David Gravel Wins in Thrilling Fashion in World of Outlaws Return to Knoxville! by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (May 8, 2020) – In one of the most unique nights in sprint car racing history, David Gravel outlasted Ian Madsen in a 30-lap slugfest at the Knoxville Raceway on Friday night.

With no fans admitted due to the current COVID-19 pandemic, the McKay Group with Nationwide Insurance presented the NOS Energy Drink World of Outlaws Series for a Pay Per View only event. The surreal evening saw social distancing, the field limited to an invitation of 48 and current health guidelines enforced, but the action on the track was as thrilling as ever.

Daryn Pittman led the 30-lap main event early, ahead of Ian Madsen and Gravel. Six laps in, seventh running Shane Golobic had contact with Donny Schatz, flattening his left rear tire and bringing the yellow flag.

Madsen was fast and closed on Pittman before taking the point on lap nine. Three laps later, Kerry Madsen suffered a flat tire of his own. When he slowed, Sheldon Haudenschield could not avoid him and made contact, tipping over. He was uninjured.

The restart saw Madsen leading Pittman, Logan Schuchart, Gravel and Lynton Jeffrey back to green. Gravel surged to third utilizing the low side of the speedway on the restart. Pittman reeled in Madsen, but Gravel was in tow as well, and took the runner-up spot from him on lap 16.

The Connecticut native continued his torrid pace and passed Madsen for the lead in turn two on lap 19, only to be blocked by a lapped car coming out of turn four. Madsen maintained his lead and staved another haymaker from Gravel two laps later, when another pass for the lead in turn two was thwarted.

Schuchart was gaining late as well, taking third from Pittman on lap 21. With four laps to go, Madsen jumped the turn four cushion, but kept his lead. On lap 29, he did the same, but was not as lucky. Gravel pounced on the opportunity and led the final two laps for a $15,000 score and his seventh career win here aboard the Jason Johnson Racing #41.

Gravel led the top ten to the checkers ahead of Ian Madsen, Schuchart, Pittman, Cory Eliason, Donny Schatz, Jeffrey, Brian Brown, hard-charger Brad Sweet and Kyle Larson. Aaron Reutzel set quick time in his group, but motor issues in his heat, sidelined him for the night. Gravel set quick time in the second group, and was a heat winner, along with Ian Madsen, Schuchart and Eliason. Ian Madsen won the Dash, while Trey Starks claimed the C main and Sheldon Haudenschild won the B. Lucas Wolfe and Robbie Kendall contacted at the start of the C main and went off on the hook. Neither was injured.

“We haven’t been in the racecar a lot, and Ian and I made a lot of mistakes,” said Gravel in Victory Lane. “I was glad it was a 30-lap race. If it was 25, I would have lost that one. I was really good on the bottom of one and two, but I could not come off. If I hit my marks, we were fast, but man, it was hard to do. Hopefully, this was a good race for everybody (watching at home) to get everyone’s blood pumping again. Ian and I just battled, and lapped cars were in my way. He gave me a chance in three and four. It’s just good to come back in a racecar and be competitive.”

“It’s devastating to be honest,” said Madsen of his second place run. “I gave it my all. I made a little error at the end. I got my wing too far back and I couldn’t get around the top of three and four. I really buried myself a couple of times and David got by. I can’t make that kind of mistake around him. I feel like we did 99% of everything right all night, and we just came up a little short. It’s great progress for this KCP team this year.”

“It was a good start,” said Schuchart of his third place run. “We were quick right off the bat qualifying, and we ran good in the heat race. We have some things we can work on in the feature to make us a little bit better. It was real tough to hit your marks tonight. There were some rough spots out there. But it’s the same for everybody. It makes it exciting. It was a great start to the season for us.”

Knoxville Raceway is waiting until spectators are permitted to attend before hosting any of its scheduled weekly racing programs. The World of Outlaws NOS Energy Drink Sprint Car Series will return to the track on June 12 and 13, with or without fans.

Stay tuned to Knoxville Raceway’s Facebook, Twitter and www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com for any further updates concerning the 2020 season.

Brian Brown Ties Sammy Swindell with 50th Career Win at Knoxville!
Carson McCarl Wins in the 360 Class; Russ Hall Takes Pro Sprints Feature
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (June 6, 2020) – Brian Brown tied Sammy Swindell on the all-time Knoxville Raceway win list Saturday with his 50th career win here, tying him for fifth all-time. The Pella Motors/Kraig Ford Season Opener saw a welcome return to racing for Knoxville Raceway fans and competitors alike. Brown, who won the 2019 410 track title at Knoxville, earned $4,000 for his win aboard the Brian Brown Racing #21. Carson McCarl also started his title defense with his third career win in the 360 class, while Russ Hall claimed his third career win with the Pro Sprints presented by Pace Performance.

Brown shot out to an early lead in the 20-lap 410 feature from his starting spot outside row one. Rico Abreu trailed him, ahead of Tyler Courtney, Shane Golobic and Lynton Jeffrey, who jumped up five spots from his starting spot outside of row five on the first lap.

Jeffrey gained another position when he got by Golobic on lap three. Austin McCarl followed him into fifth, but had contact with Golobic in turn four. Disaster was avoided and both kept going.

Brown was into lapped traffic by lap six, and pulled away from the field. Davey Heskin, who started twelfth, found the low groove to his liking and climbed to fifth by lap 13. The track became abrasive, and seventh running Terry McCarl blew his right rear with four laps to go. Golobic, who was running ninth, also ducked into the work area to replace a flat left rear.

Meanwhile, Brown pulled away on the restart for the win, ahead of Abreu, Courtney, Heskin and Jeffrey. Anthony Macri, Austin McCarl, Brooke Tatnell, Matt Juhl and Trey Starks rounded out the top ten. Abreu set quick time over the 32-car field, while Brown, Ryan Giles, Heskin and Justin Henderson were heat race winners. Sawyer Phillips won the B main.

“This week has probably been the most down I’ve been as a race car driver,” said Brown in Victory Lane. “The last two weeks have been pretty bad. One thing that’s never changed is the attitude of my guys. They don’t let me get down. I think that’s what this sport is about. You don’t get down, and you look forward to your next one. I never dreamed as a kid, sitting in section G, row 20 with my Grandma Barbara that I would ever win one race, let alone 50. It means a lot.”

Jon Agan, who has teamed with the Seidenkranz Brothers #64 team, dominated the 18-lap 360 feature early. Carson McCarl and Clint Garner trailed before Kelby Watt spun with three laps down.

McCarl slid in front of Agan to the point in laps one and two on the restart, but a Ricky Montgomery spin on the backstretch that collected Nate Mills and Brandon Halverson negated the pass. Agan led McCarl, Garner, Matt Moro and Jamie Ball back to green.

This time, Agan pulled away. Back in the pack, Joe Beaver was climbing from his 17th starting spot, and cracked the top six by lap eight. That circuit would prove disastrous for Agan, who got into the wall, avoiding the spinning car of Rob Kubli. Watt was also involved.

McCarl inherited the lead ahead of Garner, Moro, Ball and Beaver. Ball gained a spot after the restart, as did Beaver, as both moved by Moro. Meanwhile, up front, McCarl was in lapped traffic with three to go and pulling away.

Garner gained on the leader with two to go, but McCarl hit his marks to win ahead of Garner, Ball, Beaver and Moro. Kyle Offill was sixth in his Knoxville debut, ahead of Calvin Landis, Lee Grosz, Matt Howard and Chris Morgan. Ball set quick time over the 30-car field, while Agan, Grosz and Howard won heats. Nate Mills won the B main.

“Jon was really tough out there,” said McCarl. “I got him on that first restart. On the next one, his car took off really well, and got the jump. We probably needed traffic to beat him. They tilled up the top before the feature and it really helped. That was the right call. It got really tricky on both ends. I figured if I was having trouble with it, Garner was too. I just tried to hit my marks and do the best I can.”

Russ Hall paced the field in the Pro Sprints 15-lap feature from the pole. Defending track champ, Matt Stelzer, was hot on his heels, while Chase Young used the low side to gain third on lap two.

Six laps in, Tyler Barrick and Matt Johnson tangled, with Barrick getting upside down. He walked away. On the restart, Stelzer slid in front of Hall to lead lap seven, but Hall countered on the following go-around with a pass on the low side of turn two to take the point for good.

A final caution saw fifth running Evan Epperson stop with a flat tire with three to go. Hall pulled away from there, while Young grabbed second from Stelzer coming for the white flag. Brandon Worthington claimed fourth, with Jeff Wilke fifth. Devin Wignall, Chris Walraven, Mike Johnston, Mike Mayberry and Joel Thorpe rounded out the top ten. Passing points were used to line up the feature, and Hall and Stelzer claimed the two heats.

“I forgot where I was for a second (on the restart that Stelzer took the lead),” said Hall. “We were better on the second. Tonight has been great. I want to thank the fans for coming out. Please go out and support your small businesses, especially the ones that support racing.”

Next Friday, June 12, and Saturday, June 13, mark the return of the World of Outlaws to Knoxville Raceway for the Brownell’s Big Guns Bash! For more information, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com or check Knoxville Raceway’s Facebook and Twitter.

Kyle Larson Scores Fourth in a Row with World of Outlaws Win at Knoxville! by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (June 12, 2020) – Kyle Larson is on a roll and the NOS Energy Drink World of Outlaws were his latest victim Friday night at the Brownells Big Guns Bash at the Knoxville Raceway. Larson, from Elk Grove, California, won three events in a row with the All Star Circuit of Champions in the last week, and added another here in Knoxville Friday. The win aboard the Kyle Larson Racing #57 was also the fourth in his career at the famous half-mile oval.

David Gravel led Donny Schatz by a narrow margin early in the 25-lap feature event. Larson settled into third, ahead of Ian Madsen and Sammy Swindell, who had not competed in a sprint car since November. Schatz, who had looked strong by winning his heat, and went from eighth to second in the Dash, took the point on the second circuit.

Larson had a run on Gravel and took the second spot on the sixth lap, before Austin McCarl brought out a caution after stopping in turn two. Schatz elected for the low line on the restart, and Larson stormed to the lead in turn one, only to have it negated, when Rico Abreu got upside down in turn one. Rico walked away.

