range, Brown was able to move through traffic seemingly with ease. Lasoski tried to keep pace, but fell seven-tenths of a second short at the line. Brown lapped up to the eighth place finisher in a commanding win. Lasoski finished second, ahead of Dollansky. Sammy Swindell charged from row five to take fourth with a lap to go, ahead of Selvage. Tasker Phillips, Cory Eliason, Josh Schneiderman, Brooke Tatnell and Davey Heskin rounded out the top ten. Lasoski set quick time, while Eliason, Phillips and Swindell won heat races.

“I don’t know how it looked, but that was 25 laps about as hard as I could go right there,” said Brown afterwards. “You know when you see Danny in the corner of your eye, that he’s not going to give up. It takes a lot of people to make this thing go-around and I’m the lucky guy who gets to drive it. If you’re going to get hot, literally, this is the time of year to do it. With a professional like Danny behind you, you have to make every move count. You get yourself in the middle, miss the bottom, or get tight, he’s going to pounce.

“I felt like a couple of times mid-race, I didn’t make very good corners, especially in traffic,” Brown continued. “When I got by them, I knew I had to make four or five really good laps to get some distance. I kind of made a bad move with Brooke there at the end and thought I may have given him a shot. I think what you’re going to see come Knoxville Nationals time, is the caliber of cars we race with every week is top notch. It’s like racing with Donny Schatz and Shane Stewart every week. I think we’ll be ready in a couple weeks.”

Ryan Giles shot out from the pole position to lead Calvin Landis and Ian Madsen early in the 18-lap 360 main event, while Jamie Ball and Joe Beaver put on a battle for fourth. While Landis found the cushion to his liking, Giles remained in the low groove. Landis would reel in the leader and take the point on lap seven.

With two lapped cars side-by-side on the top of the track, Giles used the pick to shoot by Landis in turn two on lap ten. The lone caution of the race came with twelve laps down. Sawyer Phillips jumped the infield berm in turn four and spun. He rejoined a field that saw Giles leading Landis, Madsen, Ball and Josh Baughman.

While Giles maintained his advantage to the checkers, Madsen used the restart to gain second. Landis finished third, ahead of Ball and Baughman. Tony Shilling, Clint Garner, hard-charger Danny Lasoski, Ryan Roberts and Beaver rounded out the top ten. Giles set quick time over the 34-car field, while Garner, Tyler Groenendyk, Lee Grosz and Baughman won heats. Casey Friedrichsen claimed the B main.

“I just knew that I needed to calm down,” said Giles of getting passed by Landis for the lead early. “I needed to start hitting my marks again. The bottom started to go away a little and I didn’t want to take myself out of it. Luckily, he got into lapped traffic, and I used it as a pick to my advantage. He showed his nose on the top and I thought I may be a sitting duck on that restart. So I went up top and luckily, the car was better up there than it had been on the bottom. I could hear them, but I knew if I hit my marks it would be tough to get by. I’m just glad to have my Dad here. He’s done everything to allow me to be here. We’re still learning this stuff.”

Christian Bowman set the pace over Brad Comegys and Chris Walraven early in the 15-lap 305 feature. Devin Kline worked by both Walraven and Comegys early to move into second, but it was short-lived, as Walraven snuck by on lap five. With the leaders by the start/finish line, the caution flew for a spun Mike Mayberry.

Bowman led Walraven, Kline, Comegys and Chase Wanner back to green. Walraven challenged for the lead, and began to pull beside Bowman coming down the frontstretch. The leader made a sudden move to the top of turn one, causing Walraven to get on the binders and regain his composure. Ten laps in, McKenna Haase slowed to a stop in turn four. Mike Dapra happened on the scene, jumping Haase’s left rear and flipping. No one was hurt.

Walraven used the restart to put a slider of his own on Bowman in turn two and take the lead. Kline would follow him into second. One final caution was displayed for Matthew Stelzer who slowed in turn four. At the same time, Mayberry needed the hook and Dan Henning spun to avoid.

Walraven pulled away on the restart, winning his third feature of the year utilizing the Knoxville CT525 spec engine. Kline was second, ahead of Bowman, Christopher Scank and Comegys. Joe Simbro, hard-charger Tyler Thompson, Wanner, Corey Kautz and Jeff Wilke rounded out the top ten. Bowman set quick time over the field, while Josh Jones and Walraven won heat races.

“It felt like an awful nice slide job from where I was sitting,” said Walraven of his winning pass. “I don’t know what he thought, but I think I had him cleared. We started sixth, and I think we were running third at the end of the first lap. That thing just came forward the whole fifteen laps. I kind of knew (Kline) would get me on the bottom if I didn’t go down there. I just kind of went in protect mode. If he drove around me on the outside, then so be it. He didn’t quite have enough smoke to do that I guess. This is our third win this year, and we’re having a blast.”

Join us next Saturday night, July 30 for Weiler Night at Knoxville! The National Sprint League will again be in action, vying for a $5,000 top prize. The 360 class will also be running, and will be tuning up for the upcoming 360 Nationals. In addition, the huge Fireworks event weathered out over the Fourth of July weekend will conclude the night! Ian Madsen Gets Redemption at Knoxville with $5,000 NSL Victory!

Clint Garner Takes an Emotional 360 Feature Win by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA, July 30, 2016 – Ian Madsen drove to his second win of the season and the seventh of his career at the Knoxville Raceway Saturday on Weiler Manufacturing Night. The win with the National Sprint League came in the KCP Racing #18 sprinter and paid the St. Mary's, New South Wales, Australia driver $5,000. It was a bit of redemption for Ian, who retired with motor issues on the first lap a week ago here. Clint Garner, who lost his brother-in-law, Kevin Fluth, this week drove to an emotional wire to wire win in the 360 class, besting Jamie Veal at the line. Thirty-two 410's and forty-two 360's were making their last preparations for Southern Iowa Sprintweek, which gets underway this Thursday, August 4th, with the start of the 26th Annual Arnold Motor Supply Knoxville Nationals presented by Great Southern Bank. Another large crowd was on hand to witness some great action at Knoxville and a large fireworks show at the end of the night!

Jamie Veal, who was performing double duty on the night, led lap one of the 25-lap NSL feature. Ian Madsen battled back to lead lap two, as Danny Lasoski, Brian Brown and Sammy Swindell followed. With three laps in the books, Tasker Phillips and Josh Baughman came together in a nasty looking crash in turn one. Fortunately, both were uninjured.

Veal did his best to run down the leader over the next several laps, while Dustin Selvage and Swindell raced side-by-side for a spot in the top five. On lap eleven, as he tried to reel in Madsen, Veal slowed in turn three and went pitside.

Madsen's lead was a half straightaway over Lasoski and Brown at that point. Lasoski began to catch the leader in traffic, and with five laps left, close to within four-tenths of a second. Madsen made the moves he needed to in traffic, however, and crossed the checkers in front of Lasoski, Brown, Swindell and Craig Dollansky. Kerry Madsen, Selvage, Bryan Clauson, Josh Schneiderman and Bronson Maeschen rounded out the top ten. Lasoski set quick time for the second night in a row with the NSL, and RJ Johnson, Schneiderman, Selvage and Brooke Tatnell won heat races. Tasker Phillips claimed the B main.

