Aaron Reutzel Holds Them Off in Knoxville's 71st Opener!
Chase Randall Stomps Them in the 360's; Matt Allen Wins His First Career Main with the Pros
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (May 4, 2024) – After two weekends of rain, the Knoxville Raceway kicked off its 71st weekly season Saturday with Kraig Ford/Pella Motors Night. Aaron Reutzel was the big winner, taking his tenth career 410 victory here and $6,000 in the process. The Clute, Texas native held off defending champion Austin McCarl for that win in the Ridge and Sons Racing #87. Chase Randall won by nearly half a lap in the 360 class, and Matt Allen scored his first career win in the Pro Sprints class.

Lynton Jeffrey led the 20-lap 410 A main early on, ahead of Reutzel, Austin McCarl, Carson McCarl and Matt Juhl. Reutzel used the low side of turn two to pass Jeffrey for the lead on lap three. Meanwhile, Randall moved into the top five on lap four, as Reutzel was gingerly negotiating lapped traffic. Randall passed Carson McCarl for fourth on lap five, but Carson battled back to reclaim that spot two laps later.

Austin McCarl began to hit his stride in the middle stages, using the low side of four to pass Jeffrey for second on lap nine. He slowly reeled in Reutzel in heavy traffic and pulled beside him on a few occasions. Reutzel maneuvered traffic well until the only caution of the race flew for a spun Paul Nienhiser with three to go.

Reutzel pulled away from there, with Austin McCarl finishing second. Dusty Zomer blasted from fifth to third in the final corner, while Jeffrey and Randall completed the top five. Carson McCarl, Juhl, Kerry Madsen, Jamie Ball and Scott Bogucki rounded out the top ten. Carson McCarl set quick time, while Zomer, Tasker Phillips and Jeffrey were heat winners.

“We had two phenomenal racecars tonight,” said Reutzel, referring to his 360 mount. “Our motor ripped. It was a pretty good night for the first race here. The night went smooth. It played out really well. I’m super happy to be racing back at Knoxville. It makes racing fun again. Thanks to the fans for coming out and sticking out the cold weather.”

The 18-lap 360 feature got off to a ragged start. Sawyer Phillips and AJ Moeller flipped hard before a lap could be completed. Both were unhurt. The restart saw Chase Randall and Cam Martin make contact, sending the latter spinning hard and off on the hook.

Once finally green, Joe Beaver took the lead over Ryan Giles and Aaron Reutzel. Reutzel shot by Giles on lap two, while Randall moved up to fourth. A spin by Tony Rost on lap three negated a pass for the lead by Reutzel. Instead, Beaver led Reutzel, Giles, Randall and Calvin Landis back to green.

Randall quickly took third and set his sights on Reutzel, passing him for second on lap six. At that point, a three-wide battle for the lead ensued. Randall shot by Beaver for the lead on lap eight, while something broke in the suspension of Reutzel’s machine, sending him into a tip-over. He was unhurt. Alex Vande Voort tipped over on that restart, bringing another red.

Giles passed Beaver for the second spot on the restart, but Randall began pulling away. Clint Garner climbed from fifth up to third, and Terry McCarl entered the top five. Garner took second from Giles with eight to go. Randall opened up a huge lead and was lapping cars with five to go.

Giles moved back by Garner for second with three to go, while McCarl claimed fourth. Randall won by almost a half lap over Giles, McCarl who passed Garner in the last corner, and Jamie Ball. Landis, hard-charger Ryan Leavitt, Beaver, Tyler Groenendyk and Tasker Phillips completed the top ten. Reutzel set quick time over the 36-car field, and McCarl, Jack Anderson, Sawyer Phillips and Clint Garner won heat races. Tasker Phillips claimed the B. It was Randall's fifth career 360 win here.

A pair of rookies feature was done before a lap could be completed in the 15-lap Pro Sprints feature. Cole Campbell got sideways and collected teammate Chase Fischer to end their night. No one was hurt. Matt Allen led from the start, with Mike Mayberry jetting from sixth to second on the first lap. Chase Young rode low on lap three to pass Mayberry for second.

Allen was lapping cars by lap seven, when Rob Kubli, who was running fifth slowed to a stop and exited. Brandon Worthington also retired. Mayberry was able to reclaim the runner-up spot on the restart. Mayberry reeled in Allen for the point and passed him on lap 14. As the two entered turn one side-by-side, Allen edged back out front using the low side and carrying it to the checkers for his first career win here.

Allen was followed by Mayberry, Young, AJ Johnson and Casey Friedrichsen. Jeff Wilke, Josh Jones, Kody Hildreth, William Kline and Bob Hildreth rounded out the top ten. Mayberry set quick time, and Kubli and Friedrichsen won heats.

"I actually thought that was Chase Young next to me to be honest," said Allen of his late battle with Mayberry. "I just tried to move up the track a little (on the last lap). We've been really, really close and I'm glad we got (our first win) on the first night."

Join us Saturday, May 11 for Sully Locker and Market Night! All three sprint car classes will again be in action. For more information on the Knoxville Raceway, visit us online at www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Dusty Zomer Holds Off Brian Brown in Knoxville Thriller!
Aaron Reutzel Tops 360's; Mike Mayberry Triumphant In the Pros
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (May 11, 2024) – Dusty Zomer won his first 410 feature event at Knoxville since 2015 in an exciting battle with Brian Brown Saturday at the Knoxville Raceway. The Sioux Falls, South Dakota driver's eleventh career win here came aboard the Jeremiah Jordahl #3J and paid him $6,000. Aaron Reutzel recovered from a tip-over in the season opener to win the 360 feature, while Mike Mayberry won his eighth career main event in the Pro Sprints class.

Dustin Selvage led the 20-lap 410 feature early over Zomer, Gareth Williamson, Brian Brown and Aaron Reutzel. Zomer used the second lap to take the point. Austin McCarl entered the top five on lap three. Brown disposed of Selvage for third on lap four before Christopher Thram flipped on the backstretch five laps in, negating a McCarl pass of Selvage for fourth.

On the restart, Brown surged into second, followed by McCarl. Jake Bubak got out of shape on the backstretch a lap later. Chris Martin and Kelby Watt took evasive measures, collecting JJ Hickie who was upside down with nowhere to go. He was uninjured.

Once the green flew again, Brown was all over Zomer. At the halfway point he edged Zomer at the line by a nose to lead lap ten. Zomer got up on the wheel hitting the bottom of turn one and two to regain the lead. Chase Randall had climbed from 21st to seventh before bringing out a caution with eight to go. Jason Martin slowed a lap later to bring out the final yellow flag and set up a seven lap dash to the checkers.

Brown was all over Zomer again and led lap 14, again by a nose. Zomer again hit the bottom of one and two and chose to slide across three and four. The maneuver worked in holding off the rim riding Brown. Reutzel was third, ahead of Austin McCarl and Gareth Williamson. Carson McCarl, Selvage, Lynton Jeffrey, hard-charger Matt Juhl and Zach Hampton rounded out the top ten. Brown set quick time over the 36-car field, and Selvage, Bubak, Emerson Axsom and Josh Schneiderman won heat races. Randall claimed the B.

"I took a lot of notes from (Danny) Lasoski running like that," said Zomer, crediting his mentor. "Every restart, I hugged the bottom as best I could trying to keep the car underneath me. I knew (Brown) was fast, and I was going to obviously try to make him pass me on the outside. I was getting to stagnant on the bottom of three and four, and once I changed my line there it was for the better. Anytime you see that 21 pull up beside you, it makes you sit up in the wheel a little bit more. I'm super happy for this team. We started this deal a year ago, and we just pieced everything together. This year we're getting everything in place. I'm super happy."

For the second week in a row, Joe Beaver set the pace early on in the 18-lap 360 main. Aaron Reutzel was fourth early, and then moved by Jamie Ball for third on the fifth lap. On lap six, Reutzel pulled off the move of the race, splitting leader Beaver and the second place car of Kade Higday in one swoop, taking the point for good. Ball gained second from Higday before Alex Vande Voort flipped in turn four with six to go.

Reutzel led Ball, Higday, Terry McCarl and Jack Anderson back to green. With three to go, Tony Rost came to a stop in turn two, setting up a three lap Dash. Hard-charger Tasker Phillips was active late, shooting by Kelby Watt and McCarl on the restart to briefly move into third. McCarl would gain the spot back on the final lap.

Reutzel's tenth career 360 win here came ahead of Ball, McCarl, Phillips and Kelby Watt. Kaleb Johnson, Higday, Beaver, Clint Garner and Anderson completed the top ten. Ball set quick time over the 33-car field and won his heat. Phillips, Clint Garner and Cole Garner also won heats, while Nate Mills won the B.

"The track started to get a bunch of mud thrown out in the middle, and it was honestly perfect timing where I just got by Jamie and kind of found it," he said of his winning move. "(Beaver) just didn't get a good run, and I had a good run coming through. It all played out good. The car got decent late, but I was struggling early. I couldn't hit the bottom and fell back to fifth at one time. The car was good and the motor was great. It was a good bounce-back from last weekend."

Casey Friedrichsen led early in the 15-lap Pro Sprints feature ahead of AJ Johnson, Ryan Navratil and Brandon Worthington. A lap was in the books when Worthington got into the turn one wall. He was unhurt.

On the restart, Mike Mayberry shot from fourth to third, and on lap three, he took second. One lap later, he took the lead from Friedrichsen high in turn four. Navratil brought out the caution with eight laps to go, setting up a run to the checkers. Mayberry led Friedrichsen, Johnson, J Kinder and Matt Allen back to green.

Kinder slowed and pulled off on the restart, while Mayberry took off and won by nearly half a lap. Johnson secured second ahead of Friedrichsen, Allen and Chase Young. Hard-charger Toby Mosher, Jeff Wilke, Koddy Hildreth, Kinder and Navratil rounded out the top ten. Young set quick time, and Mayberry and Worthington won the heats.

“I’ve been getting my butt kicked on Wednesday’s in non-wing,” said Mayberry in Victory Lane. “It’s taught me a little throttle control. Without my team, I couldn’t do this.”

Garet Williamson Grabs First Ever Knoxville Win Over Reutzel by .087 of a Second!
Nate Mills Leads Wire to Wire for First Knoxville Win in a 360; J Kinder Wins in the Pros
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (May 18, 2024) – Garet Williamson posted his first ever 410 sprint car win at the Knoxville Raceway Saturday, holding off Aaron Reutzel at the line. The win came aboard the Fischer Motorsports #23 and was worth $6,000 for the Columbia, Missouri native. Nathan Mills also won his first career feature in the 360 class in exciting fashion in his family #24N, and J Kinder won in the Pro Sprints class for the sixth time in his career, and for the first time since he won a 305 track title in 2014.

The 20-lap 410 main event got off to a rocky start. Chris Martin got sideways and upside down, with Jack Potter and Scotty Johnson trying to avoid and suffering the same fate. All were o.k., but finished. Tasker Phillips spun on the restart before things got going.

Williamson led from outside row one early, ahead of Jamie Ball, Austin McCarl, Reutzel and Matt Juhl. McCarl used the low side to move by Ball on lap seven for the second spot. Williamson was lapping traffic on the eighth circuit, when Dusty Zomer entered the top five.

Reutzel was also on the move at the halfway point, taking third from Ball before Kelby Watt came to a stop, bringing out the final caution with nine laps to go. Williamson led McCarl, Reutzel, Ball and Zomer back to green.

Carson McCarl entered the top five by getting by Zomer with seven to go. Meanwhile, Reutzel was hooked up late, sneaking by Austin McCarl for second entering turn one with three to go. As Williamson approached traffic again the final two laps, Reutzel closed quickly and made a last bid for the win. Williamson slid across the middle of turn three and won the drag race to the checkers. Austin McCarl was third, ahead of Ball and Carson McCarl. Zomer, Brian Brown, Chase Randall, Juhl and Lynton Jeffrey rounded out the top ten. Austin McCarl set quick time, and Watt, Jeffrey and Randall won heats. JJ Hickle and Justin Henderson were both involved in a scary crash to start the third heat. Both were o.k.

“I heard (Reutzel) coming,” said Williamson of late in the race. “I got to traffic...I got through one good and I could hear him coming. I figured I better go through the middle, because I’d been running the bottom really hard. I got wide and slid myself in three and four and tried to be wide. I knew he’d do the same to me. I tried to protect and this win...I’ve dreamed of this since I was a kid. It’s special to win at this place!”

Corey Timmerman got upside down before a lap was complete in the 18-lap 360 A main. Nate Mills led the pace from the pole early over Tyler Groenendyk, Clint Garner, Alex Hill and Ryan Giles. Chase Randall entered the top five early on, and found his way by Hill on the high side to capture fourth before a flat right rear tire caused Ryan Leavitt to come to a stop seven laps in.

After one more lap was in the books, Tyler Lee turned over in turn one. He was uninjured. Mills led the field back to green, ahead of Groenendyk, Garner, Randall and Hill. Hill briefly got back by Randall, but surrendered that spot again.

Up front, Mills was keeping his line. Randall made a last ditch effort from the fourth spot, climbing to second on the last lap, but Mills would not be denied his first ever Knoxville win. Randall, Groenendyk, Clint Garner and Hill followed. Jamie Ball, Riley Goodno, Giles, Kade Higday and Terry McCarl completed the top ten. Giles set quick time over the 36-car field, while Tasker Phillips, Timothy Smith, Jack Anderson and Ben Brown won heats. Tuesday Calderwood claimed the B.

“It’s unreal!” said Mills of his first win. “I couldn’t do it without everyone behind me. It’s been a long time, it’s been frustrating, and I’m glad we got the win. I kind of figured lapped traffic was going to be tough, so I was kind of glad to see (the cautions). On those restarts, I was afraid of the car going away a little bit. I just pulled the wing back a little bit, and I was glad to have the clean air. The track was really juiced up.”