When the green flag fell again, it was Gravel who had a run and took the second spot. A good battle ensued, and Larson reclaimed the spot on the next lap. Larson was gaining momentum and shot by Schatz to lead lap ten.

The leader was in lapped traffic on the thirteenth circuit and worked through masterfully from there. Gravel avoided disaster in third after getting sideways and above the turn one cushion on lap 16. At the same time, Carson Macedo entered the top five after starting eleventh. With five laps to go, he snared fourth from Madsen.

Larson went on to victory ahead of Schatz, Gravel, Macedo and Sheldon Haudenschild, who gained fifth with two to go. Madsen, Swindell, Shane Stewart, Tim Kaeding and Kerry Madsen rounded out the top ten. Gravel and Ian Madsen set quick time over their respective groups. Gravel, Schatz, Abreu and Stewart won heats. Ryan Giles claimed the Non-qualifier heat, Shane Golobic won the C main, and Gio Scelzi took the B. Joe Simbro was a flip victim in the C, but walked away.

Logan Schuchart suffered a tough night that saw him undergo an engine change without getting a time trial in, have trouble in the Non-qualifier heat, and fall short of transferring to the C, before taking a provisional for the main event.

During opening ceremonies, WoO announcer John Gibson was awarded for being a part of 2000 straight events with the series.

“It’s a pleasure to drive for (crew chief) Paul Silva, and everyone who helps out on this team,” said Larson in Victory Lane. “It makes it a lot of fun to come to Knoxville, one of my favorite tracks. We were terrible at the Knoxville Nationals last year. We were pretty bad here a month ago. To turn around and have a solid night felt good. Before the first caution, I could enter above the holes in (turn) one and diamond and exit low off of two. I felt I could maintain with (Schatz). Once I got to second, Donny was still following the top and I was able to just make that line work and get the run on him in three and pass him. It felt really good in traffic. I got tight. I pulled my wing back, and about the same time, my nose wing fell down. Thankfully, I only had to go one lap with that. I was driving as hard as I could every lap.”

“(Larson) was definitely better than us,” said the second place Schatz. “He kind of surprised me on that restart when he took off so good. I knew his car would drive forward really good. We had that red, and got back in command there. He just found a different line in one and two. He went outside of it and came back down across the racetrack. I didn’t think it would stay that long, so I didn’t try it. You can’t be making a mistake, but if you are, now’s the time to do it. It was a real solid night. It’s been a challenge to get the car balanced, and these guys have done a good job. This week’s thrown us a huge curveball (with the absence of crew chief Steve Swenson). We’ve been smiling a lot more lately at the end of the night, and that’s a good thing.”

“We had a new car tonight,” said Gravel. “We’re working out a couple of bugs. We just got a little stood up in the A main. I’m happy with that. I’d rather start up front and have a chance to win that race. Tomorrow we’ll come back and keep working on that thing. We wanted to win tonight, but we’ll get her better for tomorrow and see what happens.”

Saturday night marks the finale of the NOS Energy Drink World of Outlaws Brownell's Big Guns Bash! For more information, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com or check Knoxville Raceway's Facebook and Twitter.

Kyle Larson Gets Out the Broom and Sweeps the WoO at Knoxville! by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (June 13, 2020) – Kyle Larson is hard to beat right now. The Elk Grove, California native notched his fifth consecutive sprint car victory and his second straight with the NOS Energy Drink World of Outlaws in sweeping the Brownells Big Guns Bash weekend at Knoxville Raceway. Larson earned $10,000 for his fifth career Knoxville win aboard the Kyle Larson Racing #57 wrenched by Paul Silva on Saturday night.

Dash winner Daryn Pittman looked strong out front early in the 30-lap feature ahead of Brad Sweet and Parker Price-Miller. Larson shot from fifth to third on lap two. Brian Brown passed Price-Miller for the fourth spot on lap three.

Larson measured Sweet up and took second on lap four. Meanwhile, Carson Macedo was working his way forward from 13th to settle into fifth on lap seven. Brown also gained momentum and got by Sweet for third on lap eight.

Pittman had built almost a one second lead on Larson with nine laps down. Unfortunately, the lapped car of David Gravel drastically slowed in front of him in turn two, and the leader couldn't avoid him. Both cars went to the work area to make repairs, while Larson assumed the lead.

The restart saw Kerry Madsen surge from tenth to fifth, but that was negated when Price-Miller came to a stop in turn four. Larson chose the inside line when the green fell again, but Brown was all over him. Brown would slide in front of Larson in turns one and two on the eleventh lap to take the lead.

Larson had lost some momentum, and lost second to Sweet for a lap before regaining his composure the following circuit and retaking the runner-up spot. Soon it was Brown who felt the heat from Larson, and Kyle took the point for good on lap 14.

Great racing continued behind the leaders throughout. Sweet was able to gain second from Brown at the halfway point, and Logan Schuchart and Sheldon Haudenschild had a heat battle as they entered the top five.

Larson won by nearly three seconds over his brother-in-law Sweet, who was followed by Schuchart, who took third with two to go, Macedo and Haudenschild. Brown, Kerry Madsen, Rico Abreu, Ian Madsen and Sammy Swindell rounded out the top ten. Macedo and Price-Miller set quick time over their respective groups, while Abreu, Jacob Allen, Price-Miller and Larson won heat races. Mark Dobmeier won the Non-qualifier heat, Brent Marks claimed the C main and Gravel took the B.

A number of incidents slowed the second heat race. In the first, AJ Moeller and Mason Daniel were victims of cars in front of them getting together. Both were o.k., but done for the night. Later, Shane Stewart flipped in turn four after contact with McKenna Haase, who was involved in an accident that collected Matt Juhl. After the checkers flew for the C, Tasker Phillips tipped over in an incident that also saw Jason Sides involved.

“I took a glance on the big screen and saw (Brown) was right on me,” said Larson in Victory Lane. “I knew he was going to run the top in three and four, and I thought if I was good there he may not be able to slide me, but I didn't get through there like I needed to. He got the run and got by me. I knew my car was really good, so I stayed patient behind him. Then Brad got to my inside. Thankfully, I cleared him off of two. Otherwise, that could have been the deciding factor of the race. I was able to hit the bottom and get back to Brown and slide him. From then on, my car just felt really, really good."

"He did a really good job," said Sweet of Larson. "He was driving really hard. He's a great racecar driver. He runs the car on the ragged edge and gets by lapped cars. We've just got to pick up our game a little coming back for the Nationals, but we had a good racecar tonight compared to last night. We have great notes moving forward. I'm proud of our effort."

"This place is so cool," said Schuchart. "It seems like every time you come here, it's something different. I believe the Nationals last year, I was running the bottom of turns one and two and the top of three and four. This race, it was the complete opposite. You never know what you're going to get. They do such a great job at the racetrack. It's wide, but the lines can change. You just have to stay on top of it. It's a tough deal, but it's a lot of fun."

Aaron Reutzel is a First-time Winner at Knoxville Raceway!
 Jamie Ball Wins His Sixth in the 360 Class; Two Years Off No Problem for Devin Kline in Pro Sprints
 by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (June 20, 2020) – Two-time and defending All Star Circuit of Champions titlist Aaron Reutzel picked up his first career win on Hy-Vee Night at the Knoxville Raceway Saturday in dominating fashion. The native of Texas who now calls Knoxville his home, used a week off from the All Star schedule to hone his skills on the famous half-mile and it paid off to the tune of $4,000 aboard the Boughman/Reutzel Motorsports #87. Jamie Ball sealed his sixth career win in the 360 class, while Devin Kline returned after a two-year absence to win in the Pace Performance Pro Sprints.

Sawyer Phillips took off from his pole position starting spot to pace the 20-lap 410 feature early ahead of Austin McCarl, and Reutzel, who started sixth. Phillips was in lapped traffic by the fifth circuit, and a minor hesitation in turns three and four cost the lead.

Reutzel shot by both McCarl and Phillips to lead lap five. In turns one and two, McCarl made contact with Phillips while trying to avoid a lapper. The result was moves by McCarl and Brian Brown into second and third, respectively.

While Reutzel had no peer in traffic, Brown stalked McCarl until the twelfth lap, when he found his way by for second in heavy lapped traffic. At that point, Reutzel had built a six second lead on his nearest competitors.

Reutzel cruised home in the non-stop affair, followed by Brown, McCarl, Phillips and Matt Juhl. Josh Schneiderman, Terry McCarl, Davey Heskin, Justin Henderson and Trey Starks rounded out the top ten. Brown set quick time and won his heat. Juhl and Starks were other heat winners.

“We’ve just never put a whole race together here,” said a happy Reutzel in Victory Lane. “Luckily, our schedule worked out where we could come out and test. We tried a few things in qualifying and the heat race. We definitely wanted to try and win it. It was a little bit of a handful, but they said we were plenty gone. Maybe that’s what it takes to get around this place is to have a handful. Hats off to my guys. We were glad to have a weekend off to be here.”

Carson McCarl, who won the 360 opener here two weeks ago, led early in the 18-lap 360 feature. Jamie Ball took second from Joe Beaver on lap two before a caution came out for Stu Snyder three laps in. McCarl led Ball, Beaver, Matt Moro and Clint Garner back to green.

A pair of South Dakotans, Garner and Matt Juhl, moved into fourth and fifth on the restart, and put on a battle of their own. Juhl slid on the low side of Garner entering turn three on lap five and took the third spot before Tom Lenz stopped on the high side of turn two to bring out a second caution.

McCarl took off on the cushion, but Ball’s car was working well on the low side of the racy surface. He shot to the lead when the green fell again, as Juhl picked off tired, getting by Beaver. Lap seven saw Juhl use the low side himself to get by McCarl for second and set his sights on Ball.

Juhl, who won at the Jackson Motorplex in Minnesota Friday night, tried to run down the leader, who entered lapped traffic on the thirteenth circuit. The chase was to no avail.

Ball did have some unneeded excitement in the late going. Coming out of turn four for the checkers, the red flag would fly instead. Sixth running Kelby Watt got sideways, collecting Matt Moro. The two took a nasty ride in turn two that saw necessary fence repair. Fortunately, both walked away.