"It seems like every time (Veal) comes here, we end up starting next to each other," said Ian Madsen afterwards. "He's doing a great job. We just got out front and went as hard as we could for 25 laps. We're just happy to get a win in front of such a great crowd again tonight. I'm really happy for my team. We had some bad luck last week, so it's great to come back and get the win. We have a big couple of weeks coming up, but we can't get too excited going in. I just really want to thank the fans for coming out tonight. It really was an awesome crowd!"

It looked like a showdown from the season opener when Clint Garner lined up beside Bryan Clauson to start the 18-lap 360 feature. On that night, Clauson would emerge victorious. Garner had other ideas. Back in his familiar powder blue sprinter, the Sioux Falls, South Dakota native led from the outset over Clauson and Ryan Giles.

Contact sent McKenna Haase spinning three laps in. The incident also involved Stacey Alexander, and Joe Beaver, who tipped over. Both Haase and Alexander would return to action. Jamie Veal jumped up to fourth on the restart before Kade Higday stopped in turn three five laps in.

Veal put away Giles for third and a battle ensued with Clauson for the runner-up position. The Aussie claimed the spot on lap eight and tried to reel in the leader. Garner kept his pace up front and was unimpeded when two more cautions, one for Matt Covington and the other for Ryan Roberts, slowed things. Great battles in positions fourth through sixth waged the last half of the race, but up front, Garner would hold off Veal for his 27th career win here.

Behind the lead pair were Clauson, Tony Shilling and Giles. Jon Agan, Sam Hafertepe Jr. (from 19th), Jack Dover, Jamie Ball and hard-charger Danny Lasoski rounded out the top ten. Beaver and Giles posted quick time in their respective groups, while Calvin Landis, Tyler Groenendyk, Covington and Garner were heat winners. Shilling and Nate Van Haaften won the B mains.

“I can’t hardly talk right now,” said an emotional Garner. “I told myself when I got out of the car, that I was going to try to do my best. I want everyone to know that my heart, my thoughts, my prayers...everything I’m doing is with my brother-in-law. I can’t thank my family enough for letting me come race and try to pick some spirits up. Hopefully they were watching, and this could get their mind off of it for a split second. I can’t tell you how much it hurts.”

“I played with the wing the whole race,” he continued. “I was so worried about (Clauson). The first race of the year, he beat me. I told the guys I guess we have a rematch. We had the one restart and I saw a #71. I thought, ‘Ryan Anderson hasn’t been here in a long time.’ I finally got a glimpse of him during a yellow flag, and saw we had the 71 from Indy Race Parts. I know those guys and I know how hard they’re trying. I knew I had to do my best. The racetrack was good and I can’t thank the Dunkin’s enough.”

Jamie Ball Leads It All to Win Night One of the 360 Knoxville Nationals by Bryan Hulbert and Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 4, 2016) For the third time in his career at the Knoxville Raceway, Jamie Ball wheeled his J.J. Kane Auctioneers No. 5J around the Marion County half-mile perfectly for 20 laps for victory on night one of the 26th annual Arnold Motor Supply ASCS 360 Knoxville Nationals presented by Great Southern Bank.

Timing in 13th, Ball was able to run to the final transfer in the third Heat Race, setting Jamie on the pole of Thursday's preliminary A-Feature.

"I'd rather be lucky that good any day," chuckled Jamie when asked about his night and the way everything shook out. "Our qualifying numbers lacked a little bit because of a bad draw, but these guys are the best here. I'd put them up against anyone. We are so prepared, you know, you win races in the shop and our hours of hard work show it, and I know our wives can attest that we've put a lot of work into this."

Ball's first Preliminary Night victory in the $15,000 to win Arnold Motor Supply 360 Knoxville Nationals presented by Great Southern Bank, the win is also the Iowa native's first with the Lucas Oil American Sprint Car Series presented by the MAVTV Motorsports Network, making Jamie the 134th different winner in National Tour competition.

Outdueling Bryan Clauson twice on the start following a red for Kade Higday, the No. 5J was challenged the first couple before starting to pull away only to see a caution on the third round as Nate Van Haaften slowed off the fourth turn.

With Clauson in tow on the restart, Ball built his advantage quickly as Clauson worked to hold off the No. 17x of Josh Baughman, who eventually worked to the runner-up spot on Lap 5. Stalking Jamie Ball as the pair approached slower traffic, the gap closed very little as the No. 5J weaved through the back-markers.

Shuffling the remainder of the top-five as the race worked past the half-way point, the race on the track brewed for second as Sammy Swindell wheeled the Acme Graphix No. 3s around Baughman on the sixteenth lap.

Closing slightly on Jamie, laps would run out as the No. 5j crossed 1.533 seconds ahead of Sammy Swindell.

Josh Baughman held on for third with Terry McCarl grabbing the fourth spot. Having to advance out of the B-Feature, Danny Lasoski rocketed from 21st to complete the top-five in the Parker Burch Motorsports No. 1m.

Ian Madsen from ninth came to sixth with Tony Shilling seventh. After contending for the lead early, Bryan Clauson slipped to an eighth place run with Justin Henderson and Ryan Giles making up the top-ten.

In terms of points following Thursday's opener, Justin Henderson sits atop the points with 481. Sammy Swindell and Tony Shilling sit at 480 each with the nod going to Swindell had a better finish in the A main. Josh Baughman in fourth in standings with 479 points followed by Danny Lasoski with 476 to complete the top-five.

The 26th annual Arnold Motor Supply 360 Knoxville Nationals presented Great Southern Bank continues on Friday, August 5 with Hot Laps getting underway at 6:45 P.M. (CDT). Jamie Veal Breaks Through on Night Two of the 360 Nationals!
by Bryan Hulbert and Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 5, 2016) He may have lead start to finish, but it was a thriller of an A-Feature at the Knoxville Raceway as Australia's Jamie Veal found Victory Lane for the first time in his career at the famed half-mile; winning night two of the 26th annual Arnold Motor Supply 360 Knoxville Nationals presented by Great Southern Bank.

Veal's first Knoxville Raceway victory also goes down as his first with the Lucas Oil American Sprint Car Series presented by the MAVTV Motorsports Network, making Jamie the 135th overall winner in Lucas Oil ASCS National Tour competition, and 13th on the season.

"All those starts helped me heaps. I got the jump there three or four times but I got a bit nervous those last few go-rounds with [Brian] Brown picking up a few, and [Clint] Garner picking up a few there, so it didn't leave much buffer," said Jamie on his victory at the famed half-mile. "Their experience around here is second to none, but I can't thank this Indy Race Parts team enough to give me to me the opportunity to race here."

Asked about his progression through the season at the Knoxville Raceway, Veal commented, "We've had a good car here the past three or four times here, and it's good to finally get a win at Knoxville, especially during the 360 Nationals, so we'll just go from here."

Three times to get the race rolling, Veal was able to get the jump all three times over the GoMuddy.com No 1H of Dale Blaney. Moving away from the field, Veal built a comfortable two second advantage before the caution flew on Lap 12 for Matt Moro. Prior to the caution, the race on the track was for fourth as Brian Brown, Davey Heskin, and Clint Garner attached the position.

Taking over the show position on the restart from Brooke Tatnell, the Casey's General Store/FVP No. 21 of Brian Brown set sights on Dale Blaney for second. Diving low into the third turn, Brown broke loose from the bottom, sliding Nerf bar to left rear on Blaney, with both somehow able to roll away.