Fourth starting J Kinder got around the front row at the outset of the 15-lap Pro Sprints feature and led Tyler Groenendyk, Casey Friedrichsen, Mike Mayberry and AJ Johnson early. With just a lap in the books, Chase Young and Jeff Wilke came together, ending their nights. Johnson went from fifth to third on the restart, trailing Kinder and Groenendyk.

Back in the pack, Rob Kubli was moving as well, claiming fourth from Friedrichsen on lap four, and third from Johnson on the low side on lap six. At that point, Chase Fischer tipped over in turn four, bringing the red with nine to go. He was unhurt.

The restart, and another one for a stopped Brandon Worthington with five to go, did nothing to slow down Kinder who won ahead of Groenendyk, Kubli, Johnson and Friedrichsen. Mike Mayberry, Toby Mosher, hardcharger Josh Jones, Koddy Hildreth and Bob Hildreth rounded out the top ten. Matt Allen set quick time on the night, while Friedrichsen and Johnson were the heat winners.

“For the first couple nights, I was ready to go back home and race 305’s,” said Kinder in Victory Lane. “We changed some parts that Mike Mayberry actually told me to change, and I guess that was it. We won points back in 2014 here, and I was really wanting to do it again, but after two DNF’s I don’t know that it’s going to happen. If we keep doing this, we’ll see what happens at the end of the year.”

Join us Saturday, May 25 for Dennison Racing Tees/Jersey Freeze Night! All three sprint car classes will again be in action, with the MSTs 360’s on hand shooting for a possible $9,000 for a driver sweeping Jackson (Friday) and Knoxville. Chase Randall Scores First Ever 410 Win!

Aaron Reutzel Earns 11th 360 Win; J Kinder Wins for the Second Week in a Row in the Pros by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (May 25, 2024) – Chase Randall passed Aaron Reutzel early in the 20-lap 988 Lifeline 410 feature on Dennison Racing Tees and Jersey Freeze Night to earn his first ever main event win in the class Saturday at Knoxville Raceway. The Waco, Texas native earned $6,000 for his win aboard the TKS

Motorsports #2KS. Reutzel won a battle with young Jack Anderson to claim his eleventh career win in the 360 class, and J Kinder won for the seventh time in his career and for the second week in a row in the Pro Sprints class.

The 410 feature got off to a rocky start when Scott Bogucki tried to sneak between Randall and the turn two wall on the first lap. Bogucki spun hard and got upside down in an incident that saw Dusty Zomer and Zach Hampton also flip. AJ Moeller was also involved as were Gage Pulkrabek, Josh Schneiderman and Sawyer Phillips. The latter three restarted.

The second try at green would take and the race would go the distance. Reutzel grabbed the early advantage after inheriting a starting spot outside row one, ahead of Randall, Austin McCarl, Kerry Madsen and Lynton Jeffrey.

On lap three, Randall threw a slider across turn two, wrestling the lead from Reutzel, and five laps later was already moving through lapped traffic. Randall, Reutzel, McCarl and Madsen distanced themselves from the rest of the pack in the middle stages.

Traffic got intense, and Reutzel pulled close on a couple of occasions. McCarl snuck by for second in turn two on lap 13, but Reutzel came back with a slider of his own in turn two to reclaim the position a lap later.

The battle between the two allowed Randall to pull away for his inaugural 410 win here ahead of Reutzel, McCarl, Madsen and Garet Williamson. Hard-charger Tasker Phillips, Jeffrey, Kelby Watt, Chris Martin and Matt Juhl rounded out the top ten. Reutzel set quick time over the 32-car field, while Watt, Zomer, Phillips and Hampton won heat races. Darin Naida won the B.

“It was huge,” said Randall of his first win. “It was very tricky judging my pace off of the lapped cars. I was driving as hard as I could, but when I got close to lapped traffic I feel like I slowed down. I was itching to go, but I was trying to be patient at the same time. I just had to take a few deep breaths. I know I felt great from the first lap. Troy (Renfro) and I have been working extremely hard to make this car the best it can be.”

Jack Anderson shot out from the pole position to begin the 18-lap 360 A main ahead of Kade Higday, Reutzel, Tyler Groenendyk and Terry McCarl. Reutzel was a rocket on the bottom of the track, and claimed second from Higday on lap two, while McCarl moved into fourth. McCarl also worked by Higday into the top three on lap four. Anderson entered lapped traffic on lap six and kept a good pace. Reutzel kept within striking distance through the middle stages. Randall also entered the top four at that point.

On lap 12, Anderson slid in the middle of turns one and two and Reutzel entered high and left turn two low to make his winning pass. He pulled away from there to the victory. Randall passed McCarl with there to go and Anderson with two to go to claim second ahead of Anderson, McCarl and Groenendyk. Jamie Ball, Higday, hard-charger Tasker Phillips, Kaleb Johnson and Ryan Giles completed the top ten. Randall set quick time over the 32-car field and won his heat. Timothy Smith, Tony Rost and Groenendyk also won heats. Phillips claimed the B.

“The car was really good,” said Reutzel in Victory Lane. “Wow! It gets sketchy out there sometimes when the leaders are going so much faster than those lapped cars. There were a couple scary moments there. I was glad we were able to hang on. (Anderson) was doing a hell of a job moving around. I actually think he might have had a better car than me. He could get out in the middle and still keep his momentum up. I just had to keep ducking when he dodged and dodging when he ducked. Wherever he went, I had to hurry up and pick another line. I just had to go up the hill and come back down; he just had one lapped car screw him up.”

J Kinder led the 15-lap Pro Sprints feature from the start, ahead of Rob Kubli, Matt Allen, Ryan Navratil and Jeff Wilke. Chase Young soon found himself in the top five as well. The only caution of the event came for a stalled Toby Mosher on lap eight. Navratil climbed from fifth to third on the restart, but Allen recaptured the spot (he would later be penalized two spots for jumping the same restart).

Kinder was never seriously challenged in his run to his second win in a row. Kubli held onto second, with Young, AJ Johnson and Allen scored in the top five. Navratil, Mike Mayberry, Josh Jones, Brandon Worthington and Wilke rounded out the top ten.

“This is the first time I’ve ever won back to back,” said the 2014 305 track champion in Victory Lane. “The car is rolling good. It’s going to be a good year, we’ll see how it plays out. I struggled a little bit with (the lapped car of Bob Hildreth) in turn one, and I looked at the board and saw there was a car right behind me. I thought I couldn’t do that. Being in clean air was definitely the place to be.”

Justin Grant Tames Knoxville on First Night of Corn Belt Clash!
 Jamie Ball Wins 360's for the First Time in Three Years
 by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (May 31, 2024) – Justin Grant of Ione, California netted $8,000 for his win in Night #1 of the Corn Belt Clash Friday at the Knoxville Raceway. The driver of the TOPP Motorsports #4 had to outduel Brady Bacon and a series of cautions and red flags to net his second career win at the “Sprint Car Capital of the World.” In 360 action, Jamie Ball won for the tenth time in his career, but for the first time since 2021.

Grant led Mitchel Moles, Bacon, CJ Leary and Daison Pursley early in the 25-lap USAC main event. Bacon quickly moved into the second spot, while Pursley moved into fourth, setting the top five for the first ten laps, when Grant entered lapped traffic.

Bacon reeled the leader in, and on lap 14, used a slidejob in turns one and two to take the point. The perennial Knoxville favorite looked to be on his way before Leary slowed to a stop, surrendering the fourth spot with ten to go. That restart saw Wesley Smith tumble in turn two. He was o.k.

On the second try at green, Grant shot across turns one and two, sliding in front of Bacon to take back the lead. Meanwhile, Pursley followed in third, while Chase Johnson and Moles completed the top five. Chase Stockon slowed with five laps to go to bring another caution.

With the field jumbled again on the restart, Johnson shot the low side of turn two to jump from fourth to second. Bacon battled back by Johnson, but that was negated when Dakota Earls flipped in turn two with three to go, bringing the final slowdown. He was uninjured.

Grant was able to stay out front, while Bacon slid by Johnson again for second coming for the white flag. A last ditch effort at Grant fell short by .247 of a second at the line. Pursley surged to third, followed by Jake Swanson and Johnson. Xavier Doney, Moles, Logan Seavey, Kyle Cummins and hard-charger JJ Yeley rounded out the top ten. Leary set quick time over the field, while Johnson, Matt Westfall and Seavey won heats. AJ Johnson took a wicked ride, destroying his sprinter in heat three. He was unhurt.

“It feels very good to get back in Victory Lane,” said Grant of his fifth USAC win of the year and the 50th in his career. “We have a rocket ship of a racecar. I was good early. I felt really comfortable. It got slicked and curbed up. It’s scary here at Knoxville. It’s fast and you’re up there on the curb. There were holes up in the cushion and I kind of got sitting back down in the seat trying not to crash the thing. Brady slid me, and I had a lap or two of the mopes. We got a yellow, and I was able to slide him there on the restart. If you come to Knoxville and you beat Brady Bacon, I feel like you’ve done something.”

Tyler Groenendyk led from the pole early in the 18-lap 360 main event. Clint Garner, Jamie Ball, Carson McCarl and a surging Chase Randall followed. Blake Hahn broke something hitting the turn two cushion one lap in to bring the only caution of the event.

Great racing ensued back in fourth, fifth and sixth between Aaron Reutzel, Brian Brown and Randall. Up front, Groenendyk entered lapped traffic on the tenth circuit. Groenendyk had to change from the low groove to a treacherous cushion in traffic, and on lap 13, he hit the top of turn two awkwardly, and Ball saw the opportunity to strike for the lead.

Reutzel was a late mover, gaining third from Garner with three to go, and getting by Groenendyk for second on the white flag lap. Both passes came on the high side of turn two.

Ball’s tenth career win came ahead of Reutzel, Groenendyk, Garner and Carson McCarl. Austin McCarl, Randall, Brown, Kaleb Johnson and Tony Rost completed the top ten. The 42-car field saw Randall and Carson McCarl set quick time in their respective groups, while Kade Higday, Ryan Leavitt, Reutzel and Hahn won heat races. Ryan Giles and Chase Johnson claimed the B mains.

“These don’t come easy,” said an excited Ball in Victory Lane. “I don’t know why, but I felt tonight was the night. All my guys have worked so hard. We’ve raced Reutzel, Randall and (Garet) Williamson and they’re the best in the country. We’ve really had to raise our game and this was the toughest of those ten wins. It’s pedal to the medal one hundred percent of the time. Tyler is a great competitor and he’s going to get one of these one of these days. He is probably the top guy to not get a win here.”

Join us Saturday, June 1 for the finale of the Avanti Windows & Doors Cornbelt Clash featuring the AMSOIL USAC National Sprint Car Series! The 988 Lifeline 410’s will also be in action! For more information on the Knoxville Raceway, visit us online at www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Daison Pursley Harvests Corn Belt Clash at Knoxville for $12,000!

Chase Randall Roars to Second 410 Feature of the Year

by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (June 1, 2024) – Daison Pursley made his first career point win with the AMSOIL USAC National Sprint Car Series count in a big way Saturday night at the Knoxville Raceway by winning the Corn Belt Clash worth $12,000. The win came aboard the Team AZ Racing #21AZ for the Locust Grove, Oklahoma driver. In 988 Lifeline 410 action, Chase Randall scored his second win of the season in that class.

Eric Schulz flipped down the backstretch before a lap could be completed in the 30-lap Corn Belt Clash feature. He was unhurt. One green, Pursley led Carson Garrett, Justin Grant, CJ Leary and Brady Bacon. Leary and Bacon both passed Grant and Garrett to move themselves into second and third on lap two before Korbyn Hayslett slowed, bringing out the caution.

On lap four, Xavier Doney flipped while running seventh, bringing another stoppage. Bacon gained second from Leary on that restart, as he was a lone wolf on the cushion in turns one and two. The next slowdown came 12 laps in, when Logan Seavey slowed.

Pursley led Bacon, Leary, Kevin Thomas Jr. and Justin Grant back to green. Bacon hit the bottom of turn four on the restart and got a run that propelled him under Pursley for the lead in turn one. He held that lead through a lap 15 caution for Garrett, and a lap 19 slowdown for Joey Amantea.

Pursley began reeling in the two-time winner of the Corn Belt Clash and shot by with a slider in turn three on lap 22, to take the lead for good. Pursley pulled away to the win, ahead of Bacon, Thomas, Leary and Kyle Cummins, who won a back and forth battle with Justin Grant for fifth. Robert Ballou was seventh, and Mitchel Moles, Jake Swanson and hard-charger (for the second night in a row) JJ Yeley rounded out the top ten. Bacon set quick time, and Ballou, Thomas and Doney won heats. Hayslett claimed the B.

“This is huge,” said Pursley in Victory Lane. “I feel like we were close so many times. I thought I gave it away once I messed up on the restart. I thought it was over from there, because Brady doesn’t usually make any mistakes. I just tried to keep on pressuring him in three and four, and thankfully we were able to do it. I was fortunate that he missed the bottom there in three and I was able to hit the bottom and slide by. Brady is no slouch at any track, and especially if you look at the history here at Knoxville.”

“(Pursley) kind of messed up on the restart and we were able to get by him,” said the second place Bacon. “He could just roll through the center, and kind of slide up and get a straight shot on the straightaway. I had to kind of just stay right on the berm. I just couldn’t get enough speed to keep him behind me. I was cheating getting into three and he just beat us. He ran a good race, and they were just a little better than us tonight.”

“We were constantly working on the car,” said Thomas. “It’s a full (Rock Steady Racing) team effort. Thanks to my team. We went from a 15th place finish last night to a third. That’s what it’s all about. I just kind of stalled out once I got to third. I couldn’t do as much as I wanted to. They kind of figured out a couple little things, but a big shout out to my team.”

The 20-lap 988 Lifeline A main got off to a terrible start with a melee that involved a minimum of seven cars. After Emerson Axsom and Sawyer Phillips got together, cars involved included those of Garet Williamson, Jake Bubak, Kerry Madsen, and AJ Moeller, Tasker Phillips and Chris Martin, who were done. No one was injured.