The green, white, checker finish didn’t phase Ball, who pulled away for his sixth 360 win here. Juhl was second, ahead of Garner, McCarl and Beaver. Brooke Tatnell, Calvin Landis, Lee Grosz, hard-charger Cody Ledger and Kaleb Johnson completed the top ten. Landis set quick time, and Garret Williamson, Tatnell, Ryan Leavitt and Tasker Phillips won heat races. Christian Bowman took the B main. Eric Mason and Chris Morgan were both flip victims in the heats, but both walked away.

“Our Charlie Fisher absolutely rip,” said Ball. “I’ve never felt this good at Knoxville. I could go anywhere. Matt Juhl has been on a roll lately, and he’s a really good racecar driver. I knew I had to get off of turn two, and if I got off of two, I had a decent enough line in three and four to hold him off. My hat goes off to these guys. I’m just the lucky one who gets to drive it. I give it all up to God. I’m lucky for all the opportunities I have. This year I said we’re getting back to fun. That was fun.”

Two years off for former track champion, Devin Kline, was no problem with the Pace Performance Pro Sprints. Kline, who was the career leader in feature wins in the class until being passed last season by Matthew Stelzer, led from start to finish in the 15-lap main event aboard Rookie Matt Allen’s #17.

Ironically, Kline and Stelzer started side by side in row one. While Kline led Stelzer the distance and recorded his twelfth career feature win in the class (tying Stelzer atop the list), Russ Hall, who won the season opener, was working his way from his fifth starting spot up to third. Mike Mayberry was fourth, and Evan Epperson finished fifth. Chase Young, Matthew Johnson, Devin Wignall, Chris Walraven and Jeff Wilke rounded out the top ten. Mayberry and Johnson were heat winners. Mike Johnston got upside down in his heat race. He was o.k., but done for the night.

“I’m tired,” said Kline in Victory Lane. “It’s just like riding a bike. I have to thank Matt Allen. He’s going to run the car the rest of the year, but he let me hop in for a night. I really appreciate that. The guys at White Lightning Motorsports help Matt, so it was the same old car I was used to. I lost my brakes there on the end, and that was a little tricky for me. I got up on some lapped traffic, but we pulled through.”

Knoxville Raceway takes the weekend of June 27 off, but join us for a big doubleheader on Fourth of July weekend! Vermeer Night leads things off on Friday July 3, while the Fourth of July will see Town Crier Night that will also be Knoxville Raceway Hall of Fame Night! Brian Brown Sweeps Both 410 and 360 Classes at Knoxville!
Chase Young is Victorious for First Time in Pro Sprints
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (July 3, 2020) – For the third time in his career, Brian Brown swept both the 360 and 410 classes at Knoxville Raceway Friday on Vermeer/“Salute the Troops” Night. The Grain Valley, Missouri driver earned $4,000 for his 410 win, and $2,000 for his 360 triumph. Another 360 win Saturday night would give Brown a $2,000 bonus. It was the 51st 410 win in his career here, and the 17th in a 360. Chase Young won his first career feature at the famous half-mile in the Pro Sprints presented by Pace Performance.

An invert of “zero” gave Brown the pole for the 20-lap 410 main event. He darted out to an early lead over Terry McCarl and Lynton Jeffrey. Jeffrey tracked McCarl down, and passed him on lap four.

Brown entered lapped traffic on the seventh circuit before fourth running Austin McCarl got over the turn one cushion and packed his right rear with mud, bringing the yellow flag. Despite efforts in the work area, the 2018 Knoxville track champ was not able to continue.

Matt Juhl passed Terry McCarl for third on the restart. Brown entered lapped traffic on lap 14 with Jeffrey in tow. Jeffrey reeled in the leader using a middle groove that was developing from clay being thrown from the low side of the track.

On lap 16, Jeffrey showed his nose to Brown coming down the back stretch. Brown came down the track to block the maneuver, before Ryan Giles had something break on his #9w and flipped on the front stretch. With four to go.

Brown would pull away on the restart, with plenty of action behind him. Heskin took second from Jeffrey, but Terry McCarl was also on the move, taking third from Jeffrey at the white flag. At the checkers, Brown led McCarl, who made a last lap pass for second, Heskin, Jeffrey and Juhl. Kasey Kahne, Tasker Phillips, hard-charger Josh Schneiderman, Justin Henderson and Trey Starks rounded out the top ten.

Brown set quick time over the 29-car field, while Juhl, Roger Crockett and Hunter Schuerenberg won the heats. Joe Simbro drove from sixth to claim the B main.

“First I want to thank all the activity and military that has served,” said Brown in Victory Lane. “I was going to stay up top in three and four, and all of a sudden, there was Lynton. When I moved to the bottom, my car was pretty good. I’m just the type that would rather run (the top) than (the bottom). Running the bottom as much as we did tonight is good for my confidence and my rhythm. I didn’t know what to do on the restart. I heard Lynton hounding me the whole time. I knew I had to get going.”

The 20-lap 360 feature went similarly. Brown started on the pole, and led Jamie Ball and Ricky Montgomery early on. Clint Garner moved into the top three on lap three, followed by Carson McCarl.

While Brown ran the cushion, Ball closed in on the low side. On lap six, Brown saw Ball and changed to the low side entering three. A good run came to a halt for Montgomery, when he spun and tipped over eight laps in. He was uninjured. While Brown led Ball and Garner, Davey Heskin had moved from 22nd to ninth.

Kaleb Johnson also had a career best run, and moved up to fourth on the restart, while Garner challenged Ball for second. The leaders were back in traffic on lap 14, and Brown pulled away for his 17th career win here, and gave himself a chance at a $2,000 bonus if he can win again Saturday. Ball was second, ahead of Garner, McCarl and Johnson. Heskin, Scott Bogucki, Dylan Westbrook, Matt Covington and Matt Moro completed the top ten.

Joe Beaver set quick time over the 41-car field, and Covington, Westbrook, Bogucki and Jack Dover won heats. Rob Kubli claimed the B main. John Anderson tipped over in his heat race. He was not seriously injured.

“I want to apologize to Jamie,” said Brown of his brush with Ball. “I don’t want to race like that. I knew I was going to run a few laps (on the high side) and see where I was. The next thing you know, he was there. He’s been on a tear, and really turned his season around. If this is not the toughest 360 group in the country, I don’t know what is. I’m proud to see them race every single week.”

Chase Young led from the outset in the 15-lap Pro Sprints presented by Pace Performance feature, ahead of Devin Wignall and Evan Epperson. Young stuck to the low groove, while Epperson grabbed second from Wignall. By lap four, Jeff Wilke had entered the top five after starting tenth.

Six laps in, Jaslyn Jones spun in turn one to bring the caution. Wignall reclaimed second from Epperson with a move high in one and two on the restart. With four laps to go, Tyler Barrick got upside down after losing a wheel in turn one to bring the final stoppage. He was not hurt.

Young held off a challenge from Wignall and then drove away to win his first career feature here. Wignall settled for second, ahead of Russ Hall, Matthew Stelzer and Epperson. Wilke, Mike Mayberry, Matthew Johnson, Chris Walraven and Mike Johnston completed the top ten. Mayberry and Wignall won heat races.

“I didn’t think this was ever going to come,” said Young in Victory Lane, who vowed to shave his shaggy beard after a win. “We’ve been working our tail off. I tell you what, we had lots of troubles the second half of last year. We needed this right here for sure. I’ll be baby-faced tomorrow. My family is in the crowd every night! We needed this! I’m just happy to be here.”

Join us at the Knoxville Raceway on Saturday for Town Crier Night! It is also Knoxville Raceway Hall of Fame Night! All three sprint car divisions will again be in action. For more information, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com or check out Knoxville Raceway’s Facebook and Twitter.

Fireworks Finale Goes to Justin Henderson at Knoxville Saturday!
Scott Bogucki Nabs First Career 360 Win with Last Lap Pass; Russ Hall Wins in Pro Sprints
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (July 4, 2020) – It was the Fourth of July and Town Crier Night at Knoxville Raceway, and the racing definitely brought the fireworks here Saturday night! Justin Henderson held off Brian Brown at the line to win his eleventh career 410 feature here, and first since Season Championship Night in 2015 aboard the Sandvig Motorsports #7. Aussie Scott Bogucki lost a lead late in the 360 main event, but made a last lap pass to reclaim it. Russ Hall won for the second time this year, and for the fourth time in his career in the Pro Sprints presented by Pace Performance.

Henderson led Kasey Kahne and Austin McCarl from the pole early in the 20-lap 410 feature. Brian Brown entered the top five on the second lap and two laps later got by Trey Starks for fourth.

Henderson entered lapped traffic on lap seven. McCarl worked by Kahne on lap eight, and Brown followed him into third in heavy lapped traffic at the halfway point. As Henderson worked through traffic, Brown was bottled up in traffic and Kahne got back by him into the third spot.

With four laps to go, Starks was running sixth, when he got upside down in turn two. At the time, McCarl was seriously pressuring Henderson for the lead in traffic in three and four. The stoppage gave Henderson a bit of a reprieve, as he led McCarl, Kahne, Brown and Lynton Jeffrey back to green.

Henderson maintained his lead, while Brown went to work on Kahne for third, passing him with two to go. McCarl was putting pressure on the leader again and slid in front of Henderson in one and two. Henderson was able to duck back under his challenger and maintain the lead.

Brown had something left as well. He grabbed second from McCarl in one and two on the last lap, and was gaining on Henderson entering three and four. As Henderson cruised on the high side, Brown hit the low side of four. A drag race ensued, with Henderson just edging Brown by sixty-six thousandths of a second for his eleventh career 410 win here and a $4,000 payday.

Brown was second, ahead of Austin McCarl, Kahne and Terry McCarl. Matt Juhl, Jeffrey, Davey Heskin, Josh Schneiderman and hard-charger Tasker Phillips rounded out the top ten. Brown set quick time, while Roger Crockett, Sawyer Phillips and Chris Martin were heat race winners. McKenna Haase won the B main.