Caution with 13 laps complete, the cast of challengers continued their march to the front as the Midwest Excavating No. 40 of Clint Garner set sights on Brown for the runner-up spot.

With everyone still chasing Jamie Veal, the bottom side worked to Garner's favor as the night's quick timer rolled to second on the final lap. Running down Jamie Veal into the final two turns, the driver of the Indy Race Parts No. 71 would not be denied; crossing 0.435 seconds ahead of the current Knoxville Raceway 360 points' leader.

Brian Brown crossed third after starting fifth with Dusty Zomer coming home fourth. After challenging for the lead early, Dale Blaney slipped back to complete the top-five. Brooke Tatnell finished sixth with Jack Dover coming from 14th to seventh. Hard Charging from 20th, Johnny Herrera advanced to finish eighth with Davey Heskin winding up ninth. Tasker Phillips from 21st completed the top-ten.

Quick time went to Clint Garner on Friday night with a time of 16.017 seconds. Five Heat races were topped by Don Droud, Jr., Calvin Landis, Rager Phillips, Dale Blaney, and Jamie Veal. C-Feature honors went to John Schulz. The night's B-Main was topped by Tasker Phillips.

The Friday night program saw 52 drivers checking in, bringing this year's total to 93 competitors. With points tallied through the two preliminary nights, Clint Garner, with 492 points, has earned the pole in Saturday's $15,000 to win feature event. He will share the front row with fellow South Dakota driver, Justin Henderson, who tallied 481 markers.

Sammy Swindell Wins the 26th Annual Knoxville 360 Nationals! by Bryan Hulbert and Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 6, 2016) - For the second time in Knoxville Raceway history, a driver has added the 360cid and 410cid Nationals Championship to their Trophy Case as Sammy Swindell parked the A.G. Rains / Acme Graphix No. 3s in Victory Lane to claim the $15,000 top prize in the 26th annual Arnold Motor Supply ASCS 360 Knoxville Nationals presented by Great Southern Bank.

Joining Danny Lasoski as the only other driver to win both crown jewel events at the Marion County oval, Swindell is the fourteenth different winner of the 360 Nationals since 1991. The win is also the first as a car owner for West Memphis, Arkansas native, A.G. Rains.

“Praise the Lord, I’ve just been so blessed here lately with things going a lot of different directions,” said Sammy in Victory Lane after his fifth career 360 win at Knoxville. “I’m still out here doing this, getting to do what I love to do driving these cars and they gave me a perfect car tonight. All the things we did yesterday, they were all right. We hit it on the head and I couldn’t ask for anything any better.”

“When I was on the bottom there, I thought I was okay there. Then Clint [Garner] got around, and I just had to wait for my turn to get a shot and see where he was good at, and where he wasn’t to make my move; but the car just got better and better throughout the race.”

Taking off from the front row, Swindell took off into the race lead with Clint Garner, quickly taking over the point on the second lap. Stalked by the Acme Graphix No. 3s, the pair rolled top and bottom on the Knoxville Raceway with Swindell finally able to reclaim the lead on Lap nine.

The wily veteran began distancing himself from the current Knoxville 360cid point’s leader as the race through the top-five heated up, with Lasoski up to third and closing. Taking over the runner-up spot on the 13th trip around the half-mile, the 1995 winner of the 360cid Nationals came to Swindell’s back bumper as the caution flew on Lap 16 for Josh Baughman whose engine expired.

On the restart, the mover was Brian Brown. After fading to ninth early on, the FVP/Casey’s General Store No. 21 was back up to fourth. Stealing away third on Lap 20, the pass for the runner-up spot on Lap 22 would be Brown’s last pass of the night as the engine let go under the bonnet of the No. 21. That nearly wadded up Lasoski who barely got the Mark Burch No. 1m turned down the track.

Setting up a three lap dash to the finish, Lasoski got close but was never close enough as Swindell finished 1.078 seconds ahead of “The Dude”.

Challenged by Dusty Zomer on the final restart, Clint Garner rebounded to hold onto third with Terry McCarl coming from eighth to fourth. Ian Madsen from 14th came up to complete the top-five in the last corner.

Challenging for the third spot on the restart, Dusty Zomer faded to sixth with Jack Dover advancing twelve spots as the night’s Hard Charger. Friday’s preliminary A-Feature winner, Jamie Veal crossed eighth, with Brooke Tatnell and Tony Shilling making up the top ten.

Saturday night began with E-Feature competition. Colby Copeland grabbing that win. The night’s D-Feature was topped by Billy Butler after race winner, Tim Shaffer, was disqualified for the Wickerbill being too tall on the No. 49x. Sam Hafertepe, Jr. was the winner in the C-Feature. In the first three feature events, Colby Copeland and Logan Forler were able to advance from the E to the C. Forler was a DNF in the C, with Copeland finishing 15th. Jack Dover was able to grab the B-Feature.

Devin Kline Cops $800 with Ninth Career 305 Win!

Devin Kline put his name on top of the career 305 sprint car winners’ list at the Knoxville Raceway on Saturday night. The Knoxville, Iowa driver wrestled the lead away from Christian Bowman on lap two, and was never seriously challenged in the 15-lap event. The win aboard the White Lightning Motorsports #5J was worth $800, thanks to $400 in bonuses from Pace Performance Parts.

The event was plagued by several cautions. Christopher Scank spun while running fifth on lap six, then suffered a left rear tire flat and got sideways two laps later. Cody Ambers could not avoid contacting him. Brandon Worthington spun to bring a yellow on lap eleven and a circuit later, Mike Mayberry spun, collecting Mitchell Alexander. No one was injured.

Bowman maintained second behind Kline at the line, while McKenna Haase worked her way up from row four to finish third, followed by Corey Kautz and Chris Walraven. Chase Wanner, hard-charger Tyler Thompson, Matthew Stelzer, Jeff Wilke and Brad Comegys rounded out the top ten. Kline set quick time, while Mayberry and Wilke notched heat wins.

“We were really good on the long runs, but on that last restart, I tried to give it away and missed the bottom,” said Kline in Victory Lane. “Nonetheless, we came away with a win, and I have to thank Pace Performance for the bonus money. That’s going to go a long way. Don Blackshear and those guys make a great engine package, and we utilized it tonight. (Starting on the pole) feels like the whole world is on your shoulders. You’ve got nowhere to go but back. Fortunately, we just looked ahead and got the win.”

Join us tomorrow night for the Fifth Annual Kustom Concrete Pumping “Capitani Classic” presented by Great Southern Bank! The 410 sprint cars will have their last laps on the track before the 56th Annual 5-hour ENERGY Knoxville Nationals presented by Casey’s General Stores. The action will be intense! Shane Stewart Doubles Up in 5th Annual KCP Capitani Classic! by Bryan Hulbert and Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 7, 2016) – For the second year in a row, Shane Stewart was the man to beat at the Knoxville Raceway as the driver of the Larson-Marks No. 2 became the first driver to double up in the Capitani Classic, winning the fifth instalment of the Sunday spectacular presented by Kustom Concrete Pumping.

This was Shane's ninth career 410cid score at the Knoxville Raceway. The victory was quite the way to kick off the team's week in Iowa as Shane's last performance at the Marion County half-mile with the World of Outlaws Craftsman Sprint Car Series ended with parts flying.