Don Droud Jr., who will be inducted into the Knoxville Raceway Hall of Fame in July, shot out to the early lead once things went green, ahead of Aaron Reutzler, Chase Randall, Austin McCarl and Brian Brown. Things went non-stop the rest of the way, with Droud entering lapped traffic on the eleventh circuit.

About that time, Randall used the high side of turn two in heavy traffic to get around Reutzler for second and begin his pursuit of Droud. Using the same point on the track, he shot by Droud on lap 12 and began pulling away. McCarl passed Reutzler for third on the same lap.

Randall won comfortably over Droud, Austin McCarl, Reutzler and Brown. Jamie Ball, Hunter Schuerenberg, Lynton Jeffrey, Carson McCarl and Anthony Macri completed the top ten. Brian Brown and Bryce Lucius, making his first ever Knoxville start set quick time in their respective groups amongst the 41-car field. Austin McCarl, Jake Bubak, Sawyer Phillips and Randall won heat races. Williamson and Martin won the B mains.

“You just got to want it,” said Randall in Victory Lane. “I want it so bad for myself and this whole (TKS Motorsports) team. They’ve given me one of the best opportunities I’ve had to compete at the top level. Starting in third, I was trying to be a little patient. It was super fast, and I knew lapped traffic would be my best bet. It kind of worked out for me. The lane kind of opened to get by Aaron in one, and we were able to get by (Droud) too. It just feels amazing to be standing here in Victory Lane, and we look forward to the future.”

Join us Saturday, June 8 for Vermeer Night! The 988 Lifeline 410’s, the 360 class and Pro Sprints will all be in action! For more information on the Knoxville Raceway, visit us online at www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Carson McCarl Sneaks by Brother Austin to Win First Ever 410 Feature at Knoxville!
 Aaron Reutzel Wins His 12th Career 360 Feature; Chase Young Steals the Pro Sprints Feature Event Late
 by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (June 8, 2024) – Carson McCarl emerged victorious with a last lap pass in a race that saw five lead changes and plenty of excitement on Vermeer Night Saturday at the Knoxville Raceway. The former 305 and 360 track champion’s win was his first in the 988 Lifeline 410 class and earned him $6,000 aboard his own #27 car. Aaron Reutzel maneuvered lapped traffic well in a non-stop 360 main event, and Chase Young sneaked in a late pass to win his third career Pro Sprints main event.

The start of the 20-lap 410 feature got a slow start. Kelby Watt struggled to take off, collecting several cars, including Lynton Jeffrey, who had to retire. Once green, Tasker Phillips led Carson McCarl, Austin McCarl, Dusty Zomer and Zach Hampton. On lap four, Tyler Drueke spun, bringing out the caution.

Aaron Reutzler entered the top five once the race went green again, as the battle up front intensified. Phillips was riding the cushion on the high side, while Carson McCarl was cruising on the bottom. The latter shot into the lead on lap six. Two laps later, Phillips used the cushion to get back by McCarl as the two nearly came together. They avoided disaster and continued their battle.

Carson came back to the point low in turn four at the halfway point. Meanwhile, Zomer was on the move, gaining third from Austin McCarl on lap 12, and sliding by Phillips on lap 14 for the second spot. His car appeared to be fastest on the track as he gained quickly on the leader.

Unfortunately, in turn three, he spun. Phillips clipped him on the high side and tumbled into turn four, while Randall, who had moved into fourth performed a direct hit. Randall's car flipped violently and burst into flames. Fortunately, he was able to clear the wreckage and fire crews were on the scene quickly. All drivers were uninjured.

Once things were cleaned up, Carson McCarl led Austin McCarl, Kerry Madsen, Reutzler and Hampton back to green. Austin used the middle of turn two to work by his brother for the point, and it looked like he would cruise to the win. However, on the last lap he got into the infield berm in turns one and two, and Carson worked back around him to shoot down the back stretch, and lead the final two laps for his first ever win here. He joins grandfather Lenard, father Terry and brother Austin as 410 winners at Knoxville.

Carson was followed by his brother Austin, Madsen, Reutzler and Cole Macedo, who started sixteenth. Hampton, hard-charger Sawyer Phillips, AJ Moeller, JJ Hickle and Jamie Ball rounded out the top ten. Randall set quick time over the 30-car field, while Tasker Phillips, Madsen and Ball won heats. Dustin Selvage claimed the B main.

"I felt good the whole race," said an emotional Carson McCarl in Victory Lane. "I just thought the top was way too choppy and it wasn't going to be the place to get the win. I went up there a couple of times and about dumped it. I just had to be patient. I was able to get my wing working and was able to get by Tasker. We came together here on the front straightaway early in the race, and I thought it was going to take us both out. With Austin behind me on that restart, I knew he was going to go to the top. I just thought it would be too choppy and if I hit my marks and could get to the exit that I'd be fine. He got around me there, and I had nothing to lose. I cranked the wing back and just started driving it as hard as I possibly could. All night, I just felt really good."

Sawyer Phillips led lap one of the 18-lap 360 feature, but it was all Aaron Reutzler after that. Both Reutzler and Tasker Phillips moved by Sawyer on lap two. Jamie Ball moved into fourth and Terry McCarl in fifth.

Reutzler was into lapped traffic by the ninth circuit, and maneuvering well. Tasker Phillips reeled him in on a couple of occasions, but Reutzler was able to maneuver his Ridge & Sons Racing #87 through. Phillips bobbed on the cushion with four laps to go, all but sealing the deal.

Reutzler and Tasker were followed to the line by Sawyer, Ball and McCarl. Tyler Groenendyk, hard-charger Ryan Giles, Jack Anderson, Clint Garner and Kade Higday completed the top ten. Reutzler set quick time over the 33-car field. Ball, Timothy Smith, Higday and Jack Anderson won heats, while Nate Mills claimed the B.

"It's always crazy, the lapped traffic with the 360's," said Reutzler in Victory Lane. "It seems like we catch them a lot faster, and they're usually all racing. It makes for a lot of fun. It definitely gets interesting at times. Our car was pretty good tonight. We were off a little early, but it got better and better on the long run. This is the motor (Moyle) we won the 360 Nationals with (2022). It hasn't finished worse than second. This might be the last night on it before being refreshed. It has a hell of a track record.”

Matt Allen led from the pole early in the 15-lap Pro Sprints feature. Mike Mayberry, AJ Johnson, J Kinder and Chase Young trailed. On lap two, Young jumped from fifth to third, while Kinder moved into fourth.

Up front, it appeared to be a two-man race. Allen stayed glued to the bottom, while Mayberry was running his trademark middle line. Though Young gained on them, the two kept close. On lap thirteen, Mayberry got around to lead, but Allen jumped back by with a slim margin of .006 of a second on lap 14. Coming for the checkers, the two made contact in turn four. Allen suffered the biggest loss, tipping over and ending his night. He was unhurt, while Mayberry sustained minor damage.

The green, white, checker finish made it a 16-lap race. While Mayberry went back to the middle, Young, who restarted second, stuck the bottom of one and two and led the final two lap to gain his third career win here in his #26 car. Mayberry, Brandon Worthington, Kinder and Johnson followed. Toby Mosher, Rob Kubli, Ryan Navratil, Josh Jones and Koddy Hildreth rounded out the top ten. Allen set quick time, and Worthington and Kubli were heat winners.

“I had to get around a couple of cars early,” said a happy Young. “(The leaders) kind of got away, but lap after lap, I could tell I was catching them. I overheated the brakes a little bit so I ‘whoa-ed’ back a little bit. Then we had the big red. I assessed (Mayberry’s) car under the red and it didn’t look right at all. I wasn’t going to give that away. I’m just happy to be back up here.”

David Gravel Outlasts Them All On Night One at Knoxville!
J Kinder Wins Pro Sprints Feature From Row Four
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (June 15, 2024) – David Gravel battled to his twelfth career win at the Knoxville Raceway Friday night on the opening night of the Premier Chevy Dealers weekend featuring the NOS Energy Drink World of Outlaws over a field of 64 cars. The event saw four lead changes, and the Watertown, Connecticut driver earned $12,000 for his win aboard the Big Game Motorsports #2. In support Pro Sprint Series action, J Kinder won his third main event of the year here with a late pass.

Pole-sitter Parker Price-Miller led early in the 25-lap main event, ahead of Gravel, Sheldon Haudenschild, Rico Abreu and Tyler Courtney. A spin by sixth running Aaron Reutzel four laps in slowed things. On the restart, Haudenschild pulled a slider on Gravel in turn two taking over second. On lap six, Brian Brown stopped with brake issues bringing another yellow.

Price-Miller still led the field, but Kyle Larson was lurking in the top five before a lap eight caution for Brock Zearfoss. On the restart, Gravel retook the runner-up spot, while Larson moved into fourth. On lap ten, Gravel hit the bottom of turn four and pulled past Price-Miller to the point. On lap twelve, the two traded the lead, while Larson took third.

A lap later, Larson was by Price-Miller for second and setting his sights on Gravel. On lap 16, he shot by in turn two to take the lead for himself. It would be short-lived when his engine went up in smoke with six laps to go.

Gravel held the lead through that restart and another with four laps to go for Zearfoss. Price-Miller held onto second, ahead of Abreu, James McFadden and Courtney. Daryn Pittman, Corey Day, Gio Scelzi, hard-charger Logan Schuchart and Donny Schatz, who was a Non-Qualifier in his heat and battled back to round out the top ten. Haudenschild and Abreu set quick times over their respective qualifying groups. Schatz and Tasker Phillips won the Non-Qualifier heats. Haudenschild, Pittman, Abreu and Courtney won the heats. Sawyer Phillips claimed the C, Price-Miller won the Dash, and Schatz took the B main.

“We had a couple lucky restarts there,” said Gravel. “Early on, we were a little tight, and once I found out Rico was really good on the bottom, I kind of committed down there and made some good laps. We broke a left front shock stud there, and it was getting really hard to run the bottom consistently. I felt if I couldn’t run down there, we would have lost more than running the top. When Kyle passed us, we could definitely tell he was better than us. He could run the cushion a lot better. Once we got back to the bottom, we got back to him. I really wish we could have raced that out. This is a new car and it’s great to break it out and win this one.”

“It was kind of one of those races you don’t want to lead at the time,” said Price-Miller. “I felt good on the bottom. I could hear Sheldon and see him on the screen going down the back straightaway. I went to the top, felt good on the top, and then as soon as I left, it must have laid rubber in one and two. David got by me, and we kind of slid each other back and forth for a lap. He schooled me in turn one. He acted like he was going to run the top, and took my air away going to the bottom. It was really a great run for us. We’re excited to be racing right now when our car is this good, but obviously, we’d like to win.”

“I really just focused on hitting my marks,” said Abreu of winning the battle for third. “It was really understanding the race, and the outside lane was very difficult to take on. I was kind of dependent on Sheldon, who was obviously watching the leader go and the leader gets such an advantage on the inside row. I think you just take a lot of notes on a night like this, and you work on bringing that back for the Nationals. Thank you to Knoxville for working the track and giving us something to race on for 25 laps.”

Brandon Worthington led AJ Johnson, Mike Mayberry, J Kinder and Matt Allen through lap on. Johnson used the low side to pass Worthington and take the point on lap two. Mayberry used his signature middle groove to pass Worthington for second on lap three and Johnson for the lead on lap five.

Kinder claimed third from Worthington on lap seven. The caution came out for Bob Hildreth, when he spun on lap eight. Kinder claimed second from Johnson on that restart, as Worthington moved into fourth and Gravel to fifth.

On lap 12, Kinder shot under Mayberry going into turn one to take the lead for good. He held it through a restart for a spun Toby Mosher with two to go. Mayberry finished second, followed by Johnson, Worthington and Chase Young. Rob Kubli, Casey Friedrichsen, Allen, Josh Jones and Kody Hildreth rounded out the top ten. Allen set quick time, and Mayberry and Johnson won heats.

“It was pretty tricky tonight,” said Kinder in Victory Lane. “It kind of started taking rubber towards the end. I found it a little quicker than Mike did. We had some discussion on what we were going to do to the car, and I’m glad we stayed back a little bit. The rubber would have been rough. We’re having fun, it’s the third one this year.”

Corey Day Rockets to First Knoxville Win with World of Outlaws!
Tasker Phillips is a First-time 360 Winner
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (June 15, 2024) – Two first-time winners highlighted the Premier Chevy Dealers NOS Energy World of Outlaws Night results Saturday at the Knoxville Raceway. Corey Day made a late pass to win the World of Outlaws main event and earned $12,000 in front of a large crowd at the “Sprint Car Capital of the World.” It was the Clovis, California driver’s second career WoO win. Tasker Phillips outlasted the 360 field to garner his first ever victory in that class at Knoxville. That win, aboard the Eckmann Family Racing #1TAZ was worth $2,000.

Logan Schuchart shot from the pole to lead early in the 25-lap main event, ahead of Day, David Gravel, Donny Schatz and Emerson Axsom. A caution five laps in for Lynton Jeffrey slowed things. Schuchart took the inside line on the double file restart ahead of Day, Gravel and Schatz. Schatz created a three way battle for the second spot and took third from Gravel in tight quarters on lap six.

As the leaders entered lappers on the fourteenth circuit, he briefly took second from Day, before surrendering it again. On lap 16, Day found the high groove to his liking and surged around Schuchart to take the lead at the flag stand by .045 of a second.

Schuchart wasn't going away however and used the low side of four to retake the point on lap 21. In one and two on the next lap, Day retook the lead before Schuchart jumped the cushion and got into the turn two wall.

Day led the field the last three laps for the win, ahead of Schatz, a surging Kyle Larson, Gravel and Scott Bogucki. Brian Brown, James McFadden, Austin McCarl, Brad Sweet and hard-charger Aaron Reutzel rounded out the top ten. Daryn Pittman and Bogucki set quick time over their respective qualifying groups, while Schatz, Schuchart, Bogucki and Day won their heats. Dusty Zomer and Landon Crawley claimed the Non-Qualifier heats, Justin Henderson won the C, Schuchart took the Dash and Brent Marks claimed the B.