“We had a heck of a competitor there champing at the bit,” said Henderson in Victory Lane. “It was a little hairy after the restart. The wing would come back on the straightaway, and come back ahead. I’m so excited! It’s been so long since I’ve been here. I can’t explain how happy I am. I’m sure they were all over me with the way the wing was handling. It was a pivotal moment to have that red. It really helped us win.”

Joe Beaver was the early leader in the 20-lap 360 feature. Scott Bogucki and Harli White trailed him early. Brian Brown was vying for a $2,000 bonus for sweeping the class for the weekend, but that fell by the wayside on lap three when he exited with apparent rear-end problems on his car.

Beaver led Bogucki, White, Jamie Ball and Josh Higday back to green. Bogucki reeled Beaver in, and slid in front of him to lead lap five. A Clint Garner spin added to a frustrating night for the former track champ, and brought the caution flag. On lap seven, Washington state visitor JJ Hickle brought a red flag with a flip in turn two. He walked away.

Bogucki led Beaver, White, Ball and Kaleb Johnson back to the green flag. Ball quickly took third, and then got by Beaver on lap eight. White followed him into third as Beaver had gotten over the turn two cushion and into the wall, losing ground.

On lap 16, Ball really gained on the leader in traffic, and with two laps to go, took the point in heavy lapped traffic. Ball led coming for the white flag, but Bogucki was battling back and got the lead back heading into turn one. He held on for the $2,000 score, his first here at Knoxville.

Bogucki's won over Ball, White, Jack Dover and Davey Heskin. Johnson, Higday, Matt Covington, Carson McCarl and Kelby Watt completed the top ten. Brown set quick time over the 38-car field, and Dover, Calvin Landis, Beaver and McCarl were heat winners. Chris Morgan claimed the B main.

"I made a dumb mistake in the heat race and ran into the fence," said Bogucki in Victory Lane. "The boys had to change everything from the motor plate back. I almost pulled the pin, until they said I was starting on the pole. It was a good race. I led one of these before with two to go and got overtaken, and it happened again. I decided that wasn't going to happen this time. I was looking at the middle there, and I know when it throws dirt at it, you can get a good run. It's one of those things when you're leading, you're a sitting duck. It's one of those things I didn't want to have to attempt until I had to. It was great."

Russ Hall led the distance in the 15-lap Pro Sprints presented by Pace Performance feature. The only stoppage came when Tyler Barrick upset his car in turn one, one lap into the event. Unfortunately, it was the second night in a row for Barrick, who walked away from the incident.

Evan Epperson chased Hall the distance, while Jeff Wilke moved up to finish third after starting sixth. Mike Mayberry was fourth and Brandon Worthington was fifth. Hard-charger Matthew Stelzer, Joel Thorpe, Matt Johnson, Chris Walraven and Mike Johnston rounded out the top ten. Johnston and Thorpe won the heat races.

"I have to thank everyone on this team," said Hall in Victory Lane. "I just want to thank everyone for coming out. This feels great."

Next Friday and Saturday, July 10 and 11 will be the Second Annual Brandt Professional Agriculture Corn Belt Nationals featuring the Amsoil USAC National Sprint Cars and POWri/WAR non-wing sprints. The 360 sprint class will be in action Friday, and the 410's will take to the track Saturday. Tyler Courtney Victorious on Night #1 of the Corn Belt Nationals!
Austin McCarl Wins His First Ever 360 Feature
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (July 10, 2020) – “Sunshine” Tyler Courtney grabbed an early lead and went on to win his second career feature at the Knoxville Raceway on Friday night’s Brandt Professional Agriculture Corn Belt Nationals opener. The Indianapolis native nabbed $5,000 for his victory aboard the Clauson-Marshall-Newman #7BC. He also emerged as the top point getter (points below) heading into Saturday’s finale, that will include another full program. Austin McCarl was dominant in winning his first ever 360 feature in support action.

POWRi/WAR regulars Wyatt Burks and Riley Kreisel started on the front row of the 25-lap main event. Courtney, who started third, shot around the front row to lead lap one and began pulling away ahead of Burks and Kreisel.

Kreisel worked his way to second and the lead pair left the rest behind in the early stages before Dennis Gile, who had climbed from 24th to 15th, slowed and brought a caution out on lap seven. Defending Corn Belt

Nationals champion, Brady Bacon, shot into third, and USAC National Sprint Car point leader, Justin Grant moved into the top five.

On lap nine, Bacon disposed of Kreisel for the runner-up spot, as Grant moved into fourth. Grant would nab third from Kreisel on lap 13, and the leaders entered lapped traffic three circuits later.

A final caution flew for Don Droud Jr. with four to go. Though Bacon closed on Courtney, he couldn't make a pass for the point. Courtney would lead Bacon, Grant, Chris Windom and CJ Leary to the finish line. Ryan Bernal, Carson Short, Jake Swanson, hard-charger Logan Seavey and Wesley Smith rounded out the top ten.

Leary and Short set quick time over their respective groups, and Dustin Clark, Windom, Kreisel and Courtney were heat winners. Dave Darland, who was a flip victim in hot laps, won the C main, and Chase Stockon claimed the B. Doug Sylvester and Jon Hughes flipped in the C main. No one was injured.

"Tim (Clauson) and the guys really gave me a great racecar tonight," said Courtney in Victory Lane. "I love Knoxville Raceway, in a wing car or a non-wing car. If we could run a midget or Silver Crown car here, it would be sweet. When you think about the drivers who have put their name on the list here, is really cool. We came up a little bit short last year, and we put ourself in a good spot for tomorrow. Hopefully, we can get through qualifying and the qualifier tomorrow and put ourselves in the first couple rows for the feature. This place has a big place in our hearts at Clauson-Marshall Racing. It's been a tough couple months with the midget and the wing car, but to get a win here our second night out in a non-wing car is good for all of us."

"We needed a little more racetrack," said Bacon. "I felt we were the same speed on that one long run once I got to second. I just had to work so hard to get there. The bottom just wasn't there for us. Sometimes, even the middle will be there, and it just wasn't there. That happens sometimes. Tyler didn't make any mistakes. It was a good run. We'll keep going and try to win it tomorrow. Thanks to Knoxville for having this event with everything going on."

"This car has been awesome all year," said Grant. "We're on the podium again. It was really good. Early on, we were o.k., and we had a section in the middle where we were really good. At the end, we just got tight at the curb and couldn't attack like we needed to. I tried firing a couple things at Brady, but we just didn't have what we needed to make it stick. Tyler did a great job. This place is fast. It was another good night, and it should be good points for tomorrow."

Austin McCarl used a similar plan to Courtney's as he grabbed a lap one lead from the third starting spot ahead of Joe Beaver and his brother, Carson McCarl in the 18-lap 360 feature. Terry McCarl entered the top four on lap two, and was joined by a fifth running Trey Starks.

While Austin opened up a sizable lead, a blanket could be thrown over the battle for positions two through five. Carson McCarl would get by Beaver for second with a slider in heavy lapped traffic on the tenth circuit.

Austin opened up a half lap lead before a late caution for a slowing Kaleb Johnson, who was running ninth. Austin was never challenged in his first career 360 win here ahead of Carson, Beaver, Terry McCarl and Starks. Jamie Ball, Clint Garner, hard-charger Matt Juhl, Sawyer Phillips and Kelby Watt completed the top ten. Terry McCarl set quick time over the 37-car field, while Garner, Skylar Prochaska, Davey Heskin and Juhl won heat races. Calvin Landis won the B main.

"I think I looked up at the scoreboard going down the backstretch and saw four to go," said Austin of his big lead. "I was lapping some good guys and felt really good about my pace and my car. I was setting the car up like a 410 in qualifying and the heat, and I learned a lot. I'd like to thank Don Long. Without him, I wouldn't have been able to compete tonight. It was a good test and tune. It was good to be able to run tonight without having to do double duty."

Tomorrow night the Second Annual Brandt Professional Agriculture Corn Belt Nationals will crown a $20,000 champion! The 410 sprint cars will also be in action! For more information, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com or check out Knoxville Raceway's Facebook and Twitter.

Brady Bacon Harvests His Second Corn Belt Nationals Championship at Knoxville!
Brian Brown Holds Off Kerry Madsen for Another Win in the 410 Class
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (July 11, 2020) – Knoxville Raceway fans rode out a lengthy rain delay and though the feature ended after 3 a.m., they were treated to another great night of racing. Brady Bacon took home $20,000 in his second consecutive Corn Belt Nationals championship aboard the Hoffman Racing #69. The Broken Arrow, Oklahoma native led wire to wire.

Bacon's road to victory began from the pole. He bested fellow front row starter Justin Grant on lap one. By the second circuit, Chris Windom trailed the pair in third. While Bacon took off a bit, the battles behind him were constant. Carson Short and Friday's winner, Tyler Courtney, traded fifth, and Leary pressured Windom for the third spot.

Bacon entered lapped traffic on the eleventh circuit. That allowed Grant to close the gap, but Bacon was savvy in traffic and found his way to clean air each time. Grant came closest with about 12 laps to go, but his chase ended short.

Bacon's win came ahead of Grant, Leary, who grabbed third with four to go, Windom and Courtney. Ryan Bernal, Short, hard-charger Robert Ballou, Chris Windom and Jake Swanson rounded out the top ten. With hot laps commencing around 11 p.m., qualifying was scrapped and Qualifiers were won by Dustin Clark, Matt Westfall, Ballou and Kevin Thomas Jr. Braydon Cromwell won the C, and Ballou took the B main. Ballou set two records on the night. His ten-lap record bested Richard Griffin's mark from 1991, and his 16-lap win in the B broke Eddie Leavitt's mark from 1978. Brian VanMeveren and Mitch Wissmiller were flip victims, but both walked away.

"My guys worked hard, and we got to start on the pole, thanks to our work the night before," said Bacon in Victory Lane. "I really appreciate coming out here and racing for big money with non-wing sprint cars. Thanks to the fans and the track for sticking it out. The Knoxville crew worked really hard. I took it a little easy the first few laps, but I saw (Grant's) nose on the screen. I said I better pick it up a bit and get a gap heading into lapped traffic. I knew that was going to be tricky. Thankfully, we were able to make some moves in lapped traffic and keep the gap safe."