"I tried to clean out the trailer the last time I was in town," chuckled Shane in Victory Lane. "I've got to thank Justin [Marks] and Kyle [Larson]. We haven't had the best of seasons but they've stuck with us and keep giving us everything we need to stay out here and keep doing our jobs."

"We've changed several cars to try and make things faster and some nights, it looks like we on the upward swing, but then the valley comes and when you're in the valley, you cherish moments like this because this sport can be very humbling."

Shane extended his well wishes to Bryan Clauson and his family before wrapping up his post-race interview, which included Ralph Capitani's nod as his pick to win the 5-hour ENERGY Knoxville Nationals presented by Casey's General Stores.

Taking three shots at the start of the A-Feature, Shane took the lead on the first round, only to chase Kerry Madsen the next two attempts. One lap in, Brad Sweet and Aaron Reutzel came together to bring out the caution. Madsen would not be able to keep Shane Stewart at bay, as the lead changed hands on the third round.

Finding the tail of the field on Lap 8, Shane found the road blocked; allowing the No. 29 of Kerry Madsen to close in. There was a red on Lap 15 as Bronson Maeschen spun, collecting Danny Lasoski who was running fifth. The pair emerged unscathed.

On the start, Brian Brown dropped the Casey's General Stores/FVP No. 21 to the deck with the run on Madsen, but the Keneric Racing No. 29 was able to power back to the silver position. With the laps starting to dwindle, Stewart again worked into traffic, but it was not enough for anyone to challenge as Shane crossed 3.459 seconds ahead of Kerry Madsen.

“In the long run, I actually stayed with him [Shane] and I thought well, I’m still in this thing, but on that last short run, he just ran off and left everybody,” said Madsen. “I’m just happy to hold onto second and happy for the guys after working so hard. It’s a good tune up I guess.”

Ending where he started, Brian Brown claimed the final podium step, “We’re right here where we need to be and to be on the podium with these two guys, I don’t care where you’re at, it’s a good night,” said Brown who also extended well wishes to the Clauson family.

Strong in the closing laps, Washington’s Jason Solwold advanced from 11th to fourth after battling several laps with Pennsylvania hot-shoe, Brent Marks, who ended his night fifth. Joey Saldana brought the Roth No. 83 across sixth with Oklahoma’s Daryn Pittman, who advanced from the B-Main, coming from 20th to seventh in the Great Clips No. 9. Dusty Zomer from 15th was eighth with Randy Hannagan ninth. The top-ten rounded out with Jamie Veal.

The night’s Pole Shuffle offered up a nice $2,000 bonus thanks to Greenland Homes. The first of seven rounds saw Dustin Selvage and Randy Hannagan taking two laps with Selvage taking the win. Making it to round three, Dustin fell to Brian Brown, who took his No. 21 through the sixth round before falling to Shane Stewart. Stewart advanced to the championship round with Kerry Madsen. It was Madsen who earned the pole in Sunday’s championship event.

Kerry Madsen set quick time in Group A, while Pittman was the fastest in Group B. Kerry Madsen, Paul McMahan, Zomer, Veal, Wayne Johnson and Lasoski won heats. Twin B-mains were topped by Chad Kemenah and Daryn Pittman.

Shane Stewart Holds Off Schatz on Night #1 of the 56th Annual Knoxville Nationals! by Bryan Hulbert and Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 10, 2016) – For the third year in a row, and fifth time overall in Knoxville Nationals preliminary competition, Oklahoma's Shane Stewart parked the Jeff Gordon Foundation No. 2s in Victory Lane; winning Wednesday's Brandt Professional Agriculture Qualifying Night to open up the 56th annual 5-hour ENERGY Knoxville Nationals presented by Casey's General Stores.

It was Stewart's second consecutive year topping the Capitani Classic and his Knoxville Nationals prelim night. The $12,000 score is Shane's tenth overall win at the Knoxville Raceway and win No. 6 on the season with the World of Outlaws Craftsman Sprint Car Series.

Referencing the words of Ralph Capitani, warning that Shane would be tough to beat, Shane stated, "I hope you're interviewing me one more time this week. Man, I tell you what, I've got a great car right now, but I know that we're going to have to pick it up just a little bit more to beat that No. 15 (Donny Schatz). He's just so darn good here on the bottom and I have so many people ask me how he's so good, but he just...everything just slows down in the racecar for him. He's so good at changing lanes and not scrubbing off speed, so I've got to get better at that if I'm going to beat him".

Gridging the field fourth, Stewart gave chase the first nine circuits as Jeff Swindell took off with the lead over Wayne Johnson from the front row. Into third on the third round, Stewart carefully closed in on the No. 47. Setting up Swindell for the pass on Lap 9, Stewart made the slide through turns one and two but was denied the top spot.

Regrouping on Lap 10, the slide came again through the first two turns. Leaving almost no room for error, Swindell was forced to roll out of the throttle, taking away enough momentum for Stewart to hold off the turn to take the lead.

Under caution on Lap 12 for Lynton Jeffrey, who lost a wheel on the No. 12 machine, Shane no longer had Swindell to contend with, as Donny Schatz had moved into the runner-up spot on the eleventh round. Charging low on the No. 2c, the No. 15 was kept at bay by 0.012 seconds to complete Lap 13. Taking the lead the following lap, his advantage was short lived as Stewart drove back to the point.

Slowed again with eight laps to run, Stewart got the jump on the restart, but Schatz was quick to pick up the pace, challenging again for the top position on the podium on Lap 19. Now three times denied, the nine-time champion watched as Shane pulled his advantage to 1.390 seconds at the drop of the checkered flag.

"It'll be a different racetrack on Saturday for sure. We've been trying to find speed on the top of this place ever since we've been coming here," said Donny of his runner-up appearance. "It seems like there's nights you can do it, and nights you can't, but we know what to do to run the bottom, but right now, we're just curious of what it's going to do on Saturday and which way it's going to go. Right now, that's the million-dollar question."

Moving up from fifth, Chad Kemenah brought the Hunter Racing No. 10h to the final podium step. On his finish, Chad stated, "This is good for Saturday, and takes a little bit of pressure off, but, my brother's had the racecar good all year long and that's what we've been good at is being consistent, so maybe on Saturday, we can be just as consistent, or a little bit better."

Coming from eighth, Daryn Pittman brought the Great Clips No. 9 to fourth with Jamie Veal from seventh to complete the top-five. Having to start 20th on the field, Greg Hodnett was the highest finishing Pennsylvania driver on the night with a hard charging run to sixth in the Heffner Racing No. 27. After leading early on, Jeff Swindell faded to finish seventh with Wayne Johnson also falling back to eighth. Ninth went to Rico Abreu with Dusty Zomer tenth after running as high as fourth in the opening laps.

With 47 drivers drawing in for Wednesday's Brandt Professional Agriculture Qualifying night, Heat Race wins went to Chad Kemenah, Paige Polyak, Rico Abreu, Dusty Zomer, and Greg Hodnett. The C-Feature was topped by Josh Baughman with the B-Feature going to Sammy Swindell. The night's quick time was achieved by Daryn Pittman with a time of 14.791 seconds.

Following Wednesday's action, Daryn Pittman sits atop the points with 485. Jamie Veal is second with 477, followed by Donny Schatz, Chad Kemenah, and Shane Stewart who rounds out the top-five in standings with 472 markers.