"I feel like around the top for sure (I was the better racecar)," said Day in Victory Lane. "If that thing went one lane around the bottom, I don't know. (Schuchart) was really good. He left us behind in that Dash and I thought we were in trouble. I think it got just slow enough in the middle of one and two that I could make speed on entry to get close to him if I just got a good drive off. I'm so proud of my whole team. We've been coming here and running local stuff the last couple years and we're committed to High Limit and haven't been able to do that. I always thought just winning at Knoxville would be badass, but winning an Outlaw feature here means so much more!"

Jamie Ball led the 18-lap 360 feature early over Joe Beaver, Jack Anderson, Tasker Phillips and Alex Hill. On lap five, Anderson got the low side working, and shot by Beaver for second. Ball tagged the turn two wall and flattened a tire on lap six. On the next go-around, Ball drifted up the track into Anderson and clipped his left front, ending the youngster's bid for a first win. Ball retired shortly after.

Beaver inherited the lead on the restart, but Hill took command in search of her first win immediately, using the low side of the track. Phillips was hammering the cushion, and took second from Beaver on lap eight, and ran down Hill to surge to the point on lap ten. Nathan Anderson flipped to bring out the red flag with seven laps to go. He was o.k. Phillips led Hill, Ryan Giles, Beaver and Kade Higday back to green. Giles overtook Hill for second with two to go, but then got into the wall in turn one, ending his run.

Phillips led the green, white, checker finish to victory, ahead of Hill, with a career-best run, Beaver, Kaleb Johnson and Kade Higday. Tyler Groenendyk, Terry McCarl, Cam Martin, Ben Brown and Ryan Leavitt completed the top ten. Beaver set quick time on the field, while Cole Garner, Johnson and Phillips won heats. Tyler Graves flipped in his heat, and Aidan Zoutte got into the wall in hot laps. Both were uninjured, but done for the night.

"I could see (Hill's) wing was all the way in the trunk (back)," said Phillips in Victory Lane. "I hadn't done that yet, and I didn't need to happen to me what happened to Jamie. I needed to cool my jets and just hang out. I knew it was going to come, and basically that's all it was, was just being smooth. This is huge. We've had a really tough year. We've always led a lot of laps, we just can't get the final spot. We really needed this."

Join us Saturday, June 29 for Farm Bureau Financial Services Night! The 988 Lifeline 410's, the 360's the Pro Sprints will all be back in action! For more information on the Knoxville Raceway, visit us online at www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com!

Brian Brown Wins his 66th on Wild Night at Knoxville!

Aaron Reutzal Wins Lucky 13th in the 360's; J Kinder Wins His Fourth of Five with the Pros

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (June 29, 2024) – Brian Brown won a wild one Saturday night at the Knoxville Raceway on Farm Bureau Financial Services Night. The Grain Valley, Missouri overcame his tough run this season to take a late lead and net $6,000 aboard his #21 machine. Aaron Reutzal also made a late pass to win his thirteenth career 360 feature and fourth of this season, and J Kinder also won his fourth feature of the year in the Pro Sprints class.

Emerson Axsom shot out to an early lead in the 30-lap 410 feature with Kerry Madsen, Chase Randall, Brown and Austin McCarl breathing down his neck. Brown gained third from Randall on lap two, and McCarl followed him into the fourth spot two laps later. Axsom was into lapped traffic on the sixth lap. Behind him, Brown squeaked by Madsen in heavy lapped traffic at that point, and McCarl and Randall followed into third and fourth on lap seven. McCarl gained on Brown and cruised by him on the low side to take second on lap 13. Randall chose the cushion to get by Brown with six to go, and claim the third spot.

McCarl closed on Axsom and pulled beside him low in turn two with four to go. He caught the inside berm a bit and the two cars came together, sending McCarl spinning and collecting Randall, ending both of their top three runs. Axsom led Brown, Tasker Phillips, Dutsy Zomer and Aaron Reutzal with four to go.

As Axsom dove low in turn two, Brown hit the curb on the high side and flew to the lead, never looking back. Axsom held onto second, while Phillips won a late battle with Zomer for third. Reutzal was fifth. Carson McCarl, Madsen, Kaleb Johnson, JJ Hickle and Zach Hampton rounded out the top ten. Austin McCarl set quick time over the 30-car field, and he was joined by Randall and Carson McCarl as heat winners. Jamie Ball and Sawyer Phillips were involved in a rough heat incident. Phillips made enough repairs to start the feature.

“I’ve made some dumb mistakes to start the year here,” said Brown in Victory Lane before naming a few drivers and owners he wanted to apologize to. “I’ve just been overdriving and making some big mistakes. I apologize for that. I don’t know if I was the fastest car in the middle of the race. I felt like I was the fastest car early and I kind of got stalled out and let Austin and (Randall) get by. I got my wing back, and I saw Emerson’s Dad tell to run the bottom on the restart. You don’t tell me twice to go to the top, and it worked out.”

Alex Hill led early in the 18-lap main event for the 360 class ahead of Jamie Ball, Ryan Giles, Kade Higday and Dustin Selvage. Ball reeled in the leader and passed her in turn four on lap four. Meanwhile, Higday moved into third. By lap six, Aaron Reutzal was in the top five. On lap nine, Higday and Reutzal used the low side to move by Hill into second and third.

Ball was in lapped traffic with eight to go. On lap 13, Reutzal shot under Higday for second and passed Ball for the lead before a slowing Tyler Groenendyk brought a caution flag with four to go. Unfortunately, the pass was negated and had to wait for the restart.

Reutzel shot high in turn two to take the lead once the green fell again, and sustained a green, white, checker restart finish after Tasker Phillips tumbled, collecting Cole Garner and Nate Mills. No one was injured.

Reutzel cruised to the finish ahead of Ball, Clint Garner, Sawyer Phillips and Giles. Higday, hard-charger Terry McCarl, Hill, Jake Bubak and Ryan Leavitt completed the top ten. Groenendyk set quick time over the 34-car field, and Jack Anderson, AJ Moeller, Joe Beaver and Sawyer Phillips won heats. Tasker Phillips claimed the B.

“The track was absolutely phenomenal,” said Reutzel. “It was the best track all year, so maybe that will shut all the crybabies up who have been (complaining) about the track all year. The Dunkin’s do a great job, and you can’t tell me otherwise.”

Mike Mayberry led early in the 15-lap Pro Sprints feature, but J Kinder was on a mission. With an invert of eight, he shot to third on the first lap, took second from Ryan Navratil on lap two, and used the low side of the track to get by Mayberry on lap five to take the point.

Navratil worked by Mayberry for second on the high side on lap six. Kinder was working lapped traffic with five to go. AJ Johnson gained top five status on lap eight and took fourth on lap ten.

Kinder had almost a five second lead and saw the checkers in front of him when William Kline flipped, bringing out the red flag and setting up a green, white, checker finish. Kline was uninjured.

Kinder was not deterred and led to the checkers for his ninth career win here, ahead of Navratil, Johnson, who gained third late, Mayberry and Rob Kubli. Josh Jones, Chase Young, Brandon Worthington, Toby Mosher and Jeff Wilke rounded out the top ten. Matt Allen set quick time, and Kinder and Mayberry won the heats.

“The car would go anywhere,” said Kinder. “The track was slick. It wasn’t hard, but it was experience. I’ve been doing this for a long time. The car was just great. It went anywhere. The car won this race. I didn’t want to see (the red). That makes it a little bit harder. You only have two laps to mess it up, so you have pretty good odds.”

White Flag Pass Nets Scott Bogucki First Ever Knoxville 410 Win!
Sawyer Phillips Wins First 360 Main in Seven Years; Chase Young Wins Pro Sprints
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (July 6, 2024) – Scott Bogucki won an electric feature Saturday at the Nolan Wren Memorial Presented by Higher View Enterprise, Inc. at the Knoxville Raceway. The driver from McLaren Vale in South Australia shot by Aaron Reutzel coming for the white flag to win $6,000 aboard the Liebig Motorsports #10. Sawyer Phillips nailed down the 360 main event. It was the fourth win in the class for the Pleasantville, Iowa native, but the first in seven years. Altoona's Chase Young won for the second time this year in the Pro Sprints class, and the fourth time in his career.

Dusty Zomer led lap one of the 20-lap 988 Lifeline 410 A main ahead of Reutzel, Sawyer Phillips, Brian Brown and Austin McCarl. Brown and Bogucki quickly moved into third and fourth before Kaleb Johnson stopped with a throttle problem four laps in. At the same time, Brown relinquished his third place run when his right rear tire went flat.

Reutzel shot out on the restart on the high side and cruised by Zomer in turn three to take the lead. Kelby Watt spun with a flat tire five laps in to set up another restart. Bogucki jumped at the chance to move by Zomer into second on lap seven, and Gio Scelzi and Rico Abreu moved into the top five on lap eight. Scelzi continued his strong run on the high side, grabbing third from Zomer with nine to go.

Bogucki reeled in Reutzel as the pair entered traffic with four to go, but could not make the pass. Things really jammed up with two to go, as Scelzi joined the battle for the lead. Coming for the white flag, Bogucki made his winning move on the low side in heavy traffic.

He was able to come home for his first career 410 win here ahead of Reutzel, Scelzi, Abreu and Zomer. Austin McCarl, Emerson Axsom, Sawyer Phillips, Carson McCarl and Garet Williamson rounded out the top ten. Abreu set quick time over the 39-car field after drawing the last pill. Zeb Wise, Jamie Ball, Kaleb Johnson and Matt Juhl won heats. Chase Randall claimed the B main.

“I can’t thank my guys enough,” said Bogucki in Victory Lane. “It’s twelve hours (from Rapid City) one way and they do this week in and week out. This one is for them. I messed up a couple of laps, and then I got a run on Aaron. I let him see me, and he covered and did what he had to do. We got in lapped traffic, and honestly, I could run it in deeper and deeper the longer the race went on. The car was great and made my job easy. I finally got the boys one!”

Terry McCarl suffered from throttle linkage problems all night long, and he retired before a lap could be completed in the 18-lap 360 feature. Aaron Reutzel led early once the race went green, ahead of Sawyer Phillips, AJ Moeller, Kade Higday and Ryan Leavitt. Phillips had the bottom dialed in, however, and shot by Reutzel to take the point on lap two.

Higday rode the cushion to third on lap six, and Ball followed him into fourth a circuit later. Reutzel pursued the leader, but tangled with the lapped car of Brant O'Banion with eight to go, ending both of their nights. Phillips led Higday, Ball, Moeller and Leavitt back to green.

Phillips held off Higday to take the win, with Ball, Leavitt and Clint Garner trailing. Ryan Giles, Riley Goodno, Joe Beaver, Kaleb Johnson and Cam Martin completed the top ten. Reutzel set quick time over the 35-car field. Ball, Martin, Christopher Thram and Beaver won heats. Timothy Smith won the B main. Ben Brown crashed in hot laps. He was uninjured, but done for the night.

"It was a busy week in the shop," said Phillips, who crashed hard here a week ago. "The 360 has had speed and I've really qualified well the last two years, we just haven't been able to race well. I just wish I could have been able to race Reutzel for that win. He's the best in the 360 right now, and I was looking forward to racing him for the win."

The 15-lap Pro Sprints feature went non-stop. Chase Young took the lead from the start from the pole, ahead of Mike Mayberry, Brandon Worthington, Rob Kubli and J Kinder, who advanced from tenth on lap one. Kubli snagged third from Worthington on lap two.

Young was into lapped traffic on lap eleven, and that's when Kinder went into action. He passed for fourth with four to go, third with two to go and used the high side to move by Mayberry coming for the white flag into second.

Young maintained his advantage to seal the $800 prize. Kinder, Mayberry, Kubli and Worthington followed. AJ Johnson, Josh Jones, Matt Allen, Devin Kline and Toby Mosher completed the top ten. Allen set quick time for the sixth straight week, tying Jerry Hayes (1960) for that honor. Kody Hildreth and Kinder won the heats.

"You were going to have to go around me," said Young of his drive. "I was going to hold the bottom as tight as possible. We were the last car out there, because in the heat race, we had zero brakes. We got lucky with the invert (four) for once. We spent the whole time changing the caliper and changing the brakes. We really didn't get a chance to work on the car."

Austin McCarl Out Drags Madsen to the Line in Crazy Finish at Knoxville!
Aaron Reutzel Cruises to Another 360 Win; Ryan Navratil Scores First Career Win in Pros
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (July 13, 2024) – Austin McCarl won another incredible feature event Saturday with the 988 Lifeline 410's at Knoxville Raceway on Van Wall Night at the Marion County Fair! After passing his brother Carson, he outdueled Kerry Madsen to the checkers to win his eighth career 410 feature here and $6,000 as well as a half beef aboard the Country Builders Construction #88. Aaron Reutzel was dominant in the 360 main event, leading all 18 laps and scoring his fifth win of the season, and the fourteenth in his career in that class, as well as a half a hog. Ryan Navratil became the tenth first-time feature winner at the Knoxville Raceway in 2024, when he made a late race pass in the Pro Sprint main to earn $800 and a quarter-hog.

Garet Williamson took off from the pole in the 20-lap 988 Lifeline 410 sprint main event, followed by Carson McCarl, Austin McCarl, Brian Brown and Madsen. Austin battled by Carson for second, while Madsen claimed fourth from Brown in the early stages. Carson battled back by his brother for the second spot in a good battle. Up front, Williamson was pulling away and heading for traffic four laps in when something broke on the car and sent him into a spin. He was done for the night.

Carson assumed the lead, ahead of his brother, Madsen, Brown and Jake Bubak. Brown was the next to see misfortune eight laps in when he spun, and collected last week's winner, Scott Bogucki. Both were sidelined. That put Carson leading Austin, Madsen, Aaron Reutzel and Bubak back to green.

Austin sized Carson up and passed him on the high side of four at the halfway point. Two laps later, Chase Randall, who was running eighth, also had a malfunction and spun on the front stretch. Fortunately, the field took evasive action.