"I think we had a couple shots there," said Grant. "I just couldn't get it pulled off. I had one real good run at him, and I got into the backstretch wall. It was really tricky off of two. It was 30 qualifying laps out there. You were on the wood as hard as you could. I was driving as hard as I could trying to get to him. Brady was able to get through traffic there a little better than I was later on. That was all it took. They did a great job."

"The racetrack was really fast," said Leary. "It was on the hammer. The top three or four guys were about the same speed. I reeled in Chris (Windom) there and had a run on him. I kind of ran through the middle, and actually felt pretty good. Hats off to Brady and Justin. It was a good weekend. It was a good night to be a sprint car driver."

Brian Brown took off early in the 20-lap 410 main event ahead of pole-sitter AJ Moeller and Kerry Madsen. He entered traffic on lap seven, before Sawyer Phillips backed his car into the turn one wall.

Brown led Moeller, Madsen, Kasey Kahne and Austin McCarl back to green flag racing. Madsen would quickly garner second, and Kahne would take third from Moeller at the halfway point. Brooke Tatnell came to a stop ten laps in, setting up another restart, but Brown was up to task in holding off Madsen.

McKenna Haase made heavy contact with the turn two wall. She walked away with aid from safety personnel. Brown pulled away the last five laps to win over Madsen, Kahne, Austin McCarl and Moeller. Lynton Jeffrey, Trey Starks, Matt Juhl, Justin Henderson and Josh Schneiderman completed the top ten. Madsen set quick time over the 31-car field, and Starks, Sawyer Phillips and Tasker Phillips were heat winners. Ryan Bunton won the B. Cody Ledger took a ride in his heat race. He was o.k., but done for the night.

"Kerry is one of the best race drivers in the world, so I wouldn't expect anything less," said Brown in Victory Lane of his challenges from Madsen. "He was going to be good, Kasey was going to be good, Austin's been good all year. There's a group of about ten guys that can win on any given night. My hat's off to not only the fans that stuck around, but the Dunkin's and the track for doing what they did. It was a great track."

Saturday, July 18, will be Van Wall Equipment Night. All three sprint car divisions will be in action, with the 360 class hosting the Nebraska 360 Sprints and the Midwest Power Series for a $3,000 to win main event. Rico Abreu Electrifies Knoxville Crowd and Takes the Beef with Last Lap Heroics!
Justin Henderson Cashes in $9,000 Weekend with 360 Win; Devin Kline Regains All-time Leading Win Mark with Pro Sprints Victory
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (July 18, 2020) – Rico Abreu thrilled the Knoxville Raceway crowd with a move from third to first on the final lap to grab the $4,000 win in the 410 class Saturday night. The win aboard the Rico Abreu Racing on Marion County Fair/Van Wall Equipment Night also earned the St. Helena, California native a half a beef. Justin Henderson, who won at Jackson Motorplex in Minnesota on Friday night, earned $3,000 for his win in the 360 class, plus a $3,000 bonus for sweeping the weekend. The Tea, South Dakota driver cashed in $9,000 for his weekend exploits. Devin Kline used a mid-race pass in the Pro Sprints presented by Pace Performance to garner his thirteenth career win in the class regaining the all-time lead in that category.

Things did not get off to a quick start in the 20-lap 410 main event. Trey Starks spun in turn two at the first try at green, collecting Ryan Giles, who tipped over. No one was injured, but both drivers were done.

Terry McCarl jetted from outside the front row to lead Lynton Jeffrey and Brian Brown early before Hunter Schuereberg slowed on the backstretch, bringing a caution two laps in. After the restart, Brown used the high side to get around Jeffrey for second, and Abreu followed him into third on lap six.

McCarl entered lapped traffic on lap seven, and set a good pace utilizing the high side of the track. His quandary came when traffic thickened on lap 13. Not only was Brown able to reel the leader in, but Abreu was making quality laps in third as well.

With three laps to go, Brown slid in front of the leader, but McCarl was able to drive back by. Brown set his sights again, and quickly took the point on the 18th lap.

Meanwhile, Abreu was rolling the bottom better than the lead pair. Coming for the white flag, he sat third, and it appeared another status quo win from Brown was in the offing. However, Rico stuck the bottom of one to pass McCarl into second, and pulled up on the rear bumper of Brown down the back stretch. He dove to the low side of turn three and in front of Brown to take the lead and came to the checkers for his second career win here.

Rico was followed to the finish by Brown, Terry McCarl, Austin McCarl and Matt Juhl. Jeffrey, Brooke Tatnell, Gio Scelzi, Dominic Scelzi and Davey Heskin rounded out the top ten. Abreu set quick time, while Gio Scelzi, Brown and Sawyer Phillips were heat race winners.

“My car was just so good on the bottom,” said Abreu after his traditional wing dance in Victory Lane. “I could hunt those guys as the race went on. They caught traffic, and their pace kind of came to me. I came here a couple of months ago and ran second to Brownie. Then we came to the Outlaw show and had our car a lot different. Getting to race through Pennsylvania and Ohio Speedweeks...we kind of fine-tuned our car to make it better for each race on the half-mile stuff. Throughout the race I was patient, kind of letting my car settle down.

Once I figured out the bottom I could really hunt those guys. My guys are hungry. I've got some big boys to feed!"

The 20-lap 360 feature saw pole-sitter and ASCS National point leader, Sam Hafertepe Jr. lead early over Carson McCarl and Justin Henderson. Henderson used the cushion to pass McCarl for second early on, while Brian Brown worked the low side to pass Clint Garner for fourth on lap five.

Hafertepe entered lapped traffic, and Henderson was able to reel him in. He used a low side pass in lapped traffic to lead the ninth circuit. McCarl found some late speed on the bottom as well, but could not run down the lead pair.

The win was Henderson's ninth here at Knoxville in the 360 class, and came ahead of Hafertepe, McCarl, Brown and Garner. Brooke Tatnell, Scott Bogucki, Jack Dover, Jamie Ball and Matt Moro completed the top ten. McCarl and Bogucki set quick time over their respective groups in the 46-car field. Rob Kubli, Kelby Watt, Harli White and Seth Brahmer won heats, while Ricky Montgomery won the C main, and Kaleb Johnson took the B.

Greg Parent of GRP posted the $3,000 bonus that Henderson took advantage of by sweeping $3,000 wins at Jackson and Knoxville. Henderson also cashed in a half hog from the Marion County Fair Board.

"We were definitely paying close attention in that race to see what we'd need in the 410," said Henderson. "The track is a little bit technical, but you can race all over it, and it's a lot of fun. That car was on rails, and that motor we just bought from Wayne Johnson...thank you Wayne Johnson! Thank you Greg Parent! We couldn't do it without you."

Veteran Chris Walraven shot out early in the 15-lap Pro Sprints feature ahead of Devin Kline and Mike Mayberry. Walraven reeled in lapped traffic, and Kline closed. When Walraven was trapped behind a lapper, Kline used the low side to jet by on lap nine.

One caution slowed the event, when Chase Young spun with three laps to go. Kline led Walraven, Devin Wignall, Mayberry and Brandon Worthington back to green. While Kline pulled away, the action was hot and heavy behind him. Wignall used the cushion to drive around Walraven for second, and for a half lap, it was a three-way battle for the position, as Worthington entered the fray.

Worthington shot by Walraven for third on lap 14 and grabbed second from Wignall on the final lap. Walraven settled for fourth, ahead of Mayberry. Matthew Stelzer, Evan Epperson, Matt Allen, Matt Johnston and Joel Thorpe rounded out the top ten. Kline and Worthington were the heat race winners.

Kline's win, aboard the Allen Racing #17c, was his thirteenth in the class, and moved him into first place alone in that category, breaking a tie with Stelzer.

"(Walraven) set a good pace early on," said Kline in Victory Lane. "My goal was just to hang with him and then get to lapped traffic. He made a mistake, and I was able to capitalize. We drove away from there. This never gets old!"

Saturday, July 25, is Jersey Freeze/Dennison Racing Tees Night. It is also "Christmas in July!" Santa Claus will be on hand to give gifts to the first 200 kids under the age of 12. Other activities will include Christmas trees, a contest for fan Christmas attire, and Christmas music. All three sprint car divisions will be in action! Aaron Reutzel Dominates at Knoxville!

Carson McCarl Wins Eventful 360 Feature; Chris Walraven On Top in Pro Sprints

by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (July 25, 2020) – Aaron Reutzel claimed his second feature of the year at Knoxville Raceway Saturday on Jersey Freeze/Dennison Racing Tees Christmas in July Night. The Clute, Texas native dominated most of the way in the feature, nabbing the $4,000 paycheck aboard the Baughman/Reutzel Motorsports #87. Carson McCarl claimed his fourth career 360 feature, and also took the point lead in that class. Chris Walraven's win with the Pro Sprints presented by Pace Performance was also the fourth in his career in that class.

Ian Madsen took Guy Forbrook's #5 into the early lead in the 20-lap 410 feature with Austin McCarl and Reutzel in tow. McCarl was fast on the cushion, and circled the leader to take the point on lap two. Lynton Jeffrey stopped with ignition issues three laps in, bringing caution.

The restart was a crazy three-wide battle for the lead in turn two. When things washed out, Reutzel led Madsen and McCarl on lap four. McCarl was able to wrestle second from Madsen, but the latter battled back to reclaim the spot a lap later. McCarl would again get by on lap seven, while Brian Brown took fourth from Gio Scelzi. Scelzi was also not done, retaking the spot on lap nine, while Rico Abreu trailed him into fifth at the halfway point.

Meanwhile, Reutzel was pulling away from those who were battling, entering lapped traffic on lap ten, and opening a 3.4 second lead by lap twelve. Scelzi came alive late, passing Madsen for third on lap 14, and rocketing by McCarl for second on the white flag lap.

Reutzel could not be stopped, however, winning by over three seconds, ahead of Scelzi, McCarl, Madsen and Abreu. Brown, Terry McCarl, Trey Starks, hard-charger Cory Eliason and Sam Hafertepe Jr. rounded out the top ten. Reutzel set quick time over the 31-car field, and Hafertepe, Tasker Phillips and Eliason won heat races. Sawyer Phillips won the B main.