Tim Kaeding Storms to Victory Lane on Night #2 of the Knoxville Nationals!
by Bryan Hulbert and Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 11, 2016) –Cutting some mean doughnuts in celebration, Tim Kaeding reported to Victory Lane for the third time in preliminary night competition at the Knoxville Raceway, as the Lunstra Motorsports No. 3k rocketed to victory on Toyota Qualifying Night in the 56th Annual 5-hour ENERGY Knoxville Nationals presented by Casey’s General Stores. The San Jose, California driver earned $12,000 for his win and just beat a severe storm that hit the Knoxville area.

Kaeding's fifth career triumph at the Knoxville Raceway in 410cid competition, Tim dedicated his win to Bryan Clauson, saying, "I've got to give this one to B.C. Here's another one towards your 200. I grew up racing with his Dad. Just a great family and a hell of a racecar driver."

"This car was a rocket ship. I've got to thank Lunstra Motorsports, Dammer Trucking, and Folkens Brothers Trucking. They stuck their neck out for me just like Dave [Lunstra] did and thanks to all you for sticking through this; I'm ready for a Beer. It's way too hot to be in this thing," said Kaeding with a chuckle and a fist pump to the roar of an approving crowd.

Taking off from the fourth starting spot, Kaeding ran to second at the drop of the green with Dale Blaney showing the way. Closing steadily on the No. 1h, Kaeding began his assault on the lead working the eighth round. Racing off the fourth turn, the lead was in the hands of Kaeding by only 0.009 seconds at the line. Battling back, but to no avail, traffic looked to be Blaney's chance to reclaim the top-spot.

With Tim's path blocked on Lap 14, Dale closed the gap only to have traffic turn its favor and allow Kaeding to pull away. But the run was short lived as the caution flew for Justin Henderson who rolled to a stop off the fourth turn while running third.

Getting a nice jump over the field, the race on the track was from second through fifth as Blaney lost the spot to Louisiana's Jason Johnson. With Terry McCarl in tow, the Price Chopper No. 7x was on Johnson for the runner-up spot on Lap 22, but would not be able to hold the spot as the pair exchanged slide jobs around the Knoxville Raceway.

While Johnson was able to make up some ground, the checkered flag dropped with Kaeding winning by 2.273 seconds. With the win, Tim will lineup up ninth in Saturday's $150,000 to win A-Feature event.

With the runner-up finish, Johnson will see his Mesilla Valley Transportation No. 41 on the front row on Saturday night.

"I tell you what, these Priority Aviation, Mesilla Valley Transportation guys have been working their tails off this past month. Just an outstanding job," said Johnson from his side of the podium. "It was a good run tonight. Definitely good for our confidence. We've got a lot of great supporters here, and I can't thank them enough for making Jason Johnson Racing possible and there's no doubt we're racing with heavy hearts for Bryan Clauson. Condolences to the family. We're definitely thinking of them."

Taking off sixth in a car dedicated to the memory of his father, Lenard McCarl, Terry had to bounce back from an engine swap after his Heat Race, "Hats off to all my crew. My boys were out there helping Doug and Sunshine and everybody," said Terry. "This No. 7x is a tribute to my Dad, and I've got to thank Octane Ink for making this thing so beautiful."

McCarl will grid the Saturday lineup tenth.

Kerry Madsen advanced to a fourth place finish in the 1AUS after starting eighth. After leading the first eight rounds, Dale Blaney ended his night fifth. Pennsylvania's Brent Marks from 11th crossed sixth with James McFadden seventh. Having to advance out of the B-Feature, Brad Sweet rocketed from 21st to eighth. Ninth went to Mark Dobmeier with Cap Henry from 16th crossing tenth.

Brad Sweet was quickest in Qualifying with a time of 15.465 seconds. Brad has been fastest on his qualifying night at the Knoxville Nationals on three occasions. Heat Race wins went to Rager Philips, Ryan Bunton, Brent Marks, Jac Haudenschild, and Brooke Tatnell. C-Main victory went to Jon Agan with the B-Main won by Brad Sweet.

A look at the top-five in points following Thursday night finds Daryn Pittman on the pole of the 56th annual 5-hour ENERGY Knoxville Nationals presented by Casey's General Stores. Jason Johnson is second, followed by Kerry Madsen, Jamie Veal, and Donny Schatz.

The 56th Annual 5-hour ENERGY Knoxville Nationals presented by Casey's General Stores continues Friday night! Tickets are still available! To order tickets, or find more information about the Nationals, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Rico Abreu Parks it for B.C. on Friday Night at Knoxville!
Kraig Kinser Earns Saturday A main Starting Spot with World Challenge Win
by Bryan Hulbert and Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 12, 2016) – Make it 196 different winners at the Knoxville Raceway as California's Rico Abreu parked the Abreu Vineyards No. 24 in Victory Lane for the first time on FVP/Speed Sport Qualifying Night at the famed half-mile to earn the 17th starting spot in Saturday's 56th annual 5-hour ENERGY Knoxville Nationals presented by Casey's General Stores.

"We just parked it for B.C.!" screamed Rico across the Public Addresses System to the thunderous approval of a nearly packed front stretch grandstand.

"I was trying to pick and choose," commented Rico when asked about having to work slower traffic. Revealing how fortunate he was to win, Rico spent most of the race battling a car that changed handling characteristics with each stab of the throttle, "My Wing Valve actually broke so it would roll back on the straightaways, and then I'd get in the corner, and it'd roll back forward, but Paul Silva builds a great car along with EMI and Speedway Engines. It takes track position, and good decisions to get it all put together to win these races."

With a start that couldn't have gone any better for Rico, the bottom line was wide open for the No. 24 to shoot into the race lead through the first two turns with Danny Lasoski also taking advantage to move from sixth to second on the opening lap. Advancing back to the top-four after falling back on the start, Brian Brown raced into the third spot on Lap 2 to begin closing in on Lasoski.

Having fallen back on the initial start, Greg Hodnett had the pedals turning hard in the Hoffman No. 27, taking over third on the eighth round from Brown with Lasoski falling to third on the 10th lap. Closing fast on Abreu as the leader worked into traffic, the chance to pounce didn't present itself as Rico continued to pull away.

Remaining under green as the leaders picked their way around the back markers, Lap 14 saw a family battle setting up as Brian Brown closed again on Danny Lasoski. Still not able to get the run, "The Shark" was closing fast as Logan Schuchart let traffic play to his advantage.

With Rico still untouched at the front of the field, business continued to pick up to be in the top-four as Schuchart was all over Brian Brown in the closing laps. Swapping back and forth, the slide jobs came to a stop as Brown's night came to a drastic and sudden stop. Trying to avoid the spun No. 23s of Trey Starks, Brown tried the top, hoping to squeeze between the wall and Starks, but it was all over as Brown slammed into the No. 23s, ending his run into the A-Feature.

The race's lone caution on Lap 21, Rico had to outrun Greg Hodnett on the restart. Able to keep the No. 27 at bay, Abreu went on to win by 1.536 seconds.

Greg Hodnett was runner-up and will start 18th in Saturday's A-Feature. Asked about the caution, Hodnett replied, "After the yellow, I thought I lost air in the Bleeders and was really just flopping around too much. I thought if we would have kept running there I may have had a shot, but I don't know. We were just screwing around on the bottom trying to protect ourselves and get a run off each corner and work towards Saturday night."