After that restart with eight to go, Madsen gained second from Carson McCarl on the fourteenth lap and reeled in the leader. On lap 19, he pulled in front of Austin in one and two and led until the front stretch. He repeated his maneuver in great racing in turns one and two on the final lap. He exited turn four low, while Austin ducked under and it was a drag race to the finish!

Austin would edge Madsen by .183 of a second at the checkers. Reutzel passed Carson for third on the last lap, and Emerson Axsom finished fifth. Bubak, Justin Henderson, Tanner Holmes, Sawyer Phillips and Tasker Phillips rounded out the top ten. Brown set quick time over the 38-car field Henderson, Holmes, Sawyer Phillips and Madsen won the heats. Jace Park took the B main.

"I was having a little deja vue with (Carson) and I going at it like we were a few weeks ago," said Austin in Victory Lane. "I feel like we deserved this. We've been so close all year. I feel like we've had a really good car every week. This week I threw something at it. I tried it the second night of the Outlaw show, and maybe it wasn't the track for it. I felt like this was. It paid off there. Obviously, moving down or whatever Kerry was doing (in turns one and two) was better. It's hard to do that leading. The car felt so good, that I felt like if anybody could beat me, they were going to be very good, and Kerry was very good. That worked out how I planned it when we took the white. I just knew the race would be determined about how I got off of (turn) two there. I thought I came off really straight and hard on the cushion."

Reutzel shot out to the lead in the non-stop 18-lap 360 feature immediately, ahead of Kaleb Johnson, Sawyer Phillips, Ryan Giles and Joe Beaver. Clint Garner entered the top five on lap three, but Chase Randall was charging from his starting spot in the seventh row, and took the spot from Garner at the halfway point.

At the same time, Reutzel was maneuvering traffic and extending his lead on Johnson. Randall snatched fourth from Giles on lap eleven, and five laps later, made a breathtaking double pass of Phillips and Johnson on the bottom of one and two in traffic to surge to second.

Up front, Reutzel maintained his advantage and won in the Ridge & Sons Racing #87 over Randall, Phillips, Johnson and Giles. Garner, Terry McCarl, Timothy Smith, Beaver and Jack Anderson completed the top ten. Sawyer Phillips registered quick time over the 39-car field, and Jamie Ball, Cole Garner, Ryan Leavitt and Tony Rost won the heats. Alex Hill claimed the B.

"It's nice to hit the invert now and then," said a happy Reutzel in Victory Lane.

Before a lap could be completed in the 15-lap Pro Sprints feature, Josh Jones lost his way down the backstretch. That collected Bob Hildreth, who took a wild ride into turn three. Both drivers walked away.

Devin Kline led from the pole early, ahead of Ryan Navratil, Mike Mayberry, Toby Mosher and AJ Johnson. Soon, Rob Kubli entered the top five, but otherwise, things stayed status quo.

After the halfway point, Navratil began reeling in the leader, and put on serious pressure, running the middle groove. On lap nine, he snuck around for the lead, but Kline didn't budge and retook the spot, running the bottom on lap ten.

The next circuit, Navratil made the winning pass stick, and headed to the checkers for the first time in his career here, ahead of Kline, Mayberry, Kubli and Mosher. J Kinder, Chase Young, Brandon Worthington, Johnson and Jeff Wilke rounded out the top ten. Young set quick time, and Navratil and Wilke won the heats.

"I got another one in the book," said Navratil of his maiden win. "Now I can say I've officially won in everything I've ever raced. That one topped it all. This place ain't easy. If it was, everyone would do it. It's not forgiving. It's got its beasts, but you've got to tame the beast. This one feels good. This is dedicated to Adam Underberg, one of my sponsors who passed this year."

Austin McCarl Awarded $10,000 360 Shootout Win After DQ!
Aaron Reutzel Strikes Latest Blow in 410 Championship Battle
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (July 20, 2024) – Austin McCarl was awarded the 360 feature win on 3M Night featuring the $10,000 360 Shootout at Knoxville Raceway! The Altoona, Iowa native was awarded the win after the disqualification of Kade Higday after a subsequent tire test. Aaron Reutzel and Austin McCarl continue to battle for the 988 Lifeline 410 track championship, and the former gained his second win of the season and eleventh in his career here aboard the Ridge & Sons Racing #87.

Reutzel shot from sixth to the lead on the initial green of the 25-lap 360 Shootout supported by the Knoxville 360 boosters. His move was negated, however, when Cole Garner came to a stop in turn two. Higday shot away from the pole on the second try, ahead of Carson McCarl, Matt Juhl, Jake Bubak and Reutzel. Reutzel gained fourth from Juhl on lap two, and Austin McCarl was in the top five by lap three. Reutzel shot by Carson McCarl for third on lap four, before Ryan Leavitt flipped in turn three. He was unhurt.

The restart saw more carnage when JJ Hickle climbed a right rear, shot up the track and collected Kaleb Johnson. Both walked away from their mounts. Once green again, Austin McCarl passed Carson for fourth.

Bubak reeled in the leader and onto his bumper. Higday, who had been running the low line the whole way, entered three and Bubak tried to sneak under him, making contact and careening into the turn four wall. The incident collected the third running Reutzel, and set up another restart that saw Higday leading Austin McCarl, Carson McCarl, Jamie Ball and Juhl. While Carson and Austin traded second, Higday pulled away.

With the number of cars eliminated it took awhile to see traffic ahead. Austin gained on the leader slowly, and set up a last lap chance for the win. Entering turn three on the final circuit, McCarl slid in front of Higday for the lead. Higday turned back under and it was a drag race to the checkers with Higday nipping McCarl ($7,000) at the line by just .024 of a second. Juhl ($5,000), Ball ($4,500) and $1,000 Charlie Leavitt Hard-charger Tasker Phillips ($4,000) followed. Tony Rost ($3,500), Ryan Giles ($3,000), a slowing Carson McCarl ($2,700), Josh Schneiderman ($2,400) and Alex Hill ($2,100) rounded out the top ten. Reutzel and Austin McCarl earned $1,000 bonuses for setting quick time over their groups. Reutzel, Joe Beaver, Dustin Selvage, Higday, Clint Garner and Giles won heats. Leavitt and Tyler Lee claimed the B mains. Chase Brown and John Anderson earned $1,000 each for mystery spots in the B. Schneiderman earned $1,000 for a mystery spot in the A.

“I know when (Austin) slid across me, I had to get patient and turn across the bottom,” said Higday. “I had to let him hang in the middle and hope he didn’t get to the cushion, which he didn’t. We were good right off the bat. I’ve got to apologize to Jake Bubak. I didn’t see him until it was too late and we already hit. It sucks to see he and (Reutzel) go out too. Everyone wants to beat him in the 360 class. This is huge! I’m at a loss for words. I’ll think about that race for the next ten years, try to put the pieces together, and still not know how the hell we did it.”

The 988 Lifeline 20-lap 410 feature saw Austin McCarl lead brother Carson, Reutzel, Lynton Jeffrey and Kaleb Johnson early. Scotty Johnson slowed to bring a caution one lap in. Reutzel used a move high in turn two to claim second on that restart. Brandon Wimmer and Johnson exchanged fifth before Johnson took control and then claimed fourth from Jeffrey on lap seven. Wimmer took a hard ride upside down in turn two at the halfway point while running sixth. He got out under his own power.

Austin led Reutzel back to green. Reutzel shot by to take the point in turn two on lap twelve, and entered lapped traffic with five to go. McCarl stayed close until Reutzel split three cars in lapped traffic going into turn one with two laps to go. He cruised to the win from there, earning $6,000 ahead of Austin McCarl, Carson McCarl, Kaleb Johnson and Jeffrey. Juhl, Zach Hampton, Sawyer Phillips, Tasker Phillips and Don Droud Jr. completed the top ten. Reutzel set quick time, and Hampton, Sawyer Phillips and Scotty Johnson won the heats.

“The car was great,” said Reutzel in Victory Lane. “The open red helped us. I knew (Austin) wasn’t going to get off the bottom. We changed gears there, and tried to get up there and make speed. It played out good. I was really good on the short run, and I started struggling as soon as I got by him. I got the wing back and made it better. We’ve been so close to winning in the 410, and I keep giving them away. I’m glad to finally get a win in the 410 again.”

Join us Saturday, July 27 for Weiler Night featuring the 410 Border Battle paying $7,000 to win! The 360 class will also be in action in their last tune-up before the 34th Annual Xstream Powered by Mediacom 360 Knoxville Nationals Presented by Great Southern Bank! Tasker Phillips Is a First Time 410 Winner on Border Battle Night at Knoxville!
Emerson Axsom Adds to the Firsts with a 360 Triumph
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (July 27, 2024) – Tasker Phillips held off a tough 46-car 988 Lifeline 410 field to earn his first ever win in the class at Knoxville Raceway Saturday on Weiler Night featuring the second leg of the Border Battle. Phillips’ win aboard the BDS Motorsports #1 earned him $7,000. Emerson Axsom held off a 62-car 360 field to gain another first win, as he Emerged victorious in that class aboard the Klaasmeyer/Petry Motorsports #27W entry.

The 988 Lifeline 410 feature saw Phillips start from the pole and take the early lead over Garet Williamson, Rico Abreu, Austin McCarl and Tyler Courtney. Abreu threw a slider on Williamson in turn three to take second on lap two, and McCarl followed him into third on lap three.

Phillips was loyal to the cushion and approached lapped traffic on lap nine. McCarl used the high side of turn four to pass Abreu for the second spot, and began reeling in the leader. Phillips was able to maneuver traffic and kept the lead. He appeared to be good to go, but a Zeb Wise spin with two laps to go brought the only caution of the event.

Abreu used the restart to get by McCarl, while Courtney shot into fourth. By the time Abreu cleared McCarl, it was too late to make a move on Phillips, who got his first 360 win here earlier this year as well. With his win, Tasker joins Clint Garner, Bronson Maeschen, Randy Smith, Tim St. Arnold, Chris Walraven, Ricky Logan and Carson McCarl as drivers who have won in all three sprint car classes at Knoxville Raceway.

Tasker led Abreu, Austin McCarl, Courtney and Williamson to the finish. Brian Brown, Chase Randall, Aaron Reutzel, Tanner Holmes and Zeb Wise rounded out the top ten. Abreu and Austin McCarl set quick time over their respective flights, and Abreu, Carson McCarl, John Carney II and Holmes were heat winners. Justin Henderson and Tyler Drueke won the B mains. Logan McCandless suffered a hard flip in time trials. He was unhurt, but done for the night.

“I did a pretty good job with about one to go, smashing into the fence,” said Tasker of holding on to his win. “Austin poked his nose (down low) once, and I screwed around and went down there once. There wasn’t nothing there for me, so I just kept beating down the wall. Luckily, we pulled it off! We haven’t had a (good) time all year, and finally we got a decent time. I’ve been telling everyone, if we get a good time and start from the front...I hate winning from the pole, but I’ll take it anyway I can get it tonight. This thing is bad fast...but how treacherous that cushion was, I was (bleeping!) razor blades!”

Ryan Giles led early in the 18-lap 360 main event ahead of Sawyer Phillips, Reutzel, Emerson Axsom and Tyler Groenendyk. Axsom was on the move early, shooting from fourth to second on lap two, before AJ Moeller took a scary ride, flipping down the frontstretch. He climbed out under his own power.

Giles led Axsom, Sawyer, Reutzel and Randall back to green. Reutzel quickly gained third, with Randall following him into fourth. Axsom sized up Giles by running the low side and cruised by to lead lap six. Two laps later, Reutzel followed him with a slider into second.

Groenendyk was also on the move, gaining fourth on lap eight, and passing Giles for third on lap nine on the low side. A final caution came out for a stopped Zeb Wise with eight laps to go.

Axsom stayed steady to the finish, winning over Reutzel, Groenendyk, Tyler Courtney and Randall. Hank Davis, Clint Garner, Giles, Sawyer Phillips and Riley Goodno completed the top ten. Courtney and Randall paced their respective groups in time trials, while Matt Covington, Sam Hafertepe Jr., Kaleb Johnson, Hunter Schuereberg, Tasker Phillips and Scott Bogucki won the heats. Kaleb Johnson and Tasker Phillips also won the B mains.

“We struggled in the 410 feature, and I knew I needed to get up on the wheel,” said Axsom in Victory Lane. “I didn’t feel like I did well in that race, so I’m super glad we brought this car out, and kind of had a restart on the night. This car is really good. This team is brand new, so to get a win at Knoxville in our first year is pretty impressive. There's a couple more weeks of 410's left, so hopefully, we can pick off one of those too. Just because I haven't always run against the top guys in wing racing, I've done it against the best in non-wing racing a lot, and I was just glad to hold them off."

Kaleb Johnson Picks Perfect Time for First Knoxville Win in 360 Nationals Opener! by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 1, 2024) – Kaleb Johnson led flag to flag on night #1 of the 34th Annual Xstream Powered by Mediacom 360 Knoxville Nationals Presented by Great Southern Bank. The Sioux Falls, South Dakota native earned his first win aboard the DGRD #6, giving that team their maiden victory at Knoxville as well. The win was worth $3,000, and Johnson is the thirteenth different first-time feature winner at Knoxville in 2024.

Johnson led from the pole position in the 18-lapper early, trailed by Kade Higday, Matt Covington, Austi McCarl and Emerson Axsom. Johnson used his preferred low line to pull away from the pack and enter lapped traffic on the ninth circuit. McCarl got by Covington for third at the halfway point.

Chase Randall was on the move after starting outside row six, and on lap twelve, advanced from sixth to fourth. His charge continued with a pass of McCarl with four to go for third. He reeled in Higday and passed him on the high side for second with two to go, but ran out of laps to catch Johnson.

Johnson's win came ahead of Randall, Higday, Austin McCarl and Axsom. Justin Peck, Terry McCarl, Jamie Ball, Covington and Riley Goodno rounded out the top ten. Aaron Reutzel set quick time over the 54-car field, while Matt Juhl, Garet Williamson, Axsom, Hunter Schuereberg and Tanner Holmes won heats. JJ Hickle won the C main, and Reutzel claimed the B.