“It was another great run for our team here at Knoxville,” said Reutzel in Victory Lane. “We strive on trying to be good here. We try to be good in qualifying, because that’s where it’s at at this place. We just keep coming here trying things, and we keep learning every time here. This place pays a lot of money to be good at, so we’re trying to be really good here. We’ve hit on something.”

With 45 360 sprints in the field, things would prove entertaining again in that class. Pole-sitter Joe Beaver led the 18-lap feature early, over Dylan Westbrook and Carson McCarl. McCarl used the low side to jet by Westbrook for second, and set his sights on the leader. He passed Beaver to lead lap three in the same fashion.

Behind McCarl, Beaver and Westbrook, Kerry Madsen got by Scott Bogucki for the fourth spot. Eight laps in, the first of several cautions came out for Lee Grosz, who suffered a flat left rear tire. On the restart, Madsen shot by Westbrook for third, while Bogucki did the same to take fourth. The caution flag flew again ten laps in.

This time it was Westbrook, who moved into third, while Brooke Tatnell cracked the top five. Aaron Reutzel came to a stop a lap later to bring another yellow. When Beaver got over the turn two cushion on the restart, Westbrook took second. With five laps to go, Ricky Montgomery spun. That negated a move by Madsen that saw him jump from fifth to third.

The restart went well for Tatnell, who gained third. Madsen took fourth, and with three to go, Dominic Scelzi was into the top five. The final yellow flag flew for Chase Randall with three to go. Contact from another car robbed Clint Garner of his top ten run at that point.

Madsen gained second, but McCarl was never phased on his way to victory. Madsen was second, and Westbrook crossed third. Unfortunately, the Canadian was disqualified for an illegal tire, moving Scelzi to third, followed by Tatnell and Bogucki. Jamie Ball, Calvin Landis, Lynton Jeffrey, Josh Higday and Matt Moro completed the top ten. McCarl and Tatnell set quick time in their respective groups, while Garner, Landis, Beaver and Moro were heat winners. Danny Sams III won the C main, and Kelby Watt claimed the B. Brad Comegys and Sams both got upside down at the start of the B, but both walked away.

“The first yellow came out, and we had just started to get to traffic,” said McCarl in Victory Lane. “I thought I wouldn’t have much traffic to deal with, and then it was yellow after yellow after yellow. But my car felt so good on the bottom, especially up in three. I could really honk it as much as I wanted to. I knew if I hit my marks in one and two, and didn’t let Beaver or one of those guys hit their marks I would be fine. There was a lot of tough cars tonight, with Reutzel and Madsen and Dominic here. To get the job done feels even more special tonight.”

Chris Walraven seemed to cruise to his fourth career win with the Pro Sprints. The week prior, he had led much of the way before being overtaken. It didn't happen this time. Brandon Worthington trailed him much of the way, but lapped traffic would play a factor.

Walraven entered lappers with seven to go, and Worthington followed. Devin Wignall took advantage, getting by Worthington and bringing Devin Kline with him. Walraven was unphased out front, beating Wignall, Kline, Evan Epperson and Worthington. Jeff Wilke, Matt Johnson, Matt Stelzer, Mike Johnston and Mike Mayberry completed the top ten. Wilke and Johnson were heat winners.

"After last week, we led about half the feature, and I was scared to death I'd make another mistake around a lapped car," said Walraven. "Thank goodness everything worked out alright this week."

Saturday, August 1, is Weiler Night featuring the All Star Circuit of Champions. The 360's will also be in action in their last tune-up for the MyPlace Hotels Knoxville 360 Nationals presented by Great Southern Bank August 6-8. Kyle Larson Makes All Star History at Knoxville! Lynton Jeffrey Preps for 360 Nationals with Win by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 1, 2020) – Kyle Larson won his seventh straight All Star Circuit of Champions feature, setting a record with the series. Saturday's victory came at the Knoxville Raceway, where the Elk Grove, California native swept the World of Outlaws weekend last June. Larson earned $5,000 for the win aboard the Paul Silva wrenched #57, and even lost a contact lens along the way. Lynton Jeffrey led wire to wire over a stout 47-car 360 field in preparations for the MyPlace Hotels Knoxville 360 Nationals presented by Great Southern Bank this Thursday through Saturday.

The 25-lap feature was slow to get started. On the first try, Kasey Kahne got above the turn two cushion and slowed near the wall. Aaron Reutzler did the same on the bottom of turn one. Both visited the work area and returned to action.

The second try at green was no better. AJ Moeller broke his front end after contact with another car in turn two and slid down in front of the field. Fortunately, he didn't turn over, or collect anyone.

Once green, it was for good, and Gio Scelzi took the early advantage ahead of Lynton Jeffrey and Larson. Brian Brown passed Kerry Madsen for fourth on lap two. Larson sized up Jeffrey, and took third on the third circuit.

Rico Abreu, who started thirteenth, shot from seventh to fifth on lap five. Brown claimed third from Jeffrey on the same lap. Abreu followed him into fourth a lap later.

Up front, Larson was gaining on Scelzi, and slid across turn four to take the point on lap eight. He was in lapped traffic a lap later, and by lap 12, had a straightaway lead. Brown and Scelzi see-sawed back and forth in a battle for second that saw three passes for that position until Brown claimed the spot with ten to go.

Abreu captured third from Scelzi and passed Brown in lapped traffic on lap 16. Larson's lead over the three-way battle for second was over seven seconds by lap 19. Scelzi and Brown would return to battle, this time for the third spot, in the late stages.

Larson won convincingly over Abreu, Scelzi, who gained third on the last lap, Brown and Shane Stewart. Kerry Madsen, Cory Eliason, Davey Heskin, Ian Madsen and Josh Schneiderman rounded out the top ten. Larson posted quick time over the 46-car field. Heskin, Brown, Schneiderman, Hunter Schuereberg and Moeller were heat winners. Scelzi and Jeffrey won the Dashes, Ayrton Gennetten won the C main, and Aaron Reutzel claimed the B main.

"It's really cool," said Larson of his record breaking seventh win in a row. It was his sixth career win at Knoxville. "I did read that earlier today, and it added pressure to tonight. Qualifying well is important in every format you run. It was a good solid night You could get that diamond going in one and two a lot. Even late, I could make time following the top all around. I lost a contact, so I couldn't see as well as I needed to, but my car was just good and I had some lines working for me. I could make runs off of two and then slide them in three and four. The contact made it difficult. I hope I have a spare set in my bathroom bag!"

The 18-lap 360 feature went non-stop, with Lynton Jeffrey leading early from the pole over Tim Shaffer and Kelby Watt. The fast track lent to multiple grooves, and saw several charges. Garner ran fourth, with Matt Juhl climbing into the top five by lap nine.

The leaders entered lapped traffic on the tenth circuit, and Shaffer pressured Jeffrey. Juhl used the low side to gain fourth from Garner with five to go.

Shaffer reeled in Jeffrey and slid in front of him on lap fifteen, but Jeffrey shot back by to the flag stand, and pulled away the rest of the way, winning in the Ridge & Sons Racing #83J. Jeffrey won his first ever 360 feature here over Shaffer, Juhl, who gained third over Watt with two to go, and Garner. Scott Bogucki, Ayrton Gennetten, Jamie Ball, Josh Higday and hard-charger Carson McCarl completed the top ten. Higday and Shaffer set quick time over their respective groups, while Ricky Montgomery, Christian Bowman, Dylan Westbrook and AJ Moeller won heats. Michael Faccinto claimed the C main, and Harli White took the B main.

"He gave me a good run," said Jeffrey of Shaffer. "I've got to thank Destiny Motorsports for this one. This is a car they didn't want. We were proud to have it. It's a winner. It's just good to win anything. I've won some decent races here, just not enough of them over the years. You just gotta be proud when you do it."

Austin McCarl Masters Night #1 of the Knoxville 360 Nationals!
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 6, 2020) – Austin McCarl is two for two in 360 features at Knoxville Raceway this season. Thursday's win was definitely his biggest, as it came on Night #1 of the MyPlace Hotels Knoxville 360 Nationals presented by Great Southern Bank. Kerry Madsen emerged as the high point driver, followed by Shane Golobic, Tim Shaffer and McCarl (full points at the bottom).

Calvin Landis led early from his pole position in the 20-lap main event, ahead of Dominic Scelzi, Austin McCarl, Tim Shaffer and Aaron Reutzel. McCarl found his way by Scelzi for second, and Reutzel cruised into fourth on lap five.

McCarl shot by Landis on lap six, but that move was negated when Ryan Leavitt slowed in turn two, bringing the only caution of the event. Landis led McCarl, Scelzi, Reutzel and Shaffer back to green, while Tim Kaeding had climbed from 23rd to 13th.

McCarl followed Landis for a lap before surging to the point on lap eight. Meanwhile, Kerry Madsen worked his way into the top five. At the halfway point, Scelzi and Reutzel moved into second and third. Madsen was quickly into the fourth spot, and Shane Golobic entered the top five on lap twelve.

A rosy point total was dashed for Reutzel when he slowed and went pitside on lap 13. Up front, McCarl entered lapped traffic by himself, while Madsen shot by Scelzi for the runner-up spot.

McCarl pulled away to the win by a straightaway ahead of Madsen, Scelzi, Golobic and Shaffer. Joe Beaver, Roger Crockett, hard-charger Cory Eliason, Landis and Tim Kaeding rounded out the top ten. Heat winners included Leavitt, Ricky Montgomery, Landis, Shaffer and Nate Mills. Cody Hansen won the C main and Eliason claimed the B. There was plenty of mumbling in turn two in the fifth heat, as Tasker Phillips and Lee Grosz tangled and crashed, ending both their nights. AJ Moeller's night ended in the turn three wall in heat two. Brady Bacon could not avoid a lapped car and crashed in the feature. No one was hurt.