Taking third, and earning the 19th starting spot on Saturday was Danny Lasoski. While "The Dude" is never happy finishing anything less than first, the winningest driver at Knoxville was more than pleased to have made the show. "However you have to get in this race, is how we have to get in this race. I've seen the No. 15 win from the back and win, and I've come from the back and run fourth so anything is possible."

Having to make up ground after falling back to sixth from the pole on the start, Lucas Wolfe rebounded to the final transfer and spot No. 20 in Saturday's A-Main. "I got fortunate on the restart obviously with Brown getting caught up and luckily I was good enough to get a decent run to get by Logan [Schuchart] there but it's just a big relief to make it in."

Rolling from 16th, Tim Shaffer came on very strong in the final six laps, coming from 10th to fifth and will now start 11th in Saturday's B-Main. Logan Schuchart ended up sixth with Joey Saldana seventh. Stevie Smith was eighth with Sheldon Haudenschild and Brady Bacon completing the top-ten.

With split qualifying among 77 drivers, Pennsylvania drivers proved to be the quickest. The fastest time in the first group was run by Lucas Wolfe with a time of 15.096 seconds. The second group was topped by Jacob Allen with a time of 15.294 seconds. Group A Heat Races were won by Sheldon Haudenschild, Bill Balog, and Brady Bacon. Group B Heat Races were headed by Dakota Hendrickson, Willie Croft, and Brian Brown. The C-Feature was taken by Parker Price-Miller. Twin B-Mains were won by Dustin Selvage and Jacob Allen.

Kraig Kinser Cashes in $10,000 and Golden Ticket with World Challenge Victory!

Kraig Kinser will be the 25th starter in the championship event Saturday night after winning the $10,000 Speed Sport World Challenge. It was the fifth win of the Bloomington, Indiana driver's career at Knoxville, and improved his Saturday night standing from his original starting spot in the C main. A "missing man formation" preceded the World Challenge, honoring the late Shane Krikke, Bob Trostle and Bryan Clauson.

Jason Sides shot out from his starting spot outside the front row at the beginning of the 20-lap event ahead of Kinser and Paul McMahan. Kinser shot around Sides on the second circuit and began pulling away. With three lap sin, Brad Sweet spun, collecting Lynton Jeffrey. Only Sweet would return.

Kinser led Sides, McMahan, Danny Dietrich and James McFadden back to green. McFadden and Dietrich battled hard for the third spot exchanging it twice. By lap eleven, Ian Madsen got into the fray and shot by McFadden for fourth. A wild battle saw four-wide chaos for second, third, fourth and fifth between Madsen, McFadden, Dietrich and Sides.

While Kinser rolled up front, Madsen grabbed second with two to go, and was followed by McFadden, Dietrich and a late charging Jamie Veal at the checkers. Sides, Brooke Tatnell, Terry McCarl, Kerry Madsen and McMahan rounded out the top ten.

"I felt like there was somebody right on me there," said Kinser in Victory Lane. "I was taking it cautious around the bottom, trying not to screw up and get off that line. I just felt like I kept slowing down more and more. I knew I had to pick it up, and was just waiting for Doug Clark to wave that white flag. We didn't have the best of weekends starting out, but this is a great ending to our night!"

Jason Johnson Brings Knoxville to Its Feet with Nationals Win! by Bryan Hulbert and Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 13, 2016) – In a race that will go down as one of the best ever run at the Knoxville Raceway, the 56th annual 5-hour ENERGY Knoxville Nationals presented by Casey's General Stores found a new champion as “The Ragin’ Cajun” Jason Johnson brought a near capacity crowd to their feet with a hair raising battle with Donny Schatz to claim Sprint Car racing’s biggest prize.

“Parked it. B.C.!” screamed the Louisiana native as he immediately dedicated his win to Bryan Clauson.

Asked about his nearly race long battle with the nine-time Knoxville Nationals Champion; Johnson stated, “I wasn’t giving up. I mean, this is the biggest race of the year, and the biggest race of my career. It was a golden opportunity, and I needed to make the most of it and I know he wasn’t happy with me for crowding him but $!&% I wanted to win.”

Bringing up a comment by Jason under the break of needing the second half to go with as few cautions as possible, Johnson explained, "It really made a difference. My guys gave me a great racecar. I was worried about blistering my tires, but I've got to thank my fellow competitor, Shane Stewart. I've spent a lot of time talking with him about how to race this track, and I was just trying to stay patient and run him [Donny Schatz] down and when I got by him, I stayed patient for a few laps but I just couldn't stay patient anymore. It was time to go."

While Jason occupied the outside of the front row, it was Daryn Pittman who took off with the race lead with Jason Johnson in tow. Working to third on the second round, Donny Schatz worked smoothly around the bottom of the Knoxville Raceway with Jason Johnson to his front.

Coming up on the tenth lap, the leaders began closing in on the back of the field. Giving Johnson the advantage to close the gap, the MVT No. 41 worked the cushion as Pittman rolled the bottom side. Completing the ninth circuit, Pittman came very close to a slower car at the bottom of turn four, just as Jason Johnson shot off the fourth turn. Closing more on the tenth round, Johnson made a break for the lead on Lap 11.

Off the fourth turn, the cushion was the line for Jason to grab the point, but it would be short lived as Pittman drove back around the Priority Aviation No. 41 to lead Lap 12. With the Bad Boy Buggies No. 15 taking over the runner-up spot in the mix, Schatz brought a full head of steam behind him to grab the top spot on the Lap 13.

Putting the Great Clips No. 9 to third, Johnson returned to the cushion with Schatz in the crosshairs.

The caution flew on lap 16 for Craig Dollansky, who suffered a failed engine. Johnson rolled the center of the first turn to no avail as Kerry Madsen made his presence known with a high side pass off the second turn to grab third from Pittman in the Keneric Racing No. 1AUS. Struggling to get up to speed, Pittman ended up three wide to hold onto the fourth spot. Finally fighting off the challenge, Pittman went to work to regain lost ground.

Still keeping pace with Schatz for the lead, Johnson began searching around the track, vacating the cushion as the mandatory caution flew on Lap 26.

With adjustments made, the field went back to green with Johnson on a mission...keeping pace with Schatz as Kerry Madsen worked to get around the pair. Going to the cushion, Johnson built his momentum, taking the race lead off the fourth turn of the 27th lap.

Side-by-side for several laps, Donny worked the bottom side as Johnson continued on the cushion. Pulling away slowly from the No. 15, Johnson found traffic on Lap 33. Nearly climbing the wall off the fourth turn on Lap 34, the bobble allowed Schatz to bring the No. 41 back into his grasp.

Under a second behind, Schatz had his hands full as Kerry Madsen powered to by the No. 15 on Lap 38.

Into the final ten rounds, the leaders found themselves in heavy traffic as the race for second heated up again with Schatz retaking the spot on Lap 41. Carrying a huge run into the second spot, the race of the lead was on. On trip No. 44 around Knoxville, the slide jobs came, as Schatz delivered an onslaught of haymaker moves with Johnson returning in kind.