Axsom leads the pack in points with 488 heading into Saturday's final. Austin McCarl, Jamie Ball, Johnson and Terry McCarl make up the top five in points pending Friday's qualifying night (complete points below).

"I think it definitely helped to start on the pole," said an excited Johnson in Victory Lane. "I saw the moisture coming up on the bottom with the humidity. I'm a little tired, but I was going to make sure I wasn't going to lose that one. I feel like I've had so many chances, not only here, but other places, and I just wasn't able to do it. It was good to finally put a full night together."

"I feel a lot better after that run," said Randall of his hard-charger effort. "We were kind of chasing some issues all night. We just weren't comfortable in the racecar. I think it ran a lot better there, passing a lot of good cars and getting up to second in that feature. I wish we had a yellow. I was really maneuverable in traffic and I wish I had a chance at Kaleb, but he did a good job and was way out there."

"We're really fast," said Higday. "We just need to get better at the end of that race. We need to capitalize when we get to lapped traffic, and we were pretty bad there in that dirty air. That allowed Chase to get by us, and luckily we didn't run fourth or fifth. I hope this sets us up decently."

Sam Hafertepe Jr. Goes Wire to Wire on Night #2 of the 360 Nationals!
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 2, 2024) – Sam Hafertepe Jr. led flag to flag to win night #2 of the Xtream Powered by Mediacom 360 Knoxville Nationals Presented by Great Southern Bank on Friday at the Knoxville Raceway. The Sunnyvale, Texas native earned $3,000 for his third career prelim win at the 360 Nationals and his fourth overall at Knoxville. Emerson Axsom and Tyler Courtney will make up row one for Saturday's $20,000 to win finale based on their point totals. (complete lineups below)

Hafertepe started on the pole beside Brian Brown in the 20-lap main event and got the early jump ahead of Brown, Cory Eliason, Jake Bubak and Skylar Prochaska. Tasker Phillips entered the top five on lap two, but Kasey Kahne shot by him on the low side on lap four. Joe Beaver stopped five laps in. Liam Martin was also involved and went pitside. Beaver restarted at the tail.

Hafertepe led Brown, Eliason, Bubak and Kahne back to green. Kahne grabbed fourth, as Hafertepe continued his run up front. Parker Price-Miller came to a stop inside turn four at the halfway point, setting up another restart.

Brown applied pressure on Hafertepe, who came off the bottom to slide into Brown's line. As the two battled, Eliason closed the gap, and on lap 13, shot by for second. At that point, twelfth running Hank Davis flipped on lap 14, setting a six-lap dash to the checkers.

Hafertepe led from there, with Brown and Eliason exchanging second. Eliason would gain second for good with five to go, and Brown finished third. Bubak, Kahne, Tyler Courtney, Ryan Giles, hard-charger Kerry Madsen, Tasker Phillips and Alex Hill rounded out the top ten. Tyler Groenendyk set quick time over the 53-car field and won his heat. Price-Miller, Colton Hardy, Tanner Thorson and Brown were heat winners. Tyler Lee won the C main, and Madsen claimed the B.

"Brown's really smart," said Hafertepe in Victory Lane. "He runs this place all the time and has a lot of laps around here. If I saw a nose, we'd move and play a little defense. You watch these guys all year and the way they run this place. You try to mimic some of the block moves. I felt we were good in some instances, and in some we weren't. I could put together maybe three laps, and felt like we were really good, and then not so good. The restarts were a challenge. We got a little tight. This is just a testament to our team."

"I didn't need that red," said Eliason. "I felt the longer the runs we had the better we were. Right before that red, I think I got by Brown and was able to get my nose under Sam a couple times. I got him uncomfortable and searching which is what I needed. Clean air is key here especially with the 360. Hat's off to my guys."

"It was a decent night for us," said Brown. "I felt like at points I was a little better than Sam, but he did a good job of moving around and making his car like he should. He's a professional racecar driver. I felt like I may have given up second trying to win the race, but that's what we're here for. I'm looking forward to seeing how far we can go tomorrow."

Tyler Courtney Wins $30,000 at the 360 Nationals! by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 3, 2024) – Tyler Courtney had two non-wing sprint car wins entering Saturday at the Knoxville Raceway. He got his first wing victory in big fashion by cashing in $30,000 as the champion of the 34th Annual Xtream Powered by Mediacom Knoxville 360 Nationals Presented by Great Southern Bank! The Indianapolis, Indiana native's win came aboard the Clauson-Marshall #7BC, and his payday included $20,000 to win and $10,000 in lap money.

Courtney led lap one of the 30-lap main event ahead of Emerson Axsom, Austin McCarl, Cory Eliason and Jamie Ball. Axsom shot by Courtney to lead lap two before Chase Randall jumped the turn three cushion and flipped to bring the red flag. He walked away.

The last 28 laps went non-stop with Axsom shooting back out to the lead and entering lapped traffic on the ninth circuit. Courtney reeled in Axsom and shot around him high in heavy lapped traffic on lap 12. Courtney found his way around the lapped machine of Carson McCarl and then made a big move to get by two more lappers with ten to go.

Axsom struggled in traffic, but closed late to finish second, 1.5 seconds behind the victor. Austin McCarl was third, ahead of Brian Brown and Cory Eliason. Tasker Phillips, Ball, Cole Macedo, Kaleb Johnson and Terry McCarl rounded out the top ten. Axsom earned a bonus $5,000 in lapped money and $500 from Jetco as Rookie of the 360 Nationals. Ball won the DGRD Best Appearing Car and $360. Randall won the B main, Tanner Holmes took the C main, Chris Martin won the D, and Tyler Lee claimed the E main. Alan Zoutte got upside down in the D, and Brendan Mullen and Liam Martin crashed in the C. All walked away. Ryan Bickett went from the E to D to C, and Chris Martin climbed from the D to the C, to the B.

“The team has been busy,” said an excited Courtney. “We came in with not a lot of expectations. We wanted to come here and get laps and confidence, and just get in the mood for the biggest week of the year next week. That was a really good racecar. I feel like we were really good there in the feature. We didn't lead all the laps and get all the money, but we'll take 30 grand! We've never quite got a wing win here, and at the 360 Nationals, I think that means just a little bit more. It's a pretty special win.”

“This is a little disappointing for my guys,” said Axsom beside his Klaasmeyer-Petry #27A entry. “I felt like they gave me a car capable of winning, and I made a mistake and let Tyler by. Then I raced the same guy for about ten laps. I finally got by him and felt like I found a better line into three than Tyler. I was able to track him down, but I'm sure he was riding and saving his tires. I'm happy with our speed but I hate it for our guys. I felt like we had a car capable of winning.”

“I wish I could have been on the front row,” said Austin McCarl. “I just kept praying we'd get to traffic. We kind of got spread out there early. I felt really good. I could peel off and run the bottom stuck, but it just wasn't quite enough to get past (Axsom). There just wasn't enough down there to get a little grip and come across. I'm proud of that old girl in the frame rails (engine). It's probably older than this cameraman."

Rico Abreu Storms to Capitani Classic Win at Knoxville!
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 4, 2024) – Rico Abreu won a duel for the lead with Daryn Pittman and went on to win the Avanti Windows & Doors Capitani Classic Presented by Great Southern Bank Sunday night at Knoxville Raceway. The win was the St. Helena, California driver's seventh at the "Sprint Car Capital of the World" and was worth $13,000 aboard the Rico Abreu Racing #24.

Pittman who won the $2,500 Pole Shuffle to earn the pole position in the 25-lap main event, led early over Brian Brown, Gio Scelzi, Abreu and Carson Macedo. Abreu made a move in turn two on lap two to shoot by both Scelzi and Brown and take over the runner-up spot. Scelzi would work by Brown for third on lap five. Macedo moved into fourth on lap seven.

Abreu reeled in Pittman, utilizing the high side of the track. On lap eight, Abreu slid by Pittman to take the point in turn four. Pittman flew back under Abreu to lead lap nine, and Abreu got a run off of turn two to take command again on lap ten.

Abreu stretched the lead in traffic from there. Scelzi used lapped traffic to get by Pittman at the halfway point for second. Macedo would also advance, and battled Pittman back and forth for the show position in the late stages.

Abreu's final margin was 3.5 seconds over Scelzi ($9,000), Macedo ($5,000), Pittman and Brad Sweet. Spencer Bayston, Austin McCarl, $2,500 hard-charger Corey Day, Donny Schatz and Brown rounded out the top ten. The 82-car field was a record for the Cappy topping an 81-car showing in 2013. Buddy Kofoid and Brown set quick time over their respective groups. Scott Bogucki, Aaron Reutzel, Sam Hafertepe Jr., Emerson Axsom, Abreu, Bayston and Pittman won heats. Cory Eliason and Kraig Kinser won the C mains and Kofoid and Justin Peck claimed the B mains. Pittman won the $2,500 "Pole Shuffle" two-lap match races.

"That's what we've been working for all year," said Abreu. "I'm just really happy for my team. They really put their heads down and work on these things. It's a special place to be up here on the front stretch. We've made it a point to come here a few times this season. Those 25-lap features, when they go non-stop, they can get quite grueling mentally. You get excited catching lapped traffic, because you know that's where you can get a torrid pace. I know what (Cappy) brought to Knoxville, the history, and it's important this event continues and the fans support this the week before Nationals."

"What a great racetrack," said Scelzi. "This is a Nationals-like racetrack with a treacherous cushion and a narrow bottom. Green to checker races I like honestly. With restarts you tend to struggle and think too much. I was going as hard as I could. I missed the bottom the last four or five laps, but I don't know that I would have caught him."

"What a race there," said Macedo. "There were stages where we were all four grouped together. I thought that my car was definitely competitive enough to get in the right place to get up front. We just got stuck battling there for a while with (Pittman). It was just good hard racing. Hat's off to this race team. They did a great job."

Giovanni Scelzi Top of the Class in Night #1 Knoxville Nationals!
 by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 7, 2024) – Gio Scelzi emerged victorious on BRANDT Professional Agriculture Qualifying Night #1 at Knoxville Raceway Wednesday. The Fresno, California driver worked forward steadily and took a late lead to take the $12,000 prize and the honor of the top point driver for Wednesday. He will see how his 471 point total fares after Thursday’s qualifiers run tomorrow (complete points below).

Jacob Allen looked strong early in the 25-lap main event and took the early lead over Justin Peck, Chase Randall, Scott Bogucki and Scelzi. Brent Marks surged from sixth to fourth on lap two, and Scelzi worked by Bogucki to enter back in the top five on lap three.

Allen began to enter traffic, before Jamie Ball slowed on lap nine to bring the only caution of the event. That negated a Scelzi pass of Marks for fourth, but he repeated the move on lap 12, and then shot under Randall to take over third on lap 13.

Allen entered lapped traffic on lap 17. Behind him, Scelzi, rode under Peck to take the runner-up spot. Allen maneuvered traffic well, but Scelzi slowly reeled him in. The racing was tight, and Scelzi squeezed by in heavy lapped traffic to take the point on lap 21.

Scelzi was first to the line in his fifth career win at Knoxville over Allen, Peck, Randall and Marks. Bogucki, Brock Zearfoss, Aaron Reutzel, Corey Day and hard-charger Anthony Macri rounded out the top ten. Matt Juhl set quick time over the 52-car field and Sam Hafertepe Jr., Ball, Donny Schatz, Reutzel and Randall won heats. Cale Thomas won the C main and Macri claimed the B.

“What an incredible job to my guys,” said Scelzi in Victory Lane. “Normally, yellows are by kryptonite, and I just got by Marks and the yellow came out. The bottom seemed to get easier and easier to run as all the crumbs got thrown up. I’ve never won a prelim night here, I’ve run second. This just sets us up well for Saturday.”

“Honestly, I think I ran a pretty good race,” said Allen. “It was a race I was pretty proud of running. I felt like my racecar was really good. Obviously, Gio had a really good car as well. There’s honestly nothing to hang our heads about. Last year, I didn’t even run this race and took some time to come back. To lead my prelim night and run second is a huge accomplishment.”

“I feel like we struggled most of the night,” said Peck. “I think we have a lot of improving to do for Saturday, but all in all I think we’re pretty close. We need to find a little bit more speed. I feel like I’m struggling getting in the corner. We’ll keep working. It’s cool to get on the podium at the Knoxville Nationals. We’ll keep tuning on it for Saturday.”

Kyle Larson Wins with Late Magic on Night #2 of the Knoxville Nationals!
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 8, 2024) – Kyle Larson passed Rico Abreu with two laps to go to capture Toyota Qualifying Night #2 of the 63rd NOS Energy Drink Knoxville Nationals Presented by Casey's. The Elk Grove, California driver earned $12,000 for his eleventh win at Knoxville Raceway, and put himself on the pole of Saturday's championship event paying $190,000 to win. Daryn Pittman will join him on the front row, as they led the top sixteen drivers in points locking themselves into the finale.

Bill Balog led at the outset of the 25-lap main event, followed by Abreu, Carson Macedo, Brady Bacon and Larson. On lap four, Larson gained fourth from Bacon. Up front, Balog was hitting traffic by lap seven.

Abreu reeled in Balog in traffic and slid in front of him in turn four to take the point on lap 12. A lap later, Macedo followed him into second. With ten to go, Larson gained third from Balog, while Tyler Courtney moved into the top five.

Larson continued his charge on the cushion and got around Macedo for second with seven laps to go. He slowly reeled in Abreu. On lap 24, Abreu stumbled a bit in turn two behind a lapper, and Larson used the low side to take the lead for good.

Larson's win aboard Paul Silva's #57 came ahead of Abreu, Macedo, Courtney and Balog. Pittman, Brad Sweet, Bacon, Zeb Wise and Brian Brown rounded out the top ten. Pittman set quick time over the 54-car field and won his heat. Hunter Schuerenberg, Tasker Phillips, Macedo and Ayrton Gennetten also won heats. Sye Lynch won the C main and Dusty Zomer claimed the B.