"I just had to stay solid and keep doing what I was doing," said McCarl of his misfortune with the yellow flag negating his lap six pass for the lead. "Calvin was kind of moving around there. I just had to stay patient. He was setting a good pace. The bottom was really good and threw up a bunch of juice through the middle. When I got to those first lap cars, they were running the top. I didn't know what to do, so I blew it through the middle and it stuck. I didn't know how close those guys were behind him. Aaron and Kerry...those guys are World of Outlaws winners, and the best in the world. I guess in the end, I was lucky there wasn't a yellow."

"This deal is all about points," said Madsen. "It was pretty hectic back there. They did a good job with the racetrack tonight. It was fun. They gave me a great car, and we had to battle to get to second. By that time, Austin was long gone. It was a solid day for good points. I'm not a very experienced 360 driver so these guys gave me that good a car."

"It's a good thing to be upset with third," said Scelzi. "We've had a lot of speed over the last month. We've been knocking on the door of a win. I felt really good the first six or seven laps. I felt like we had something for first and second, then we faded a bit. We've got to some work, but all in all, we're really fast. We're in the show for Saturday, but we want to be on top of the podium, not the bottom."

Lynton Jeffrey Wires Field on Night #2 of the Knoxville 360 Nationals!
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 7, 2020) – Lynton Jeffrey led from start to finish to claim Night #2 of the 30th Annual MyPlace Hotels Knoxville 360 Nationals presented by Great Southern Bank Friday night at Knoxville Raceway. The win was worth $3,000 to the Sydney, New South Wales, Australia native now living in Prairie City, Iowa. As far as the lineups for Saturday night’s championship? They’re set. Kerry Madsen and Joey Saldana will take their place in the front row (see the unofficial lineups below).

Jeffrey started from the pole of the 20-lap main event. Scott Bogucki trailed in second, followed by Sawyer Phillips, Carson McCarl and Brian Brown. Brown took the fourth spot from McCarl on lap three. As soon as that happened, the top four separated themselves a bit from the field.

For much of the race's distance, a blanket could be thrown over those top four spots. Jeffrey stayed out front, but Bogucki was right there challenging much of the way. A big Bogucki bid for the lead came on lap nine and again on lap ten.

Blake Hahn's race came to an end on lap 12, when he emanated smoke and exited the track. Sawyer Phillips held third much of the way on the low side, while being pressed by Brown on the high side. On lap 14, Brown shot by, but Phillips came back and reclaimed the show position with five to go.

Lap 18 brought the only caution when Kelby Watt smacked the wall, flattening his right rear. Jeffrey sailed away the last two laps, but Phillips and Brown gained second and third from Bogucki on the restart. Brown would sneak by Phillips to take the runner-up spot.

Jeffrey's second win of the season and his career in the 360 class came ahead of Brown, Phillips, Bogucki and Joey Saldana. Carson McCarl, Dylan Westbrook, Brooke Tatnell, Brock Zearfoss and Trey Starks completed the top ten. Saldana set quick time over the 48-car field, while Davey Heskin, Bogucki, Starks, Christian Bowman and Chris Martin won heat races. Jordon Mallett won the C main, and Alex Hill took the B.

"I didn't really know," said Jeffrey of how close Bogucki was. "I was just concentrating out front. I guess he got a couple runs on me. I was just being a little cautious in lapped traffic. I think we had a little bit in the tank there, and I was just leaving it a little bit out there. At the end of the day, I just had to put my foot down and go."

"Sawyer did a good job," said Brown of his racelong battle with Phillips. "I've known him for a long time. These young guys are getting smarter and smarter. He's using the right lines and it's difficult to get by sometimes. He did a phenomenal job. Scott did a good job too; I just got a good run off of two. I feel like I let us down a little qualifying. It was a C-minus for the driver tonight."

"We had this car rolling," said Phillips. "It felt good to get some clean laps there. We didn't have anything for Lynton, but I think we could have stayed ahead of Brown if the right rear didn't go down under the caution. Hopefully, we'll be locked in for tomorrow."

Kerry Madsen Reigns as 360 Knoxville Nationals Champion! Devin Wignall Wins First Ever Pro Sprints Feature by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 8, 2020) – Kerry Madsen became the second straight resident of Australia to claim a My Place Hotels 360 Knoxville Nationals presented by Great Southern Bank championship. The St. Mary's, New South Wales native led all 25 laps to claim the $15,000 prize aboard Tod Quiring's #2. The 30th annual running of the event saw 96 competitors representing 23 states and two countries. Devin Wignall won his first ever feature at Knoxville, capturing the Pro Sprints presented by Pace Performance tilt.

Things got off to a rough start in the 25-lap main event for Matt Juhl, who flipped violently after contact with Calvin Landis in turn three. He was o.k.

Madsen shot out to the early lead over fellow front row starter, Joey Saldana, Shane Golobic, Tim Shaffer and Brian Brown. Golobic pulled a slider on Saldana for the second spot on lap three. A lap later, Lynton Jeffrey slowed with power steering issues and retired.

Madsen led Golobic, Saldana, Shaffer and Brown back to green. Brown shot from fifth to third quickly. Zearfoss was on the move as well, passing a pair of McCarl's, Carson and Austin to go from eighth to sixth. He took fifth from Shaffer on lap 11.

Madsen entered lapped traffic on lap 13. Zearfoss picked off Saldana for fourth on lap 14. Cory Eliason was also on a charge from row eight. He entered the top five on lap 16.

Brown reeled in Golobic and got by him for second on lap 19. Madsen's lead was over four seconds heading to the late stages. Bad luck would strike Brown on the last lap, as he went up in smoke and ducked into the infield.

In the end, Madsen had everyone ferhoodled! Golobic regained second 4.7 seconds behind Madsen. He was followed by the hard-charger Eliason, Zearfoss and Austin McCarl. Saldana, Shaffer, Aaron Reutzel, Dominic Scelzi and Carson McCarl rounded out the top ten.

Carson McCarl earned $1,000 from the Knoxville 360 Booster Club by being the highest finishing Knoxville 360 regular. Zearfoss earned $200 from Jetco as Rookie of the Year. Jeffrey earned $360 from DGRD for the best appearing car.

Lance Norick opened the night with a win in the E main, Jamie Ball took the D main, Harli White claimed the C main and Juhl snagged the B. Garret Williamson flipped hard after the conclusion of the C main. Kyle Offill flipped in turn one during the B. Both walked away.

"Cody Jacobs got me a fantastic racecar there," said Madsen in Victory Lane. "It was pretty smooth. I made a couple of minor mistakes, but it seemed like everywhere I went, it would respond. It was fun to drive. We've been knocking on the door so much this year...it was just great to give this to (the team). We had a different car for next week, but I might tell them to bring that one back. It was good."

"(Kerry) was awfully fast," said Golobic of his ride aboard the Elk Grove Ford #17wx. "He just got out and left us. I thought maybe on the restart, I may be able to shoot the bottom. I kind of hung with him for a lap, but once we got rolling, he was on another level. He's one of the best at this place, and has a lot of laps. For us to compete and have a good battle with Brian Brown before he blew up...I'm proud of this team. We've had some struggles at this place in the past, but we've tried to get back here as much as we could and it's begun to pay off. I just have a whole different comfort level and our car is really fast."

"We just needed a yellow or two," said Eliason of his drive in the Rudeen #26. "That would have gave us a chance to dice it up with the leaders. I could see Shane and Kerry out in front. It was kind of fortunate that we were able to get to the podium, but we learned something for next weekend. We definitely picked up the pace in the last two weeks."

The companion 15-lap Pro Sprints feature saw veteran Jeff Wilke lead early from his pole position ahead of Chris Walraven and Devin Kline. A spin by Scotty Johnson a lap in, set up a restart that saw a four-wide battle for the lead.

Wilke still emerged with the advantage, but Devin Wignall was streaking on the high side and took the point on lap three. Matthew Stelzer, who started twelfth saw the advantage of the cushion as well, and used it to jet from sixth to fourth on lap five.

Wignall entered lapped traffic, just before contact between Mike Mayberry and Evan Epperson sent the latter into a spin towards the infield. Mayberry also had a right rear tire to replace. Wignall shot out to the lead again, while Walraven worked the low side to gain second from Wilke with six to go. On lap 11, Kline battled back by Stelzer for fourth, and then claimed the third spot from Wilke with three to go.

Wignall began to lose his power plant with a few laps to go, but he never let off the gas and just held on for his first career win here. Walraven was second, ahead of Kline, Wilke and Stelzer. Matthew Johnson, Chase Young, Brandon Worthington, Joel Thorpe and Matt Allen completed the top ten. Wignall and Young were heat winners.

“That motor’s definitely done for sure,” said Wignall in Victory Lane. “I can’t thank my team enough for putting me in this position. I just never thought this moment would come. With about four to go, I pegged the temperature gauge, but I wasn’t going to let up any!”

The “One and Only” commences August 13-15. Saturday marks the $50,000 to win Capitani Classic. For tickets and other information, visit www.WorldofOutlaws.com. For more information on the Knoxville Raceway, visit www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com and follow on Facebook and Twitter.

Kyle Larson Wins His Fourth in a Row on Night #1 of the “One and Only!” by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 13, 2020) – Kyle Larson’s magical season continued Saturday night at Knoxville Raceway. The Elk Grove, California driver bagged another $10,000 by winning Night #1 of the “One and Only” featuring the NOS Energy Drink World of Outlaws. The win culminated a wild night of racing that saw drivers giving all they had to garner points towards Saturday night's $50,000 to win Brownell's Capitani Classic presented by Great Southern Bank. It was Kyle's fourth straight win this year at Knoxville.

Logan Schuchart led from his pole position early on ahead of Aaron Reutzel and Cory Eliason. David Gravel was fourth, and Brian Brown entered the top five on lap two. Gravel passed Eliason for third two laps later. The first caution flew when Terry McCarl billowed smoke on the fourth lap. After an inspection, he rejoined the field, keeping his spot.

On the restart, Daryn Pittman surged from eighth to third, only to spin in turn four. Another double-file restart saw disaster, as Eliason, took an abrupt left hard turn driving down the straightaway. That collected Donny Schatz, Brad Sweet and James McFadden. Only Schatz would continue, however he would pull in shortly after the green fell again.