With under five laps to go, the scream of the crowd roared louder than the cars as Johnson ran the right rear of his No. 41 on the ragged edge with traffic about to come into play. With three laps to go, off the fourth turn, Johnson nearly tagged the wall. The bobble was just what Donny needed as the No. 15 was ferocious around the bottom of the Knoxville Raceway.

To the white flag, the stage was set as Johnson entered the final two turns. Powering the bottom side, it was all or nothing as Donny gave it one last run, but it was not to be as Jason Johnson worked to the checkered flag a mere .168 seconds over the nine-time champion. The win is also Johnson's third at the Knoxville Raceway in 410cid competition.

Donny's runner-up finish is the 12th time in as many years that Schatz has been on the podium at the Knoxville Nationals. "We did everything we could," he said. "Jason [Johnson] did a great job. I didn't think you could run that hard a pace for 50 laps, but he did, and once he got out there, I tried everything to catch him and just couldn't do it," commented Schatz from the second podium step.

Running in the top-five just over half the race, Oklahoma's Shane Stewart worked to the final podium step in the Larson/Marks Racing No. 2s, despite suffering an engine miscue in the latter part of the race. "I actually have to say thanks to Justin (Marks) and Kyle (Larson)," he said. "Justin had a tremendous day today, and we were hoping to carry that through tonight, but my car was really, really, good. We actually lost a cylinder about halfway through the end of the last segment, and just had to try to hang on, but congratulations to Jason, Bobbi, and his whole clan. It's a huge race to win, and a hard one to win, and he did a great job."

After leading the opening rounds, Daryn Pittman ended up fourth. Having to race his way in through the B-Feature, Kyle Larson tore a path through the field from 21st to fifth in the Finley Farms Special No. 57.

Jamie Veal crossed as the highest finishing Australian with a sixth place run with Chad Kemenah seventh. Greg Hodnett was eighth with Ian Madsen ninth. The top ten rounded out with David Gravel.

Starting off with the E-Feature, Jon Agan led wire to wire, with the D-Feature won by Austin McCarl. In the C-Feature, the top spot went to Davey Heskin. In the non-stop, 22 lap B-Feature, it was Kyle Larson who grabbed the win.

Best appearing car of this year's 5-hour ENERGY Knoxville Nationals presented by Casey's General Stores was the Blazin' Racing No. 82 driven by Dusty Zomer. Best appearing crew was won by the team of the Josh Baughman Racing No. 17. Each team received $500.

Being interviewed prior to the race, Greg McCormick with the Blazin' Racing Team, let everyone know that the money was to be donated to the family of Bryan Clauson. The night's 50/50 winner donated their winnings, worth $20,560, to the Clauson family as well.

Rookie of the Year honors went to Matt Juhl in the Octane Ink No. 09. Juhl advanced from the C-Feature to finish 16th in the 'B'. The Jesse Hockett Mr. Sprint Car Award presented by Cox Fabrication was awarded to Jamie Veal, who is the first Australian to earn the title since it began in 2002. The 2016 Mechanic of the race was earned by JJR Crew Chief, Phil Dietz.

Three Champions, Three Winners at Knoxville Raceway! by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 27, 2016) – Three 2016 Lucas Oil Knoxville Championship Cup Series champions proved why they are on top of the heap, making history Saturday at Pizza Hut Season Championship Night at the Knoxville Raceway! 410 champion, Danny Lasoski, 360 champ, Clint Garner, and 305 titlist Christian Bowman emerged victorious not only in the season point standings, but on the racetrack. It was the first time that season champions had swept the feature events on the final night of the season.

In the 410 class, the National Sprint League 25-lap event saw Tasker Phillips flip violently in turn one before a lap could be completed. Fortunately, he was uninjured. Brooke Tatnell outgained Craig Dollansky on lap one, but the “Crowd Pleaser” came back on the outside to lead lap two. Danny Lasoski started third, and moved by Tatnell into second on lap four. Brian Brown followed suit into third on lap eight.

Lasoski used his patented low groove to shoot by Dollansky on lap 14, after a good battle. With 15 laps down, Matt Moro, who had been running sixth, stopped on the frontstretch with motor issues. The restart saw Lasoski leading Dollansky, Brown, Davey Heskin and Tatnell back to green flag racing.

The only other stoppage came with six laps to go. Rager Phillips blew a right rear tire, and rejoined the field at the tail. Brown used that restart to snatch second, but he couldn't catch Lasoski, who recorded win #111 to the tune of $5,000. Dollansky held on for third, ahead of Heskin and hard-charger Kerry Madsen. Josh Schneiderman, Tatnell, Ian Madsen, Dustin Selvage and Scott Bogucki rounded out the top ten. Lasoski set quick time for the sixth time this season, while Dollansky, Moro and AJ Moeller won heats.

“We really appreciate all the effort (owner Tod Quiring) puts out,” said Lasoski in Victory Lane. “I'm the lucky guy that gets to drive it. (crew chief) Guy Forbrook...what can I say? The guy is so good. You can never count him out. He works his ass off. I didn't see (Brown), but I heard him up above me. After that, I picked up the pace a little more. I was trying to save my tires, and not to slip. As soon as I heard somebody, I aired it out.”

Joe Beaver led the 18-lap 360 main event from the pole early on ahead of Tony Shilling and Sawyer Phillips. Clint Garner was on the move, however, from his starting spot inside row three. He shot under Phillips for third on lap five. Rob Weuve spun in front of Shilling and Garner with seven laps down. The veterans avoided the spinning mount, and started behind Beaver on the restart.

Garner quickly moved into second, while Ryan Giles advanced by Phillips for fourth. Garner dispatched Beaver for the lead on lap 10. A circuit later, Tom Lenz slowed in turn three, bringing a caution. Garner lead Beaver, Shilling, Giles and Phillips back to green. The final slowdown came for a spun Ricky Montgomery, setting up a two-lap Dash to the checkers.

While Garner pulled away for his 28th career win here, Shilling shot into second. Giles moved into third, while Phillips and Beaver completed the top five. Jamie Ball, Matt Moro, Tyler Groenendyk, Nate Van Haaften and Calvin Landis completed the top ten. Van Haaften set quick time, while Shilling and Garner won heats.

“It's such a challenge to take these things on every night,” said Garner. “It is such a blessing to be here, and to be on top is even greater. The cars are really fast, and there's quite a few of us with good engines. If we'd just get some mirrors in here, we'd know how hard to run. Up front, you just run like a rabbit. You don't know what's behind you. It's a tricky sport. If NASCAR didn't have mirrors, it'd be a lot more interesting.”

Mike Mayberry drove to an early lead in the 15-lap 305 feature ahead of Christian Bowman, McKenna Haase, Devin Kline and Brad Comegys. Kline and Comegys provided the battle early for fourth, with Kline winning out. The only caution came on lap nine when the fifth place car of Matthew Stelzer came to a stop in turn four. Meanwhile, Bowman avoided disaster in lapped traffic by sneaking under a car on the backstretch.

Mayberry's lead on the restart was short-lived, as Bowman surged to the fore. Kline also worked by Haase for third, and the top four would race each other in close quarters the last five laps. At the checkers, they all finished within a second of each other. Bowman's win was his fourth of the season and his career. Mayberry finished behind the champ, ahead of Kline, Haase and Corey Kautz. Comegys, Chris Walraven, Jeff Wilke, Joe Simbro and hard-charger, Blain Petersen rounded out the top ten. Comegys set quick time, while Mayberry and Kline won heat races.