"Rico was doing a good job as the leader," said Larson in Victory Lane. "Carson got rolling there for a minute, and I didn't think I was going to get by him. I didn't really know exactly what to do. Rico got to a lapper. He couldn't follow him and had to go top or middle. That car hit the berm in front of me. That gave me a bunch of clean air and probably messed him up. We were in the right place at the right time, but you always have to execute every lap. The car felt great during the feature. The car felt better and better as that slime got thrown off the bottom."

"Got to do a little better job managing traffic," said Abreu. "I felt like I left the bottom open there. The top was just really far around. My right front would get up a little bit where I had to give some up in the center. The team did an awesome job. To finish on the podium with these guys is a good effort for my team."

"The race was in stages for me," said Macedo. "I felt like early, I got a back a little too far. I started catching them again when I got to traffic. I felt like I could maneuver well in traffic. I got to Rico, and he kind of got messed up. I thought I could squeeze by him, and paced myself behind him waiting for an opportunity. I saw the 57 beside me and went down in three and missed it. I knew I was in trouble. All in all, hat's off to my team."

Donny Schatz Takes Care of Business on FVP “Hard Knox Night” at Knoxville!
Logan Schuchart, Justin Henderson and Emerson Axsom Join Him in Saturday’s Championship
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 9, 2024) – Donny Schatz has had a rough week at Knoxville, but a stroke of luck and strong feature drive have him headed to Saturday night’s finale of the 63rd NOS Energy Drink Knoxville Nationals Presented by Casey’s. It was the thirtieth win for the Fargo, North Dakota native, who won aboard the Tony Stewart Racing #15. Friday’s “Hard Knox Night” at the Nationals saw the top four qualifying for Saturday’s finale. Other top four finishers, Logan Schuchart, Justin Henderson and Emerson Axsom will join Schatz in Saturday’s finale. (Full lineups below)

Getting to even start up front in the feature took some luck for Schatz. After setting quick time in his group, he ran fourth in a heat race that only took the top three to the main event. However, when the second place car of Jack Dover failed to go to the scales, he inherited the third and final transfer, putting him on the pole.

Schatz led lap one in the 25-lapper ahead of Schuchart, Austin McCarl, Skylar Gee and Henderson. Schuchart used the low side to get by Schatz and lead lap two, but Donny returned the favor on lap three. Meanwhile, Henderson took the fourth spot from Gee.

Six laps in Cale Thomas did a 360 spin that brought caution. Schatz led Schuchart, McCarl, Henderson and Lynton Jeffrey back to green. Henderson shot to third on that restart, and on lap 13, Axsom entered the picture, and passed McCarl for the fourth spot. Schatz was entering traffic on lap 14, and a circuit later, McCarl came to a stop on the backstretch.

Schatz paced the last ten laps ahead of Schuchart. Axsom gained third, but Henderson got the spot back on the final lap. Jeffrey finished fifth and will start eleventh in Saturday’s program. Cole Macedo, Spencer Bayston, Kaleb Johnson, Buddy Kofoid and Tanner Holmes rounded out the top ten. Seventy-nine of the 80 cars eligible for Friday’s program competed. Schuchart joined Schatz as a quick timer in his group, and Holmes, McCarl, Johnson, Kasey Kahne, Macedo and Thomas won heats. Ryan Timms won the C main and Chris Windom and Ayrton Gennetten claimed the B mains. McKenna Haase was involved in a scary crash in the heat race. She was taken to the hospital for observation.

“It wasn’t the prettiest,” said Schatz of his 30th win a Knoxville. “But it’s the Knoxville Nationals and sometimes you have to be lucky too. These Ford Motors run so good that sometimes you get to spinning the wheels and that’s what happened to us in the heat. These guys went to work on it and made some changes. We’re going to have to be a little better tomorrow to come through the field, but the first thing you’ve got to do is get in the show. This is our first Friday performance. Sometimes you have to use it to your advantage.”

“The biggest thing is that we’re in the show tomorrow,” said Schuchart. “We started 22nd in this thing before and made a charge, so that’s our goal. We’ll see how many cars we can pass tomorrow. The stress of just qualifying to make this thing is so tough. I would have liked to get a win tonight. I had Donny there in the beginning, and once I went to the top, he got back to the bottom and it was game over then unless we got to traffic. Cautions came out at the right time for him.”

“I feel like I learned a little bit from Emerson there,” said Henderson beside the Guy Forbrook #5x. “I changed my line a bit and was trying to be patient and smart all at the same time. We had a fantastic car here tonight. I’m extremely happy to run this car. I’m super happy to make the A main. This is the Knoxville Nationals and it obviously doesn’t get any better than this. There’s more stress in this race than any other.”

“We made the Knoxville Nationals,” said Axsom. “My stuff is really good. I felt like I was making really good laps there trailing Logan, and I was surprised Justin got back by us. I’m really happy with it, but I guess it hasn't really sunk in yet. We made a motor change tonight and it paid off. We struggled the last two nights with the 410. I'm really happy with this combination we have going on."

Join us Saturday, August 10, for the finale of the 63rd NOS Energy Drink Knoxville Nationals Presented by Casey's! For more information on the Knoxville Raceway, visit us online at www.KnoxvilleRaceway.com or on Facebook.

Kyle Larson Leads from Start to Finish in Third Knoxville Nationals Triumph! by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 10, 2024) – Kyle Larson was the class of the field all week at the 63rd NOS Energy Drink Knoxville Nationals, and Saturday he capped it off with his third career win in sprint car racing's biggest event. The Elk Grove, California driver earned $190,000 for his win aboard the Paul Silva #57. His wins the last two years have seen him lead all 50 laps.

Larson earned the pole position as high point driver for the week, and he led early over Daryn Pittman, Carson Macedo, Rico Abreu and Tyler Courtney. Anthony Macri entered the top five by lap four, and Logan Schuchart slowed to bring a caution on lap five.

Macri climbed to fourth when he passed Abreu on lap 7, as Gio Scelzi entered the top five. Scelzi found some speed on the low side, and passed Macri for fourth on lap nine. Larson was in lapped traffic on the sixteenth circuit, as Macedo passed Pittman for the runner-up position. Scelzi followed him into third on lap 18.

The event was stopped at the halfway point with an open red. Though any changes were allowed, owner and crew chief Paul Silva decided there would be no tire change on Larson's entry despite several teams electing to do so. At that point, Larson led Macedo, Scelzi, Macri and Corey Day back to green.

On lap 27, Scelzi passed Macedo for second, and appeared to be reeling Larson slowly in. By lap 38, Larson was back in traffic, and his car worked well high, low and in the middle as he put several lapped cars between himself and Scelzi.

Larson's final margin of victory was 3.8 seconds over Scelzi. Day charged to third, followed by Macedo and Macri. Brian Brown, Courtney, Scott Bogucki, Sheldon Haudenschild and Jacob Allen rounded out the top ten.

Sawyer Phillips won the E main, Don Droud Jr. claimed the D main, Brenham Crouch took the C and Brad Sweet won the B main. Kaleb Johnson flipped in the B main, but was uninjured.

Gio Scelzi took home $1500 in the DGRD “Best Appearing Car” contest. Matt Juhl ($750) was second and Donny Schatz ($400) was third. The Jason Johnson Racing #41 team won the Avanti Windows & Doors “Best Appearing Crew” and $500. The Shark Racing #1s team was second ($250) and the Tony Stewart Racing #15 team was third ($150). Kyle Larson won the $2,000 SprintCarUnlimited Pole Award. Emerson Axsom was the Jetco Rookie of the Year ($1,000). The MPI Hard Charger was Corey Day, and Brian Brown was the week’s MPV Jesse Hockett “Mr. Sprint Car,” winning $6,500.

“It doesn’t get any bigger than the Knoxville Nationals,” said Larson in Victory Lane. “It feels great to lead back to back in 50 lappers from start to finish, because it’s the best sprint car drivers in the world behind me. They don’t make it easy. It was a tricky race there. Those lappers were just fast enough on the bottom and I felt like I was slowing myself down. I feel like I strung some good laps in at the end. We’ve been really bad this year, up until the last couple of weeks. The team works so hard, and all this goes to them. The tires (at the halfway point) looked brand new, so what’s the point in changing? We led the first 25, so why put on a new set and trick yourself? I felt better the second half.”

“I’m proud of this team,” said Scelzi. “I want to win this race more than anything in my life. You have to lose them before you can win them. I felt so good (on the bottom), I just didn’t want to go on the top because it kept getting bigger and bigger. I jumped off of it in four, and got to Kyle. I was better on the bottom in three and four, but he found his way and left me. My car was amazing. You don’t get these chances very often. You have to take advantage of them when you get them.”

“I feel like we had a really good car there,” said Day. “A caution in that last run would have helped I think. To run third here behind Kyle and Gio is awesome. You always want to win, but I have to give it up to them. We weren’t great on Wednesday night in the feature there, and we got our car better tonight. Hat’s off to my team. We’ve highly exceeded our expectations this year.”

Emerson Axsom Becomes Seventh First-Time 410 Winner at Knoxville in 2024; Austin McCarl is Champ!

Aaron Reutzel Wins 360 Main, Jamie Ball Wins Title; Ryan Navratil Wins Second Pro Sprint Feature in a Row, Mike Mayberry is Champ by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (August 24, 2024) – Champions were crowned Saturday on McKay Insurance Group Season Championship Night at the Knoxville Raceway. Emerson Axsom won his first career 410 feature at Knoxville, while Austin McCarl won his third track championship with the series. Aaron Reutzel won his sixth 360 feature of the year Saturday, while Jamie Ball claimed his first season title. Ryan Navratil won for the second time in a row with the Pro Sprints, while Mike Mayberry claimed his second track championship by just ten points.

Lynton Jeffrey led lap one in the 25-lap 988 Lifeline 410 main event, ahead of Carson McCarl, Axsom, Reutzel and Ryan Timms. Entering the feature, Austin McCarl needed at least an eleventh place finish if Aaron Reutzel was victorious. Those plans were dashed for Reutzel when he broke a rear axle just one lap in.

Carson McCarl snuck by Jeffrey to lead lap two on the restart, but Jeffrey reclaimed the point on lap three. Carson didn't go away, however, and as the pair entered traffic, clid by Jeffrey to take the lead back on lap seven. Axsom was moving as well, and got by Jeffrey for second on lap eight. Timms followed him into third on lap nine, and Tasker Phillips claimed fourth on lap ten. Kerry Madsen entered the top five on lap 11.

While Carson McCarl used the low side, Axsom started reeling him in on the cushion. On lap 14, he took the lead for good coming off of turn four. With ten laps to go, the final caution came out for Sawyer Phillips, who performed a 360 spin.

Axsom held on to the lead to grab his first 410 win at Knoxville. Madsen passed Timms on lap 17 and Carson with three to go to claim second. Carson was third, followed by Tasker Phillips and Austin McCarl. Timms, Rookie of the Year Zach Hampton, hard-charger Jace Park, Jeffrey and Sawyer Phillips rounded out the top ten. Timms set quick time in his first night in the Forbrook #5. Tasker Phillips, Ayrton Gennetten and Matt Juhl won heats.

“I honestly didn't mind (the lapped traffic),” said Axsom in Victory Lane. “I felt like where I was positioned, it helped me out. I was able to get a run on those guys. When you're that bottled up, it's best just to go where nobody's at. I did just that and found a little bit of clean air. I felt good on the curb, and that's about as good as I've felt all year. I'm really happy where our car's at, and I really wish we could go back and restart the season, and start where we're at now.”

“I have to thank everyone at Country Builders,” said Austin McCarl of his second championship in a row aboard the Country Builders Construction #88. “Thank you for everything (Weldon Offill). Nothing is possible without you and the whole Offill family. I felt like if I did get beat, I would think of the crash I had with Emerson and the DNF. Luckily, it all worked out.”

The 20-lap 360 feature saw a couple of mishaps before a lap could be completed. Kade Higday got sideways on the first and collected Jack Anderson, who flipped. He was unhurt. On the second try, Brandon Wimmer flipped hard, collecting Ben Brown and Terry McCarl. The latter two restarted at the tail. Wimmer was o.k.

Once green, Joe Beaver led the field, ahead of Cam Martin, Ryan Leavitt, Aaron Reutzel and Clint Garner. Reutzel grabbed third on lap five. Garner moved forward to fourth on lap eight. Martin and Reutzel battled hard for the second spot in close action on lap nine.

At the halfway point, Reutzel pulled a move that shot him past both Martin and Beaver and into the lead. A lap later, he was into traffic. Martin gained second from Beaver on lap 12. Tyler Groenendyk was a late closer, moving into fifth on lap 14, taking fourth on lap 15, and grabbing third from Beaver with four to go.

Reutzel cruised to his fifteenth career 360 win here, ahead of Martin, Groenendyk, Garner and Tony Rost. Beaver, Riley Goodno, season champion, Jamie Ball, Sawyer Phillips and Ryan Giles completed the top ten.

Higday set quick time over the 36-car field, while Ball, Jack Anderson, Sawyer Phillips and Nate Mills won the heats. Cole Garner claimed the B.

“We definitely have a bullet under the hood, and I have Don Long to thank for that,” said Reutzel in Victory Lane. “Our package in the 360 is so wide. I can experiment a little bit, and then we’re still usually right there at the end of the night. It was another great year. It was a lot of fun. I love racing here every week. There’s nothing like it.”

“The guys on my team are amazing and they made things super-simple for me,” said Ball of his championship aboard his #4w. “We did double duty most of the time. We’ve been pretty dialed in most of the year. The tires threw us for a loop the last month or so. We had a big enough point deal built up that it wasn’t overly stressful. That meant going into the Nationals with the stress off.”

Ryan Navratil jumped out from his starting spot outside row one early in the 18-lap Pro Sprints feature, ahead of J Kinder, Matt Allen, Rob Kubli and Devin Kline. If Kinder won, Mike Mayberry would have to finish seventh or better to lock the Pro championship.