With things shaken up, Brown used the cushion to ride into second, while Kyle Larson shot up to fifth. On the sixth lap, Larson shot from fifth to third, passing both Gravel and Reutzel. Schuchart entered lapped traffic on the 14th lap, while Larson pulled a slider to take second from Brown on lap 15. Reutzel followed him into third on lap 17.

On the 18th circuit, Larson clipped Schuchart's wings (literally) with a tight slide job in turn four that left the Pennsylvanian's nose wing askew. Reutzel and Brown were at loggerheads battling for the third spot with five to go. Meanwhile, Carson Macedo, who had started 24th, entered the top five with three to go, surging by both Gravel and Brown into the fourth position.

While Larson checked out into his own zip code, and Schuchart and Reutzel had the podium nailed down, Gravel and Macedo traded fourth the last two laps before Macedo secured it on the final circuit.

Larson would win by 4.8 seconds over Schuchart, Reutzel, Macedo and Gravel. Brown, Spencer Bayston, Gio Scelzi, Joey Saldana and Ian Madsen rounded out the top ten. Jacob Allen set quick time over the 67-car field, while Tyler Courtney, Kraig Kinser, Terry McCarl, Brooke Tatnell, Ian Madsen and Jason Sides won heat races. Anthony Macri won the D main, Sammy Swindell claimed the C main and Austin McCarl won the B. Schuchart was victorious in the Dash. Reutzel, Schuchart, Larson, Brown and Bayston were the high point getters (full points at the bottom).

Shane Golobic spun after contact, collecting Cale Thomas in the fourth heat. Both were o.k. Kerry Madsen flipped violently in turn two in the sixth heat. He returned for the B main with a backup car.

"I was nervous early," said Larson in Victory Lane. "I didn't get a good start. My car was laid left, and I couldn't get grip. I think as the fuel burned off, I got really good. I got the top going on the restart, and everybody was worked the middle and the bottom. I was able to get the runs I needed and pass them at the right time. I was trying to track Logan down, and hit the bottom of one and two and got a run on him. I felt like I needed to take advantage of that before we got to heavier traffic. I slid him and felt some contact. I was glad to see him not get into the wall or anything like that. It's cool to get another win."

"We were good," said Schuchart. "We were going pretty good up top. I kind of got tight as the race went on. I just felt I wasn't hitting my marks as well. It was just hard to roll the top. I was getting a little too upright there at the end of the race. I would have liked to have a little better of a race with Kyle. I wish the slide job was a little bit better. Maybe we'll get him next time. It's a good point night overall. We were good every time out. We'll see how tomorrow goes."

"I needed to try something different there," said Reutzel. "I thought I could go to the bottom and at least maintain. I just did a really bad job going down there and running the bottom. I was just too slow. I had a really good racecar tonight, I just didn't do a great job of driving. We'll work on that tomorrow, and try to learn from my mistakes. Our car was good at the end. I had a good car, I just didn't run a very good race. That was on me, and I'll try to clean up my mistakes tomorrow."

The "One and Only" continues Thursday, August 14. Saturday marks the $50,000 to win Brownell's Capitani Classic presented by Great Southern Bank. David Gravel Streaks to Victory on Night #2 of Knoxville's "One and Only!"

by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 14, 2020) – David Gravel held off Kyle Larson in another classic feature Friday night at the Knoxville Raceway. Gravel's win came on Night #2 of the "One and Only" featuring the NOS Energy Drink World of Outlaws. The Watertown, Connecticut driver bagged $10,000 for his eighth career win at Knoxville aboard the Jason Johnson Racing #41. Gravel and Larson, who won on Night #1 are joined by Aaron Reutzler and Logan Schuchart in locking themselves into the Dash for Saturday night's $50,000 to win Brownell's Capitani Classic presented by Great Southern Bank.

David Gravel shot out early from his starting spot on the pole to lead early in the 25-lap main event. Rico Abreu settled into second, followed by Kyle Larson, Brian Brown and Spencer Bayston.

Gravel entered lapped traffic on the seventh circuit, but Brown suffered a flat right rear, bringing a caution. On the double-file restart, Larson hopped the inside berm coming out of turn four and shot across the track, contacting Bayston. The result was fatal left front damage for Bayston, and minor damage to Larson's top wing.

Gravel shot out again when the green flag fell, while Abreu and Larson battled hard for the second spot. Brad Sweet, who started tenth, moved into fourth. Larson finally found his way by Abreu into second on lap nine, and Sweet followed him into third the next time around.

When Gravel entered lapped traffic again on lap 15, Larson slowly reeled him in the rest of the way. Though none but himself could be on his parallel Thursday night, Larson could not catch the speedy 2019 Knoxville Nationals champion.

Gravel would streak across the line two-tenths of a second ahead of Larson. Sweet held onto third, followed by Abreu and Shane Golobic. Sheldon Haudenschild, Cory Eliason, Shane Stewart, Logan Schuchart and Aaron Reutzler rounded out the top ten. Jacob Allen set quick time over the 63-car field for the second night in a row. Haudenschild, Colby Copeland, Sammy Swindell, Brooke Tatnell, Larson and Sawyer Phillips won heat races. Skylar Gee won the D main, Josh Schneiderman took the C main, and Schuchart claimed the B. Gravel was the Dash winner.

Gravel, Larson, Reutzler and Schuchart lock into Saturday night's Dash, while the rest will line heads up by points (below) in four Qualifiers. The winners of the 12-lap qualifiers will join the quartet in the Dash, and the top four finishers will transfer to the feature. Fifth through eighth place finishers head to the B, ninth through 12th go to the C, with everyone else heading to the D.

"Paul Silva and Kyle Larson are really good, but when Phillip Dietz and David Gravel are on, we can compete with the best," said Gravel in Victory Lane. "Tonight it showed. Kyle is a good friend, and he's making us step up our game. It's been a struggle this year to get a balance. Tonight we were running well. It was definitely intense. Those lapped cars...who knows where they were going? I know Kyle was close at the end. I know we had a good last lap. I was getting tight on the curb. We're right where we want to be (for Saturday). We did our job."

"The racecar was really good," said Larson. "Especially when I get to traffic, I feel really good. David just did a little better job than me at some points of the early parts when we got to traffic. I couldn't make enough ground to stay close off of two. It was a good points night for the dash tomorrow. It's definitely a cool format. I feel like it rewards drivers who move forward when they hit the racetrack. We were able to do that, and it put us in position to go for a big win tomorrow."

"It feels like a win for us," said Sweet. "Obviously, we needed a good rebound after last night. This team's been through a lot. It's nice to be on the podium. We'll see where we line up for tomorrow. We changed a lot on the car tonight, and I felt like we were really competitive in the A. We just needed something a little bit better there, so we'll see what we can do. We need to get through that Qualifier and give these guys a run for their money."

Tickets are sold out for Saturday's $50,000 to win Brownell's Capitani Classic presented by Great Southern Bank! Kyle Larson Throttles Them All for $50,000 Capitani Classic Triumph! by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 15, 2020) – Kyle Larson dominated the best in the business Saturday night at the Knoxville Raceway, taking home the Brownells Capitani Classic presented by Great Southern Bank. The Elk Grove, California native netted $50,000 for his win aboard the Paul Silva wrenched #57.

Larson earned the pole position for the 30-lap feature event by winning the Dash. He shot out to the lead immediately, ahead of Aaron Reutzel, Logan Schuchart, David Gravel and Carson Macedo. Schuchart passed Reutzel for the second spot, just as the Texan slowed with gear issues. He was done for the event.

Larson shot back out to the lead, with the best racing being a donnybrook between Sweet and Macedo for the fourth spot. They traded the position three times by lap seven. On lap 12, Larson was already into lapped traffic. Schuchart shot by Gravel for second on lap 14, while Macedo moved by Sweet to take fourth on lap 15.

With ten laps to go, Larson was putting the whip to the #57, and had opened up the 3.7 second lead. With five to go, that lead had built to over six seconds. Gravel took second back from Schuchart at that point, but Larson was out of sight.

James McFadden got into the turn four wall hard with two to go. He was uninjured and returned to action after a work area stop.

Though his big lead was erased, Larson was unphased the rest of the way, winning over Gravel, Schuchart, Macedo and Spencer Bayston. Sweet, Sheldon Haudenschild, Austin McCarl, Rico Abreu and Daryn Pittman rounded out the top ten. Donny Schatz put on the charge of the night, passing 42 cars. After winning the C main from 17th, he charged from 18th to fourth in the B, and from 24th to 12th in the feature. Sweet, Abreu, Macedo and Bayston won the four qualifiers. Brian Brown won the B after suffering mechanical issues in his qualifier.

“This means a lot,” said Larson in Victory Lane. “2020 has been a crazy year. We all wish it was Nationals. Hats off to the World of Outlaws and Knoxville Raceway and everyone who presented this race. In the main event, I could get down the straightaways really good. When I caught traffic, I wanted to be aggressive. I felt like we set a really good pace. I didn’t want to see that red flag late. I was thankful it was a single file restart. I didn’t really know what to do. I decided to protect into one. That’s always nerve-wracking, but my car’s so good. Paul did a heck of a job.”

“If he ran the top, I was going to send it in on him,” said Gravel of the late restart. “It just didn’t happen. It was a good race. We wouldn’t have had a shot if that red didn’t come out. He was gone. We didn’t get going early in the race. I had to battle Logan quite a bit to get by him. I think we probably had the second best car. Maybe if we started on the front row, we could have held with him a little longer. We just never had a chance.”

“I thought I was going to have a good shot at it rolling the bottom,” said Schuchart. “I just feel like the top was faster, and Kyle got it from the beginning. I just got beat by the better experienced drivers and teams tonight. We’ve gotten better and better since we’ve been coming to Knoxville. We really hit it right last year. I just moved my wing back a little too much and got tight on the cushion. We keep getting better and more comfortable.”

The next action at Knoxville Raceway takes place Friday night, August 28 on Busch Light Night featuring $1 Busch Light! Saturday, August 29 is Iowa Corn Growers Association District 5 and District 9 Night also featuring $1 Busch Light. All three sprint car classes (410, 360 and Pro) will be in action both nights!