“I knew I had the car to win,” said Bowman. “My team worked hard, and they gave me a great car. I have to thank all my sponsors for a great year.”

Tyler Sutter Repeats in 31st Annual Fall Enduro at Knoxville! by Bill Wright

Knoxville, IA – September 3, 2016 – Tyler Sutter of Pleasantville took the 31st annual Fall Enduro at Knoxville Raceway Saturday night. Sutter completed 201 laps in just under two hours, and was paid $1,000 for his efforts. Tyler's brother, Jacob Sutter took the early lead on lap two, but was passed by Tyler on lap 98 for good. Blake Miller of Des Moines finished second to earn $700. Ryan Lundy of Knoxville finished in third place and was paid $500.

Eight red flag periods were encountered along the way for various reasons such as debris on the track, adding moisture, as well as removal of stalled cars which were in dangerous positions.

Billy Moyer Wires Field on Night #1 of the Knoxville Late Model Nationals!!
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (September 15, 2016) – Billy Moyer scored his 815th career late model victory Thursday night to open the 13th Annual Lucas Oil Late Model Nationals presented by Casey's General Stores at the Knoxville Raceway. The Des Moines, Iowa native now living in Batesville, Arkansas cashed in $7,000 for his ninth career win at this historic oval. He led all 25 laps in the non-stop event, setting a late model record for time at 8:19.6.

Moyer led Brandon Sheppard, Shane Clanton, Josh Richards and Jimmy Mars early in the 25-lap feature event. The leaders approached lapped traffic at the halfway point on the fast track. Richards and Clanton put on a spirited battle for third, with Richards winning out on the fifteenth round.

Richards would challenge Sheppard briefly late in the going for second. As the two battled, Moyer pulled away for his popular win. Sheppard held onto second, ahead of Richards, Clanton and Mars. Bobby Pierce, Chris Simpson, Don O'Neal, Jonathan Davenport and Tim McCreadie completed the top ten.

Mike Marlar and Kyle Bronson set quick time for their respective groups. Jimmy Owens, Steve Francis, Darrell Lanigan, Moyer, Greg Satterlee and Jason Rauen won heat races. Spencer Diercks won the D main, Jake O'Neil claimed the C main and Mike Marlar took the B main.

Drivers will take the best point total of their two qualifying nights. Richards led tonight's charge with 489, followed by Chris Simpson (483), Moyer (482), Clanton (479) and Pierce (476).

"We tweaked on the car a little bit and made the right decisions for once," said Moyer in Victory Lane. "We've got to figure out that motor deal...it's running a little warm. We'll keep plugging away here. The car was pretty darn good. I never really did try the bottom at all, but I messed around with the middle and top. We've got something to work on the rest of the week. I got up over the cushion, and thought I'd thrown the driveshaft out of the thing. It kind of vibrated. When I got down off of it, the next lap I felt o.k."

Josh Richards Scores Perfect Night at Knoxville Late Model Nationals!
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (September 16, 2016) – The “Rocket Man” Josh Richards lived up to his name Friday night at the 13th Annual Lucas Oil Knoxville Late Models Nationals presented by Casey’s General Stores. The Shinnston, West Virginia native not only scored his fourth feature win of his career here, but also set quick time, and won his heat to score a perfect 500 points. That will put him on the pole for Saturday night's $40,000 to win 100-lap championship event!

Jimmy Owens jumped from his third starting position to lead lap one, but pole-sitter, Shannon Babb grabbed the point on the second circuit. With three laps in the books, fifth place running Chase Junghans slowed in turn two, bringing the caution. Babb led Owens, Rodney Sanders, Scott Bloomquist and Dale McDowell back to green.

On lap seven, Richards surged from sixth to fourth, and then took third from Sanderson on lap nine. Thursday night's winner, Billy Moyer, came to a stop with overheating issues with 12 laps recorded. Babb would maintain his lead when the green flag fell, but Richards was on the move. He used the low groove to power by Owens for second on lap 15.

A lap later, the final caution of the race flew for Brandon Sheppard, who stopped in turn four. Babb led the final charge over Richards, Owens, Sanders and McDowell. Richards stalked Babb and used the low side to shoot by Babb on lap 19. Babb held off Owens by just .006 of a second for the runner-up spot. McDowell and Mike Marlar followed. Sanders, Jimmy Mars, Bloomquist, Jonathan Davenport and Chris Simpson completed the top ten.

McDowell joined Richards as setting quick time over his group. Tim Lance, who won the second heat in track record time, was joined by other preliminary winners, Richards, Sheppard, Junghans, Dennis Erb Jr. and Chad Mahder. Gregg Satterlee won the C main and Tim McCreadie won the B.

"This feels awesome," said Richards. "We had a great point night last night and the car was good. The track was so different tonight with the rain water. We'll see what we have tomorrow. The car was phenomenal again tonight. I can't thank the crew enough. We've had a fantastic year, but tomorrow's the one we're really looking towards. We're in the best position we can be in. The bottom was good. I just had to make sure I got pointed the right way."

Join us tomorrow night for the championship night of the 13th Annual Lucas Oil Knoxville Late Model Nationals presented by Casey's General Stores! For more information, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Mike Marlar Wins Lucas Oil Late Model Knoxville Nationals! by Eric Arnold

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (September 17, 2016) – It has been the year of the upset winners at Knoxville Raceway and Mike Marlar of Winfield, Tennessee surprised everyone by leading the final 61 laps on his way to a win $40,000 at the 13th annual Lucas Oil Late Model Knoxville Nationals presented by Casey’s General Store!

Front row starters Jimmy Owens and Josh Richards were the early front runners of the 100 lap event, Owens led the opening ten laps until Richards used lapped traffic to get by Owens and pull away. It appeared that Richards, the four-time runner-up at Knoxville would go on to finally win the Knoxville Nationals. Marlar started in row two and fell to fifth early but was able to claw his way back to the leaders. On lap 40 Marlar made his move and passed Richards.

The event was marred by several caution periods and Marlar was able to hold off challenges by Richards and later from Scott Bloomquist on every restart to drive away and win by 1.188 seconds of Blooquist at the checkered flag.

The win was Marlar’s second of his career at Knoxville who won a Nationals preliminary in 2012. Marlar finished fourth in 2015, third in 2014, and sixth in 2012. The part-time super dirt late model driver was able to put together the winning combination to become the eleventh different winner of the Knoxville Nationals crown jewel event.

Bloomquist started eighth and was running fourth at halfway. His car came alive and was running second by lap 60. Bloomer was able to driver beside Marlar on a few occasions and pass him briefly at one point during the race, but fell short of winning a record third Nationals.

19 year-old Bobby Pierce finished third in his first entry at Knoxville in four years. The youngster looked strong driving from his tenth starting position to stand upon the podium a week after winning the World 100.

Richards was running third when he pulled in with five laps remaining. Jimmy Owens would pull in on lap 46 with mechanical woes as would Jonathan Davenport on lap 79.

In preliminary action Gregg Satterlee won the B Main and Morgan Bagley won the C Main.

The 2016 Knoxville Raceway season is now complete. Stay tuned to www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com for our 2017 schedule announcements in the coming weeks. The 57th annual Knoxville Nationals are scheduled for August 9-12!