Kubli shot around Allen for third on lap six. Navratil was into traffic by lap 12 before Brandon Worthington came to a stop on the front straightaway. Kinder was all over Navratil on the restart and took the lead. However, he was called for leaving too early and pulling beside the leader at the cone, and Toby Mosher spun and AJ Johnson tipped over to set up another restart.

This time, Navratil held the point as Kubli and Kinder went three-wide for the lead at one point. Kinder would gain second on the white flag lap, and was followed by Kubli, Allen and Kline. Hard-charger Matthew Stelzer, Chase Young, Mayberry, Mosher and Jeff Wilke rounded out the top ten. Mayberry’s margin of victory in the season championship was a mere ten points. Mosher set quick time over the field, while Navratil and Wilke won the heats.

“The last restart before four to go, I was up on the berm and the car was pretty tight,” said Navratil of his win and his luck with the called back restart. “We went back a lap with the caution, which was good. Last year, we had trouble with the cautions, and this year, I guess they helped.”

“It was definitely close,” said Mayberry of his championship that was ten points better than Kinder. “I didn’t want it to be that close, but that’s how it worked out. It was kind of a war tonight.”

Jonathan Davenport Leads Wire to Wire on Night #1 of the Late Model Knoxville Nationals!
Bobby Pierce is High Point Man
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (September 19, 2024) – Jonathan Davenport led the distance on night #1 of the 20th Annual Lucas Oil Late Model Knoxville Nationals Presented by Your Life Iowa at the Knoxville Raceway Thursday. The Blairsville, Georgia native earned $7,000 for his fifth win at Knoxville aboard the Lance and Darla Landers #49. Bobby Pierce came two points short of a perfect score with his second place run, and led the 40-car field in points (complete points below). Tyler Inman recorded his first ever feature win at Knoxville in the companion DTRA Dirt Truck main event.

Davenport led from the outset from his starting spot outside row one. Chad Simpson was second early, ahead of Hudson, O'Neal, Dillon McCowan and Devin Moran. Shuffling back in the field saw Pierce moving into the top five, battling McCowan, O'Neal and Moran. O'Neal and McCowan exchanged third, before O'Neal and Pierce moved into second and third on lap nine.

Davenport entered traffic on lap 12, two circuits before Boom Briggs spun after contact with Matt Furman. Davenport led O'Neal, Pierce, McCowan, Moran and Tim McCreadie back to green. Pierce shot into second on the restart, and tailed Davenport to the checkers. He finished with 498 points of a possible 500 after setting quick time and winning his heat from sixth. O'Neal held onto third, with Moran and McCreadie in tow. McCowan, Tyler Erb, Ryan Gustin, hard-charger Brian Shirley and Carson Ferguson rounded out the top ten.

Gustin joined Pierce as quick timers in their qualifying groups. Pierce's time (16.644) was the quickest in 16 years here and was just a hundredth of a second behind Earl Pearson Jr.'s 2008 record mark of 16.631. Max Blair, Mike Marlar, Pierce and Ross Robinson won heats. Shirley and Garrett Alberson won the B mains.

"The car actually felt pretty good," said Davenport in Victory Lane. "My guys gave me a great piece. We tried a few things there and they seemed to really work. Pierce seems to have the best car. He kind of waxed us qualifying, and drove up through there in the heat. I knew unless I really messed up, it would be hard for him to pass me. It's important to start in the front of pack, and it's good to get the weekend started off right."

Tyler Inman started outside row one in the 15-lap DTRA Dirt Trucks main event and led every lap in his first career feature here. Brandon Cox gained second on lap three and held that position, while Jeff Johnson rounded out the podium, gaining third with two laps to go. Brandon Toftee, Austin Meiners, Mason Mitchell, Rick Clark, Jared Myers, Shonn Mapes, Shawn Cooney and Todd Grafton completed the field. Toftee and Cox won heat races.

"We were all really worried about this place," said Inman, who sealed the 2024 DTRA championship as well. "I wanted to win this really bad, so I was cool to seal the deal. This stage is awesome. Knoxville is a whole different ballgame, and we're extremely glad to be here. I was just having fun up there on top and hoping no one would come to the bottom."

Bobby Pierce Wins Night #2 at the Late Model Nationals!

Kelly Shryock Takes Dirt Crown Stock Car Feature

by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (September 20, 2024) – Bobby Pierce, who cinched the high point total for the week Thursday, added a feature victory on Friday on Night #2 of the Lucas Oil Knoxville Nationals Presented by Your Life Iowa. The Oakwood, Illinois native's win was his second at Knoxville and earned him $7,000. His 498-point total on Thursday has earned him the pole position for Saturday's $50,000 to win finale (full lineups below). Kelly Shryock, who picked up two Harris Clash Modified wins at Knoxville in 1997 and 2000, earned a third career win here with his triumph in the Dirt Crown Stock Car feature.

The 25-lap Late Model non-stop main event saw Daulton Wilson lead lap one before Pierce took over on the second circuit. Devin Moran rode third, and Max Blair took over the fourth spot. Moran gained second from Wilson on lap five, and Blair followed him into third on lap seven. Wilson briefly battled back by, but Blair shot from fourth to second on lap nine, as Brandon Sheppard entered the top five, after starting ninth.

Pierce built a huge lead on the cushion, building a 3.9 second margin by lap ten. Sheppard advanced from fifth to third in a three-car battle as Pierce approached lapped traffic.

Blair reeled in the leader as the bottom of the track built rubber. When Pierce went high to deal with a lapper, Blair cruised by into the lead on lap 17. Entering turn one, Blair slipped out of the groove and Pierce pounced on the mistake slipping by to lead lap 18. Sheppard followed him into second.

From there Pierce led the field the rest of the way, finishing ahead of Sheppard, Blair, Moran and Wilson. Daniel Hilsabeck, Jonathan Davenport, Garrett Smith, Hudson O'Neal and Garrett Alberson rounded out the top ten. Blair and Alberson set quick time in their respective groups. Brian Shirley, Tim McCreadie, Chase Junghans and Mike Marlar won the heats. Drake Troutman and Justin Zeitner won the B mains.

"We were lucky to get back by Max there," said Pierce in Victory Lane. "It took rubber there. It is what it is. I was a little tight...even on the top the car was laying over a bit. I couldn't get around there the way I wanted to. (Blair) shoved off the rubber. At that time, it was really patchy. It was either slick, or tacky. I think he got the lead, and sometimes when you get the lead, you don't know how hard to charge the next corner. I think he got a little hot and shoved. I was luckily in the right spot at the right time."

"I definitely thought I had a shot," said Sheppard of his run from ninth. "We had a really good car...a lot better than yesterday. I couldn't even make it around yesterday. The guys went to work today and gave me a pretty good piece. I think we have a really good car here (for Saturday). I'm really looking forward to it."

"(Pierce) moved up on that lapped car and I knew it was rubbered pretty good," said Blair. "I thought, 'Man, I think I just won this race.' I kind of drove into one a little easier than I should have, and I got tight and pushed straight out of the rubber. I gave that one away, it really sucks. You don't get too many opportunities like that at a place like this. Overall, we qualified really well and were really good in the feature. Hopefully, we can put another one together tomorrow."

The 20-lap Dirt Crown Stock Car feature began with Jesse Dennis leading Jordan Grabouski and Austin Brauner early. A caution two laps in for Damon Murty and Mark Leiting slowed things. Brauner snatched second on the restart, and Kelly Shryock entered the top five after falling back to seventh early.

Shryock gained third on lap five, second on lap six, and got by Dennis for the lead, using the low side on lap seven. One final caution for debris slowed things on lap twelve. Shryock cruised from there, with Brauner in tow. The battle for third was a good one, but in the end, Grabouski grabbed that spot. Jake Masters would come on late for fourth, ahead of Johnny Spaw. Tanner Allen, Jeff Ware, Kyle Vanover, Dustin Vis and Jim Horejsi completed the top ten. Masters was the quick timer on the night, and Grabouski, Shryock and Tyler Frye won heats.

“This stage is awfully big here,” said Shryock in Victory Lane. “Anytime you can stand on this stage, it’s pretty darn cool, for sure. We kind of fell back there, back to seventh or eighth. The groove was on the bottom, and that’s kind of where this hot rod really shines. We thank Knoxville for letting us be here. These stock cars put on a hell of a race, and I’m just really excited to be able to drive it.”

Bobby Pierce Breaks Through for $50,000 Knoxville Nationals Score!
Jeff Aikey Takes Malvern Bank SLMR Bob Maschmann Memorial
by Bill Wright

KNOXVILLE, Iowa (September 21, 2024) – Bobby Pierce was the class of the field in Saturday night's $50,000 to win finale of the 20th Lucas Oil Late Model Knoxville Nationals Presented by Your Life Iowa. The Oakwood, Illinois native's win was his first of the event. Pierce lost the lead only once in the 75-lap feature.

Bobby Pierce led early in the main event ahead of Devon Moran, Jonathan Davenport, Hudson O'Neal and Tim McCreadie. Pierce hit lapped traffic on lap seven, and had a 1.4 second lead on lap ten. Davenport passed Moran for second on lap 18, and the first caution of the event came out for Ryan Gustin 19 laps in.

O'Neal shot into second on the restart, ahead of Moran, Davenport and McCreadie. Brian Shirley entered the top five on lap 26, and then took fourth from Davenport on lap 27. Pierce was lapping cars again on lap 28. McCreadie passed Davenport for fifth on lap 30. Dillon McCowan stopped on lap 34 to bring another yellow.

O'Neal had another great restart, taking the lead from Pierce. Shirley was third, ahead of Sheppard and Moran. McCreadie advanced to fifth on lap 36 and then fourth on lap 38, followed by Wilson. Sheppard continued his climb, taking third on lap 39.

Up front, Pierce reeled O'Neal back in, and performed a slider in turn one to retake the point on lap 43. Pierce was back in lapped traffic on lap 45. Shirley took third from Sheppard in lapped traffic on lap 53 before Mike Marlars slowed to bring a yellow flag on lap 55. Pierce led O'Neal, Shirley, Sheppard and Wilson back to green.

O'Neal got above the cushion and into the wall, losing several spots and Shirley moved into the second spot, ahead of Wilson, McCreadie and Sheppard. McCreadie retook third from Wilson on lap 57. When O'Neal slowed to bring a caution with fifteen to go, light rain began to fall, and a brief delay followed.

A rejuvenated track welcomed the field back to green. McCreadie jumped into second, followed by Moran, Shirley and Garrett Alberson. Shirley had dropped to fourth, but regained third on lap 62 and second from McCreadie on lap 63. Moran moved by McCreadie for third on lap 66, and Alberson was fourth by lap 68.

Pierce was back in lapped traffic on the 71st circuit, but by then, he was gone, taking his first ever Knoxville Late Model Nationals ahead of Shirley, Moran, Alberson and McCreadie. Davenport, Gustin, who recovered from the tail on lap 19, Chase Junghans, Sheppard and Chris Simpson rounded out the top ten. Tyler Bruening won the 15-lap B main.

“The track was going through a transition there,” said Pierce of the restart that O’Neal passed him for the lead. “You’re damned if you do and damned if you don’t, going to the top and getting passed on the bottom, or vice versa. It looked like he was struggling. He was kind of laid over and really wasn’t getting over the corners. I could tell I was eating him up through the corner. Anytime you can be right on them on a big track like this, you know you’re better. He got a little tight in four, and I put a slider on him in one. It was nerve wracking hanging onto the lead. Two years ago, we had some mechanical issues while we were leading here. It feels great to win here. It’s an awesome place, such a unique track. Everything about this place is unique. It really doesn’t race like anywhere else. It’s a lot of fun out there.”

“It was a weird deal there,” he said of the rain delay. “I guess they saw it was a little cell. Hat’s off to them for completing the race and giving the fans 75 laps. I was definitely worried about tires. Typically when it rains, even the slick parts of the track get tacky for awhile. The nerve wracking part was we got a quick lap and a half and the top felt slimy. That’s where I was running before the caution, and I knew (Shirley) was running the middle, and I didn’t want to give him the middle. I made the decision to run the bottom the first lap and a half, and it kind of moved to the middle and then the top. It’s nerve wracking to be the leader on a track that’s in transition.”

“I definitely felt my car was good,” said Shirley. “My motor was laying down on the restart. It was just a tough one to be so close racing against the best in the business. Not very often do you get a racecar that can be that phenomenal. It just shows what hard work can do. We’ll keep fighting.”

“That’s the Knoxville we come to race on,” said Moran. “They did a great job on the track with the weather. I’m glad they didn’t cancel it (with 15 to go). They could of and they didn’t. That benefited me, and we’re ready to come back next year.”

Tad Pospisil led the Malvern Bank SLMR non-stop 22-lap Bob Maschmann early over Kyle Berck, Jake Neal, Jeff Aikey and Andrew Kosiski. Berck closed on the leader, until getting by on lap six and pulling away. Neal and Aikey found their way to second and third on the following lap.

Berck was lapping cars on the thirteenth circuit, while Aikey shot by Neal for second. Bill Leighton Jr., who started thirteenth, entered the top five on lap 14. Slowly, Aikey was gaining on the leader in traffic, and he passed Berck low in turn four with six laps to go.

At the time, you could throw a blanket over the top five in close action. Aikey continued to build his lead and won for the third career time here, while Leighton was the fastest late in the race, grabbing third with three to go and taking second with two to go. Neal finished third, ahead of Berck and Pospisil. Tom Berry Jr., Chad Holladay, Andrew Kosiski, Dylan Sillman and JC Wyman rounded out the top ten. Pospisil set quick time over the field, while Aikey, Dylan Thornton and Berck won heats.

Aikey’s win was worth $4,000, and a $2,500 bonus made his winning total $6,500.

“I’ve never sat in this seat,” said Aikey in Victory Lane. “This is a dream come true to sit in this #16 car for Greg Bruening and this crew. I’m telling you what, what a badass hot rod! I’m 62 years old...I still got her daddy!”
